up from a year of laughter, sadness and moments of gladness springs a book that speaks, talks and listens. in between pages of white, black and all colors arrives a love story, it is a year to hold in your hands and as you turn the pages a flash back of memory forever. all this can be put together to make you vibrate and relive. touch us and we will turn your story into love.

faculty and administration

civilization consists not of gadgets but of aspirations. the four cornerstones of civilization have been said to be religious faith, trusteeship, scientific method, and individual skill. in this sense teachers are on the firing line of civilization. civilization can be measured by the growth of its ideas and concern for others.

dr. james castleberry

living groups

in an attempt to encourage participation in extra-curricular activities homeroom periods were established. every wednesday for forty minutes clubs got together. each received fifteen dollars for the year. most activities still required after school work such as homecomings, band practice and community service. thus everyone still had an excuse to get out of the house.

neo hi mo staff

science club

lab work comes first; the long calculations always follow.

science club members; row 1: veith, wyatt; row 2: crossno, boysen, richardson, capps; row 3: clark, wyatt, cody, osborne, mr. ferguson. in its second year, science club was very active. in the interest of ecology they organized various ecology week activities, like a walkathon contest. science fair participation and guest speakers added to the curriculum. sponsor: mr. ferguson; pres.: bob capps; vice-pres.: bill richardson; sec.: becky wyatt.

pris jeffers presented david preston the prize for the best decorated club car.

club members hurriedly decorated a wildcat car for the homecoming parade.

math club

president lampo and others painted signs to put up in the halls.

the girls formed a long, cheering victory line for the football team to run through before the game.

pep club

pep club had another active year. supporting the team through thick and thin, they signed scrolls of support, presented victory ties to coaches and organized homecomings. the girls put up road signs for some out of town games. there were fun times together. they ate chicken before one game, played powderpuff football, and held the annual banquet and picnic. the officers were: janie lampo, pres.; pris jeffers, vice pres.; carol whipple, treas.; darlene shoen, sec.; karen andrews and jeanne stover, executive council.

at pep assemblies black bugers looked for people not yelling.

members of the speech team believed in winning. they were ready to add those trophies to the growing collection in the trophy case.

