reaching out

touching is wonder.
we think of it as reaching out
to know
to grow
to explore
to love
to believe
but there is also reaching within . . .
an inside touching that comes first.

mcmahon & campbell

having art seventh hour made the end of a hard day a little more relaxing.

angela sneller, football queen, and her court look happy even though it was a soggy homecoming.

the nhs band and pep club formed the american flag for half-time entertainment.

fantastic . . .

oh david!!!!

who wants gum?
i do, i do!!

many faces, many moods

dedicated to mr. gary sims

the 1974 neohimo is dedicated to gary sims, a member of the faculty at nhs. mr. sims has been very active in the past years with the student body. he was freshmen basketball coach of the 1974 seniors as well as junior varsity coach, and sponsor of student council. he is an avid sports enthusiast and has followed the class of '74 in all sports. his favorite poet is rod mc Kuen. he was the 1974 commencement speaker, and was chosen by students to speak. we know that the students of nhs mean a lot to mr. sims but more than that . . . mr. sims means an awful lot to us. mr. sims, we dedicate this 1974 neohimo to you!

educating

we do not come to believe in ourselves
until someone reveals that deep inside us something is valuable
worth listening to
worthy of our trust
sacred to our touch.

—macmahon & campbell

important people in our school system include (top left) richard bryan, principal at goodman; (bottom left) james paullus, jr. high principal; (top right) dennis griffin, high school principal; and (bottom right) paul collins, assistant principal at nhs.

the school board consisted of mary ann kenney; dr. john evans; lewis cole, president; dr. james castleberry, superintendent; garland douglas; ralph cope; gary higdon. below, dr. james castleberry, superintendent of the neosho school system and dr. roy shaver, assistant superintendent.

A black and white portrait of an elderly woman with short, dark, wavy hair, wearing thick-rimmed glasses and a dark, patterned jacket. She is seated at a desk, smiling at the camera. In the background, there is a typewriter, a box of tissues, and some papers on shelves.

A black and white portrait of a young man with dark hair, wearing a white shirt with a large, dark, floral pattern and a dark tie. He is looking slightly to the right and holding a piece of paper.

A black and white portrait of a middle-aged man with dark, wavy hair, looking off to the left. He is wearing a dark suit jacket, a white collared shirt, and a dark tie with light-colored diagonal stripes. His hands are resting on a desk in front of him, with several sheets of paper visible. The background is slightly out of focus, showing a grid-like pattern that could be a bookshelf or a window frame.

cafeteria help

the people who run the nhs cafeteria include hatfield, greenhaw, whithorn, speck, laughlin, smith, grey, houchen, long, nichols, gisel, wilson, brown and mulkey, who each day are bombarded by hungry students!

achieving

many varied assemblies made up a large portion of this school year. lockers became "those homes away from home", and even though we had a newly paved student parking lot, fender-benders still prevailed in the race to suds!

Graduation 1974

graduating

graduation . . . we thought it would never come. we stop to think back over the year and we remember all the good things and yes, even the bad. we gained friends, memories, and a glimpse of what togetherness can do. we shared work, thoughts, gripes, feelings of joy and sadness and a little of ourselves. 1974—a time to be remembered by all seniors.

we are growing wise:
we are planning
for our tomorrows,
and we live with
the now that is us.

curtis winchester was a life saver for the neo hi mo.

tim garnett looks into the camera backwards. (sounds logical).

seniors 1974—what class!

we have worked,
shared, laughed, and
sometimes cried. this 1974 neohimo is our
attempt to highlight the 1973-74 school year.
we hope it brings you
good memories . . . a
little happiness . . .
and peace.
