FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Future Farmers of America at Diamond High continues to be an active group. Several activities during the year include the Barnwarming, the FFA Convention, and the FFA Banquet.

Joe Dickerson, Ron Springer, and Bob Judd were selected as candidates for the State Farmer Degree. This degree is the highest award offered to FFA boys on the state level.

This year the FFA, has done a good job in upholding the national motto. . ."Learning to Do, Doing to Learn, Earning to Live, and Living to Serve."

千UNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

On April 28, 1961, the annual Junior and Senior Banquet was held in the Starlight Room of the Joplin Airport. The banquet room was appropriately and beautifully decorated around the theme "Wonderland by Night."

Roger Taylor, junior class president, welcomed all seniors and guests and presented the junior sponsor, Mr. Harry Fay, with a gift of appreciation. After a very delicious meal, Representative James Landis spoke to the group.

Entertainment was provided by a four piece band from Martin's Music. They also played for the dance which climaxed a perfect evening enjoyed by all.