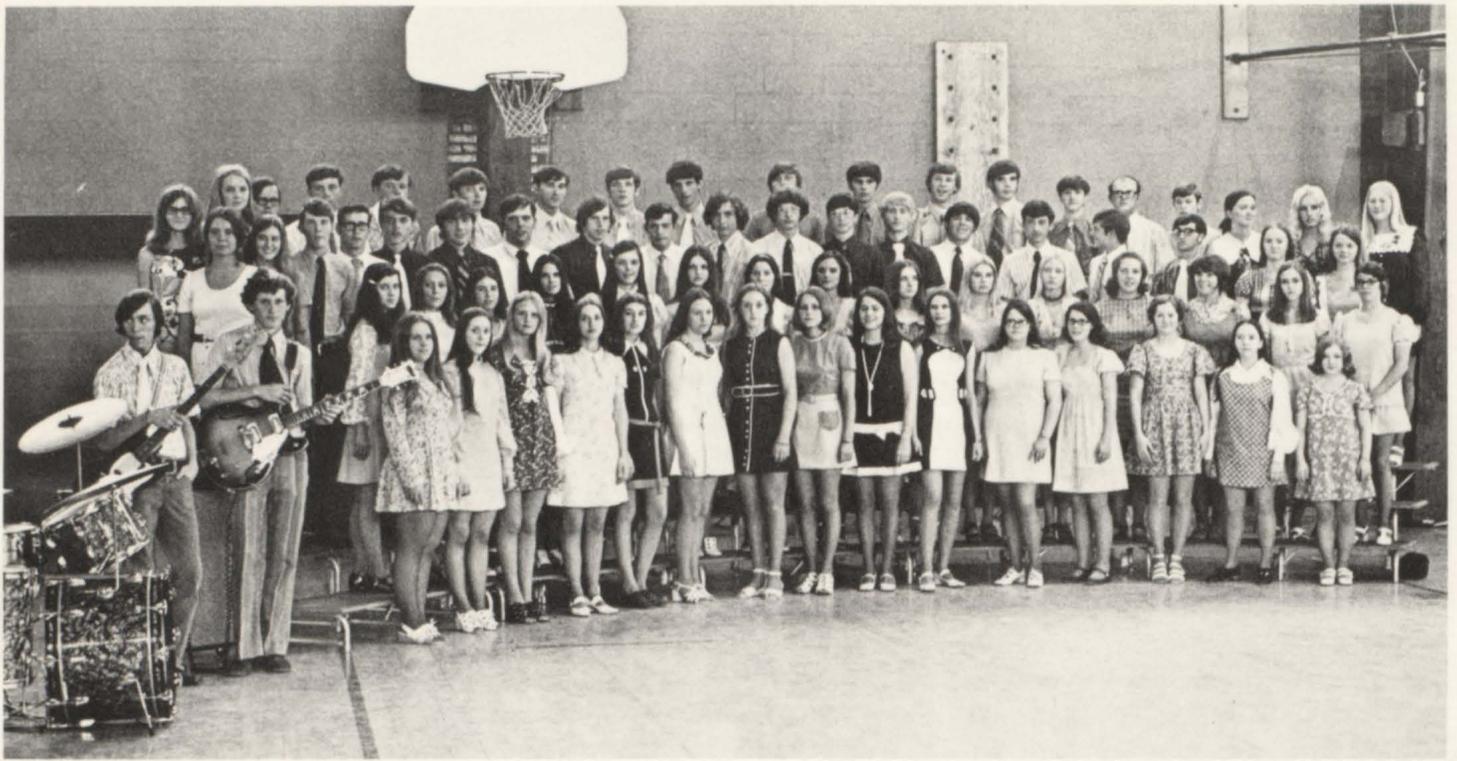

debate partners franks and garlow won district.

thespians and nfl

students had to earn points to become members. many thespians gained their points by participating in the four school plays this year. nfl members got points from speech tournaments they attended.

longstreet was congratulated on a good year by coach koontz.

neosho gained two points for a reverse.

wrestlers sent three to regionals

robert millikin wrestled another tough opponent as usual, he was on top.

cross country practice always means hard work but it pays off when crossing the finish line.

this years golf team continued to uphold the top rank they have held for many years. first places at conference and district with a 12th at state combined with an almost perfect record in dual matches pretty well tell the story of their success. the outstanding underclassmen showing foretells even more success in future years. golf team: coach kelly, lentz, mcclintock, cooley, wolfinbarger, lipscomb, hess, mccreary, browning, johnson, rodriguez, palmer, johnson, kunigh, mccreary, lentz, weston, noah, bone, lentz.

some of the sophomore golfers watch noah as he prepares to drive.

pep club girls tried to play football

fans thought mr. brown, the referee, was all wet.

bob waight sat dazed after being voted queen by the bubblegum beeboppers and the lollipop gang.

coach dawson looked amazed as one player asked who made the basket.

bob waight, mike osborne, and dan barker, queen candidates, tried to control their excitement.

keep your eye on the ball!

fore! renee porter goes for a drive.

intramurals gave girls a chance to participate in sports. they had a choice of basketball, ping-pong, golf or bowling. miss robson sponsored and coached the activities.

the girls that played golf were miss robson, porter, williams, sunken, whitman, stover, jones, woodard, warren and house.

