East Newton Graduates Step Into the "Berry Patch"

Graduation speaker Greg Brockman correlates picking blackberries to the real-life issues the 2005 graduates will face along their paths in life. "Your work and experiences will change you much as the color of your hands change while picking berries. You will be competing with others for what the world has to offer you, just as a berry picker must compete with the birds and the June bugs." Throughout the graduation ceremony, the graduates could reflect back on their school years as well as their futures. Ashlee Allphin, class Valedictorian and Jessica Powviriya also gave motivational speeches to their fellow graduating classmates.

COACH

"The varsity volleyball team had the chemistry it takes from day one. The record was not perfect, and any coach and team would have wished better, but we played to our potential the better part of the year. We had three seniors who each contributed their own leadership and we will miss them very much next year."

Runnin' with it

Varsity gives competition a run for their money every game

This season proved to be a season of preparing for the future. We had only five seniors on the team and many underclassmen. Many of the underclassmen were placed in starting roles, which is not easy in a tough Big 8 conference. However, I believe that many contributed beyond my expectations for them. I was comforted how we came together as a team and how we gave our best effort every game. Though we didn't win as much as we wanted to, we still gave our all in every game and fought diligently. I'm proud of all those who participated and worked throughout the season. Thank you to all who supported the East Newton Football Team.

Coach Perkins

The Bad Boys

This year we had five Bad Boy seniors, who rough and toughed out the season. Q.B. Zack Brisco #10 is on the left. Zack suffered a minor sprain to the foot, but luckily it only kept him out a few weeks. O.L. Lance Bradley #61 is in the far back. O.L. Bradley Allphin #73, and O.L. Brett Kahl #53 are on the lower right. O.L. Cory Fullerton #71 is standing on the far right. These guys showed excellent leadership, and great teamwork.

Get him

A dogpile emerges when our guys take down the ball carrier.

Pushin' On

"The Fear of Defeat fuels the desire to Conquer"

After having both teams finish in the top five in state in 2003, the 2004 Patriot Cross-Country team arrived upon the scene with big shoes to fill. With the graduation of two all-state runners, one from each team, both teams would look at the younger kids to fill the void.

A strong athletic program almost always finds its origins in strong senior leadership; this year is no exception. The seniors have taken the initiative from day one to lead by example, to demonstrate what it takes to have pride, loyalty, and determination. They have pushed and pulled their partners in crime to try and work harder, to be better. The underclassmen will take these valuable lessons and turn them into the knowledge that will be passed on when they find themselves in those same roles, as leaders.

This year finds cross-country at East Newton with the largest number of runners ever in its abbreviated history. With only four seniors out of a total of twenty-three runners, the future is very promising for success in the years to come.

The boys season ended with winning Conference and Districts as well as 5th place at State. The girls team won 2nd at Conference, 3rd at Districts and did not take a team to state. Altogether, they all had a great season.

Matt Bandy had an outstanding Freshman year. He won first place at Conference and at numerous other races.

East Newton girls look hot for the season!

Seniors

"The 04-05 season was a season of growth for the East Newton Lady Patriots. The season was a success with the girl's earning a 15-11 record for the season. The Lady Patriots also tied for second in the Big 8 with a 5-2 record. The home crowd was a big plus for the girls this year as they were 7-2 in our own gym. The season started a little rocky with the girl's losing some tough games early in the season. After the new year the girls managed to win twice as many games as they lost by going 12-6 in 2005."

Congratulations Jessica Povviriya

To our beautiful daughter and friend:

How can we ever thank God for blessing us with someone like you? You are so very special; smart, kind, and good. Words are inadequate to show all the love we have for you and for all that we hope for you. Congratulations on your big day and remember that anything that is dreamable is also reachable. You can if you persevere.

We Love You!

Mom, Dad, Andrew, and Alisha

A special "little sapphire" was given to us,
A blessing from above,
She's laughter, warmth, and special charm,
She's dimples of beauty and she's love.

Our lives have had some laughter.
We've had our share of tears.
And each has had their place,
with the passing years.

My daughter brings a special joy
that comes from deep inside.
As she grows into womanhood,
she fills my heart with pride.

With every year that passes,
She's more special than before.
Katy will always be my "little sapphire"
and I'll only love her even more!

Love, Mom
