Always put God first in your life and he will guide you in the right direction. With All Our Love, Mom, Dad, Josh, Andrea, Phillip, Landon & Lyndsey

Logan Seth Burr,

Where have the years gone? It seems just last week you were running through the house kicking a ball. Now you are getting ready to run into a big world and start a new adventure. The one constant through the years has been the pride and joy that you have brought, through the good times and bad. Keep your chin up, always work hard and let your dreams be your guide. We will always be there for you.

Love you lots, Dad, Mom, Colton and Paige

*Emily [Swyden] in your cap and tassel,
Ready to make the world you castle.*

It seems just yesterday you were a kid,

*Watching everything we did.
Always know you can achieve
What God wants, if you believe.
We couldn't be prouder of you.
Love Mom and Dad*

*Hannah Gibbens,

CONGRATULATIONS
GRADUATES!

JD (Jimmy Don) Jackson,

We are so proud of you! You have definitely made life full of joy for us and your Grandparents. We all Love you and wish you the best. You and all your Friends over the years have kept us all laughing and we will miss this, but it is on to a new journey. In Gods hands we pray for you and we are blessed to be your parents.

Love you Always

Mom, Dad, and Micah

Grandma LeAnn; Grandma Vicky & Grandpa

Rachel Gruenewald,

Looks like you made it! . . . no more Spice Girls or N Sync. Gone is the blonde curly hair and dresses, too. Who knew a cellist could have 20 piercings? What's the deal with tofu and Simply Ming anyway? OCD isn't really bad; it just means you're organized! We always told you that you could do anything. Let life gently flow to you and through you. Be happy and don't let anyone else steal your joy! Life is hard and filled with heartache and pain, but the good outweighs the bad, so take time to celebrate. God is in control. His way is always the best way! Remember, there is no one else better qualified to be you!!! So, be yourself, be at peace! Relax and enjoy the adventure!

Love,

Mom, Dad, Josh, Gomer, Sadie, and Layla

Congratulations,
Jordan VanSickle!

We are so proud of you. God has great things in store for you!

We love you,

Mom, Dad, Libby & Spencer

Tabby Richmond,

Congratulations on all your high school accomplishments. We are very proud of you. Never give up on your dreams. It's hard to believe that you are so grown up and about to go off to college. Remember we will always be there for you no matter what.

Love Dad, Mom and Charles

Kelley Fugett,

Did you ever open one of those toys that had so many pieces that, when you dumped it out on the floor with excitement, it made your mom roll her eyes into the back of her head? You couldn't wait to start building or assembling what ever it was so you could get to the real fun of playing with it and all its features. There was no message on the box about how long ii was going to take [your dad] to put the building or car or whatever together. The commercial only showed the kid playing with the toy; the small print message about "some assembly required" was forgotten as quickly as it appeared. Yet, your excitement about the guaranteed fun just seemed to surpass your dad's patience for the impossible to understand directions. For many, there are days like that throughout our lives. The many pieces are the friends and fun we have made and enjoyed. The event, activity, or just the chance to see a friend fills us with excitement that far surpasses the patience we have to get to the end of the day, week, and the school year. We rush into the day to start assembling all the memories we can hold onto for the day ahead somewhere when we can look back with that same emotion we had when we first opened the box and began "PIECING IT TOGHETHER"