you're in
wildcat territory

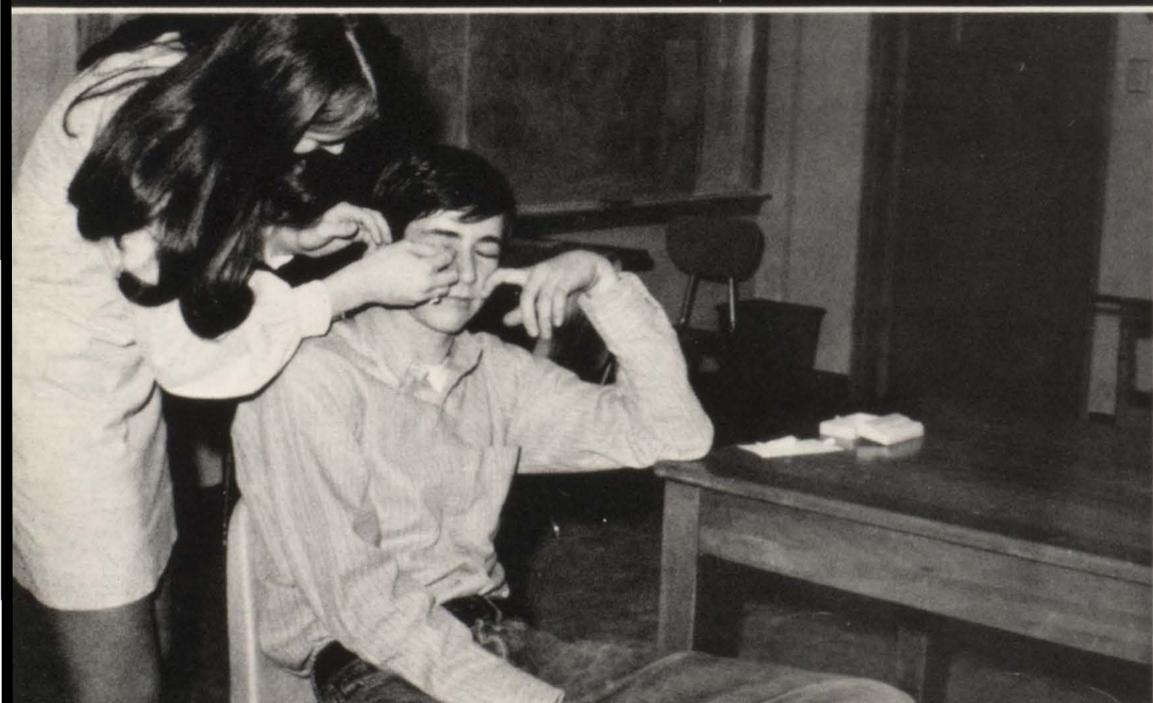

Jr. varsity cheerleaders Sharon Henry, Susan Foster, Betsy Lane, Angela Sneller, Kathy Roberts, and Ann Bone cheered our boys on during their basketball and football seasons.

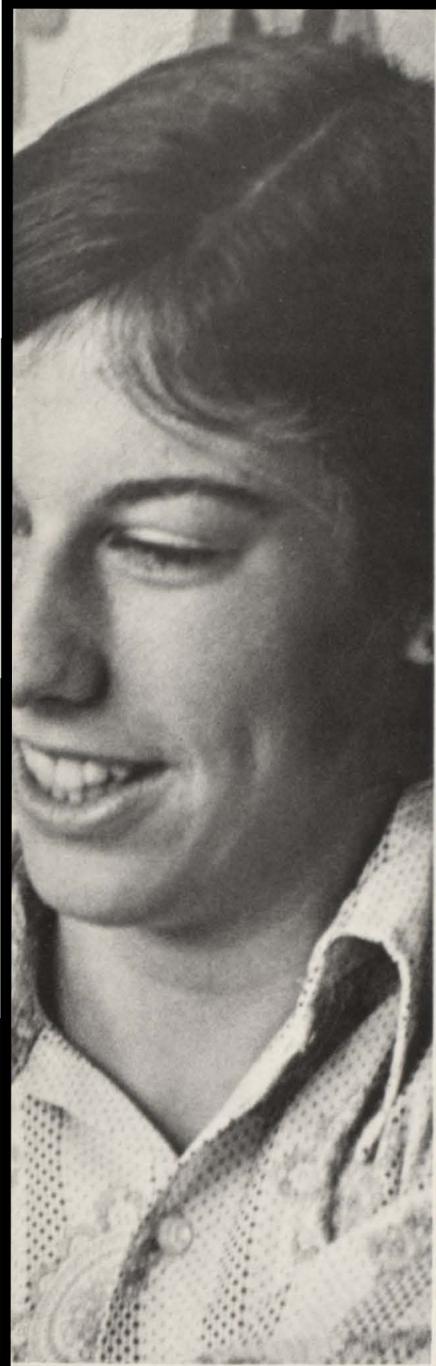

eighth grade cheerleaders: patti waight, kim metz, dian betz, kim griffith, dorene selig, marybeth pearl; freshmen cheerleaders: linda jenkins, toni abramovitz, susan kenney.

faces

these 1,708 faces had a common destination—the school. only the strong survived the peril of the biology skeleton or the uncaged owls. the fresh air of gym was fatal to many hairdos, and class spirit caused many to risk their lives painting streets. hearing loss was suffered at pep assemblies, but if one could live through the stampede to lunch he was safe.

parting shots

our lives become a multi-ringed circus. to walk carefully is what some say we must do, but how can we ever know a bruise? isn't the good only the lack of bad? don't we make contentment? time is on the move. it is a continuous string pointing toward the fulfillment of graduation—memories somehow forevered in a sheepskin and ink diploma.

the pressure increased . . . some things cracked

teresa and cynthia checked in books which was an endless process.

mrs. noah measured pam brown for her graduation gown.

seniors picked up their black announcements. though some thought they looked morbid, they were a break in tradition.

it's obvious she had contemporary issues.

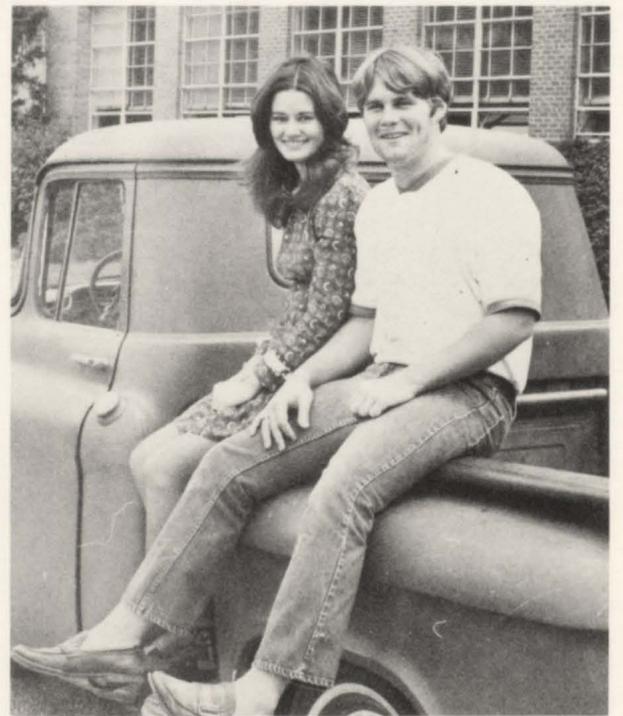

mark browning and suzanne olive were voted ideal boy and ideal girl.

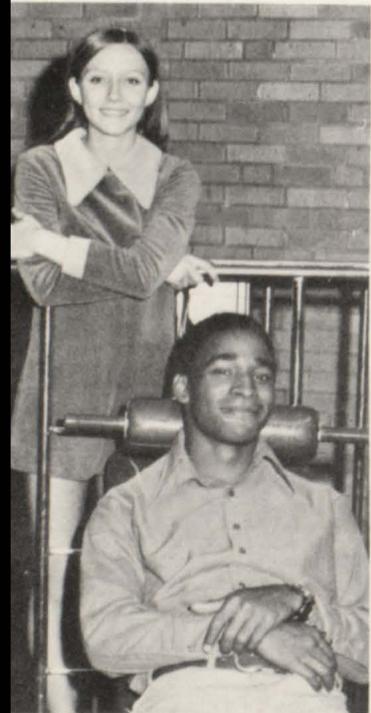

peppiest and most athletic were lynn patterson and paul smiles.

biggest wolf: mike shockley biggest flirt: diane pogue

prettiest: susan stoots
most handsome: bill dobbs best dressed: carol evans and dale staib.

personality plus: peggy scholes and mark johnson.

most dependable: janie lampo and steve penn.

senior personalities

most likely to succeed: jan thomas and mike franks.

most scholarly: bob capps and mary veith.

seniors got together for

lynn patterson did a song and dance routine.

choraleers sang. below, seniors laughed at the skit colleen and randy performed. this was the seniors last meal together.

with a little help from his friends, eddie sayre went swimming with his cap and gown on.

a banquet and a creek party.

with the tension of the last test over seniors took time for fun and sun.

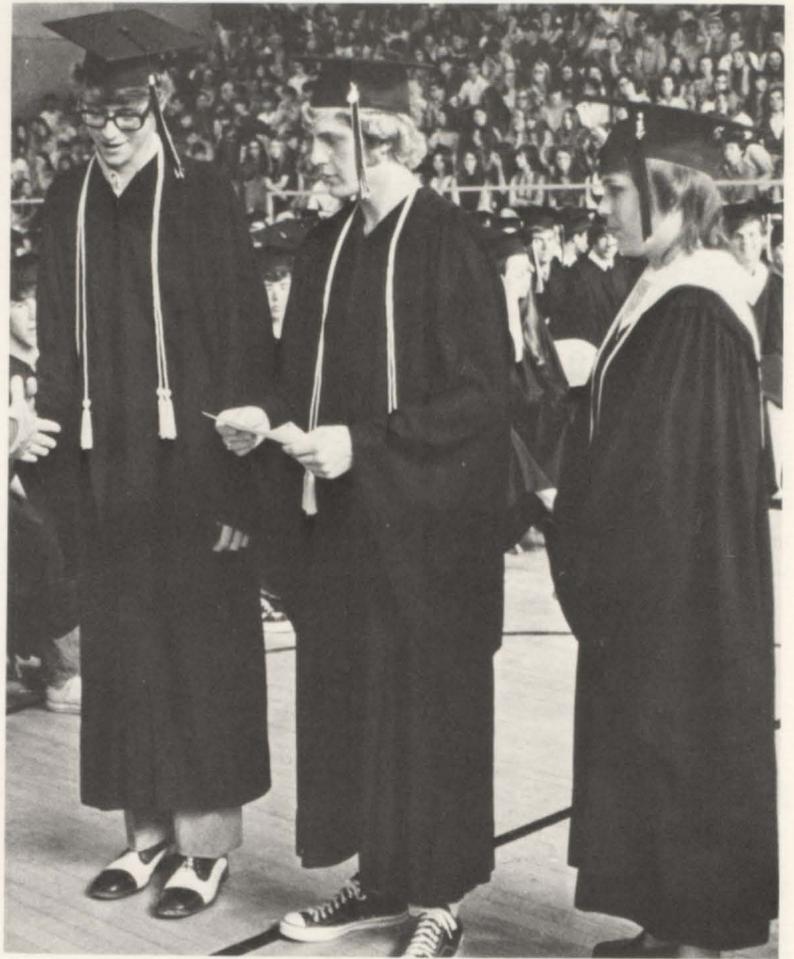

sara displayed the newest in footwear.

keith mcbride was buried alive at big rock.

scholarships and awards

mary veith, sara sale, leroy huntley, myra mulkey and mike osborne were granted the dean's scholarship to missouri southern college. they were all in the upper ten per cent of the class.

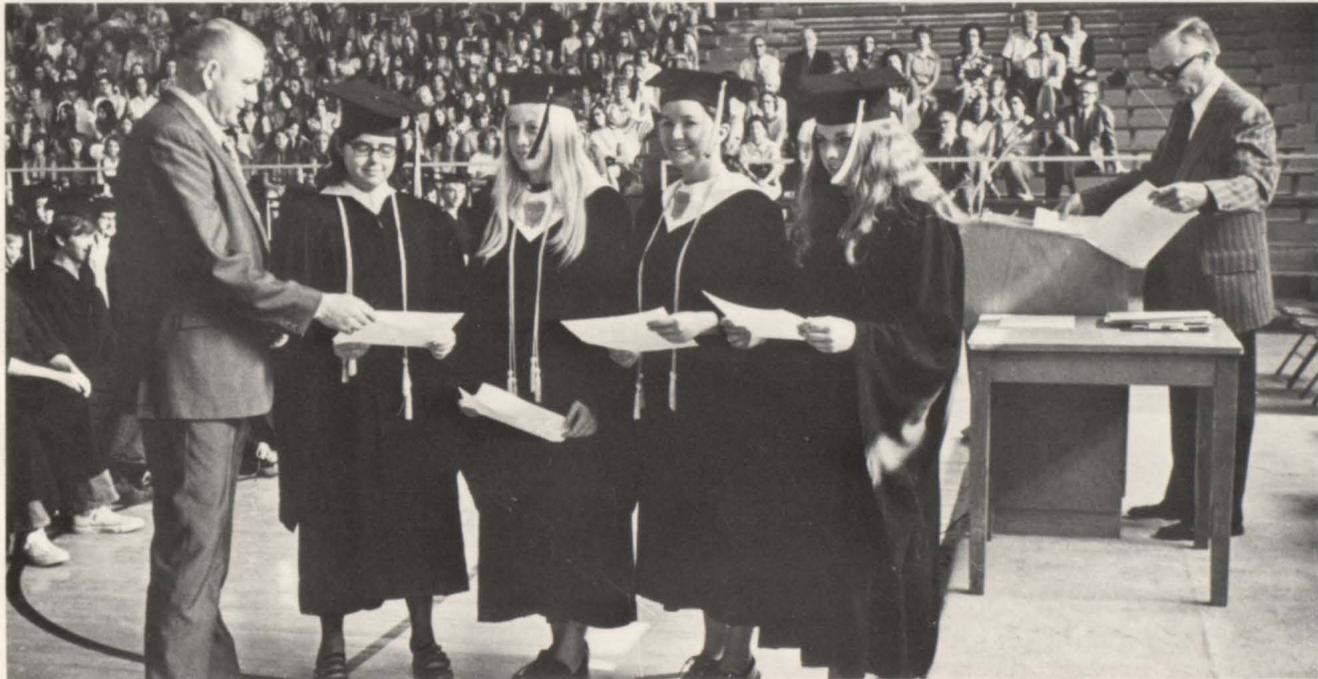

university of missouri curators freshman scholarship awards went to suzanne olive and ken palmer. they had to rank in the top 3% of the class.

the veterans of foreign war presented mike straughn an award.

given at sr. assembly

the neosho community teachers association awarded scholarships to mary veith, pris jeffers, janie lampo and becky wyatt.

the top 20 students in the senior class were awarded certificates.
row one: suzanne olive, jan thomas, tom plumbley, steve penn, ken palmer, mary veith, gail wilson, robert culp, carol evans, bob nocella; row two: janie lampo, susan wilkerson, brenda hull, pris jeffers, bob capps, robert esterline, myra mulkey, leroy huntley, linda mayfield.

the top twenty seniors scholastically

jan thomas, left, was salutatorian and suzanne olive was valedictorian.

mr. griffin congratulated tom plumbley on being third in the class.

four years of memories forevered in a diploma

"not what is finished, but what remains to be achieved is the emphasis of graduation."

"youth is a portrait, proud and free, with eyes that reflect the promise they see."

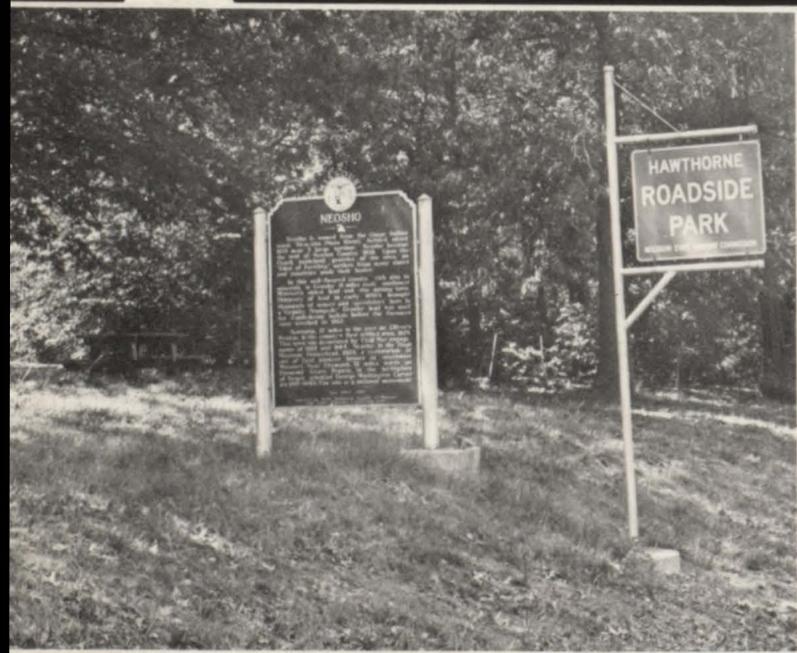

at graduation paul smiles lit the candle representing the senior year.

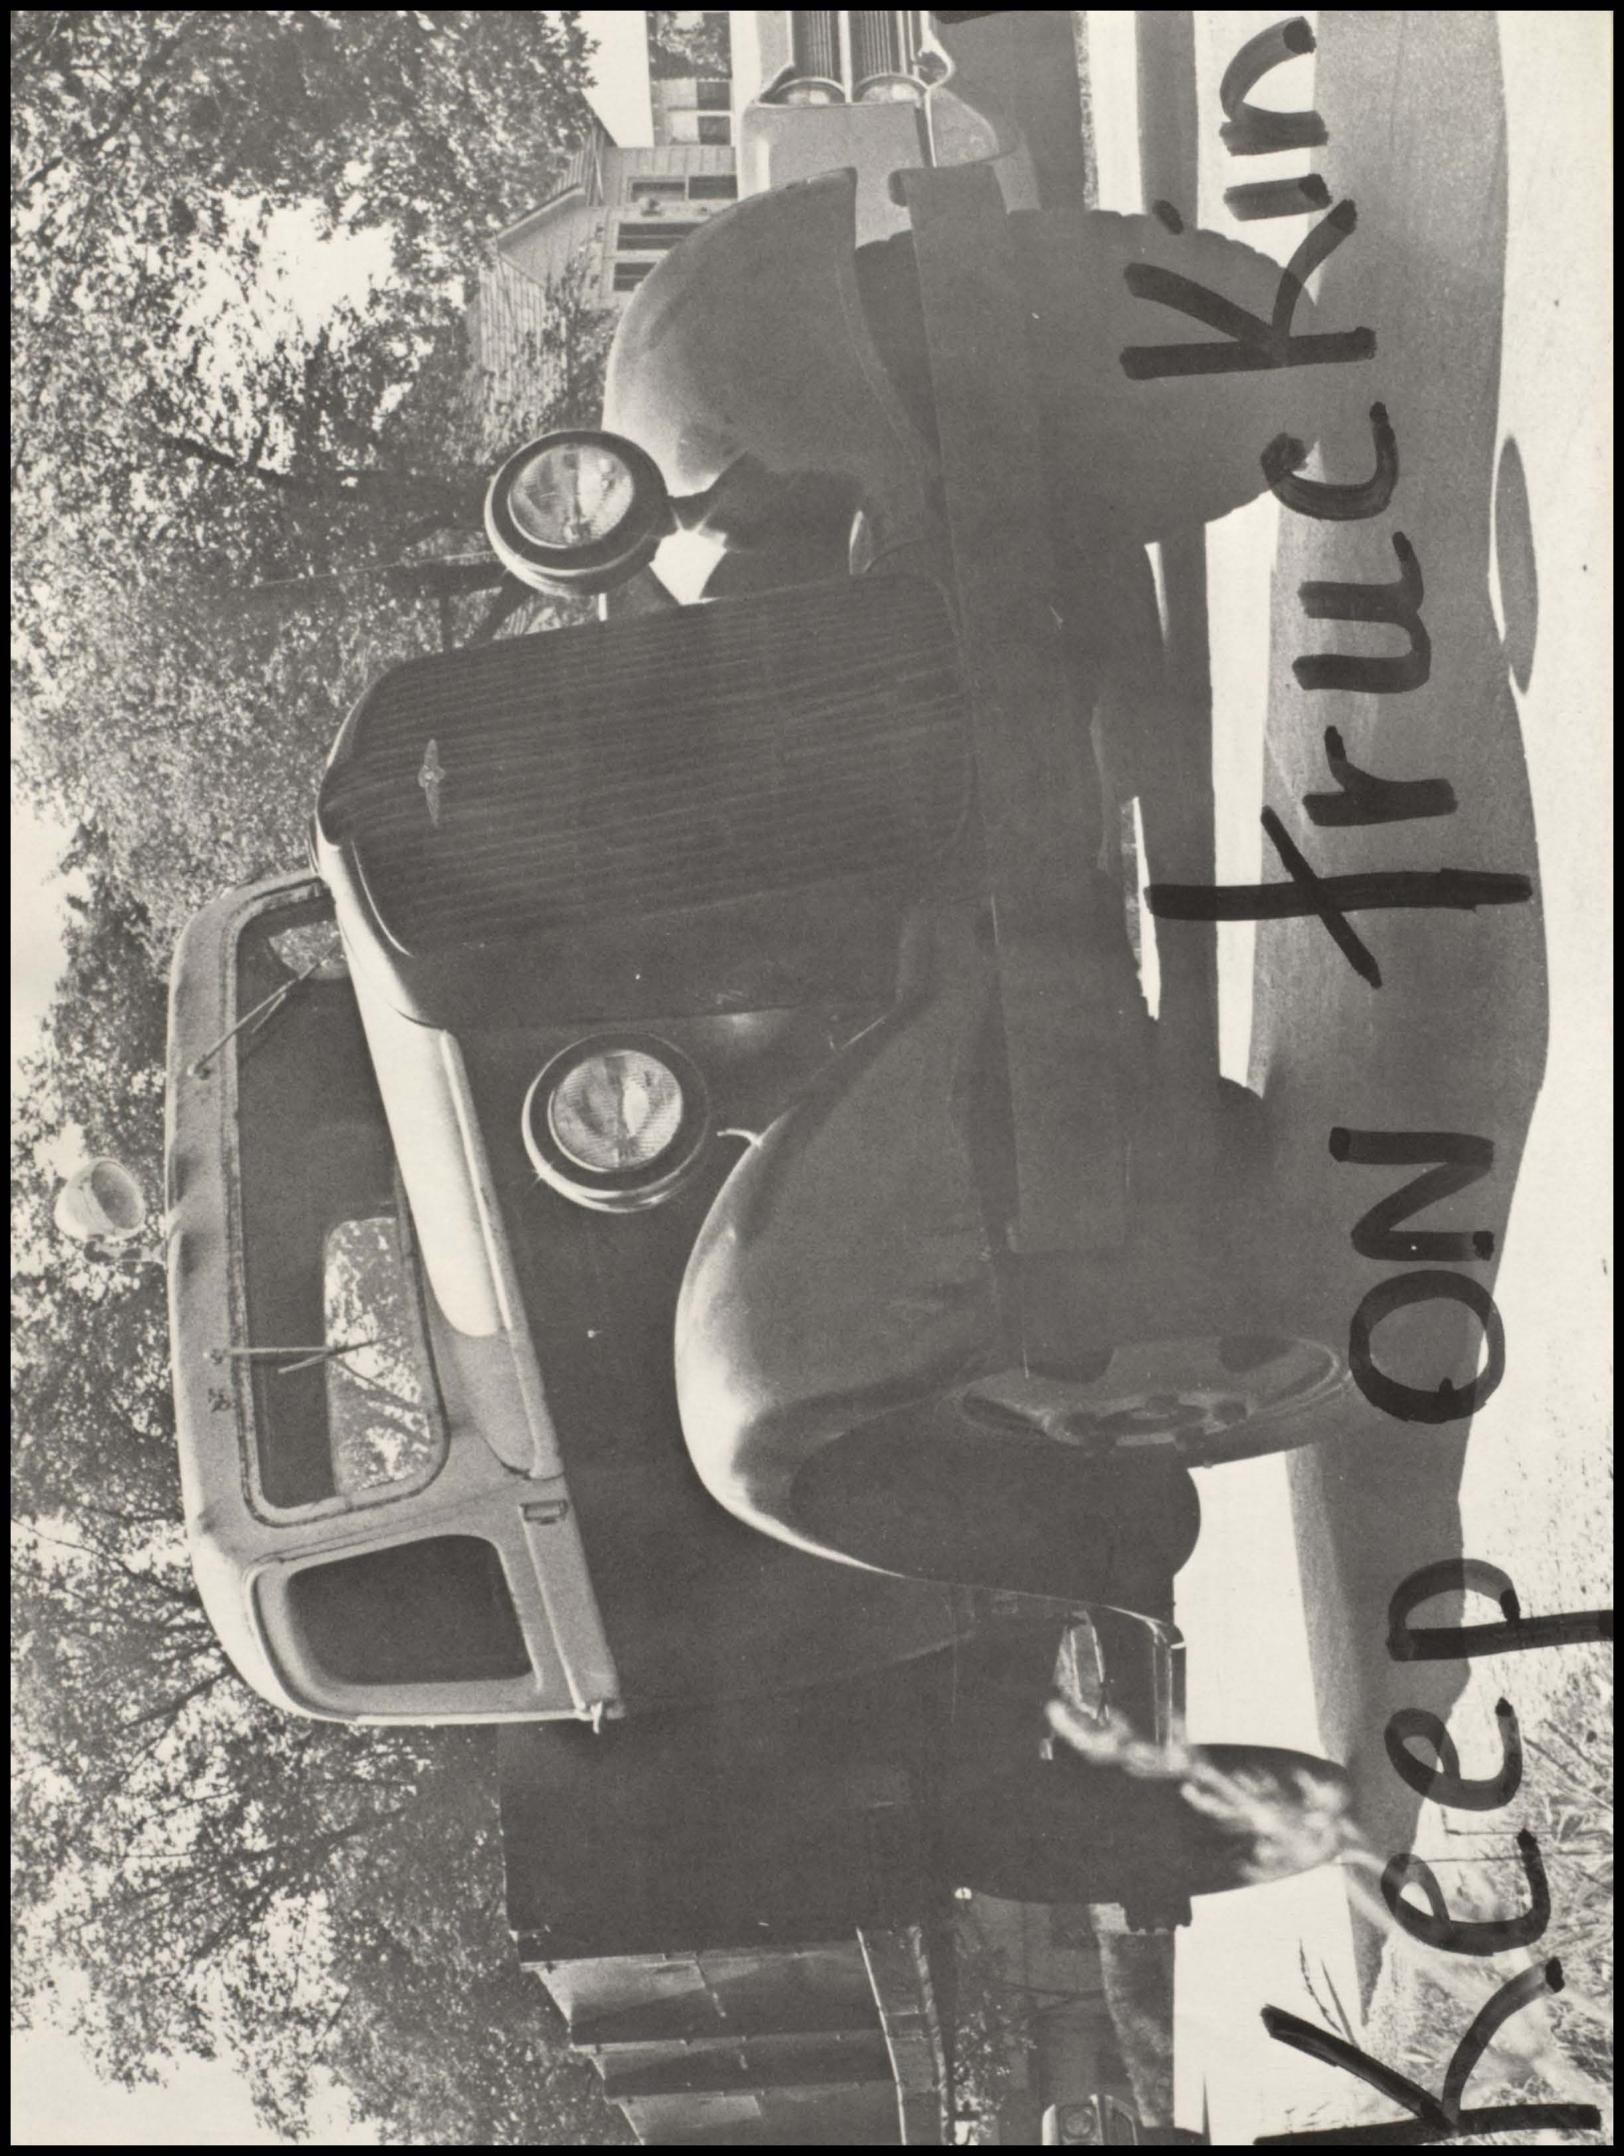

off flew the caps!
