For What it's Worth

*If there's a time for laughing
Let us laugh when it is time.
If there's a chance to take the lead
Then let us lead and climb.*

*If we know there's an end
Then it will surely come at last.
If there's a time for war-
Then we know it too will pass.*

*The time for death can seem to come
A little bit too soon.
The time to dance can heal a heart
That once had cause to mourn.*

*I am given but a moment
Of this vast eternity-
Where I can only make my life
Just what it's worth to me.*

STUDENT

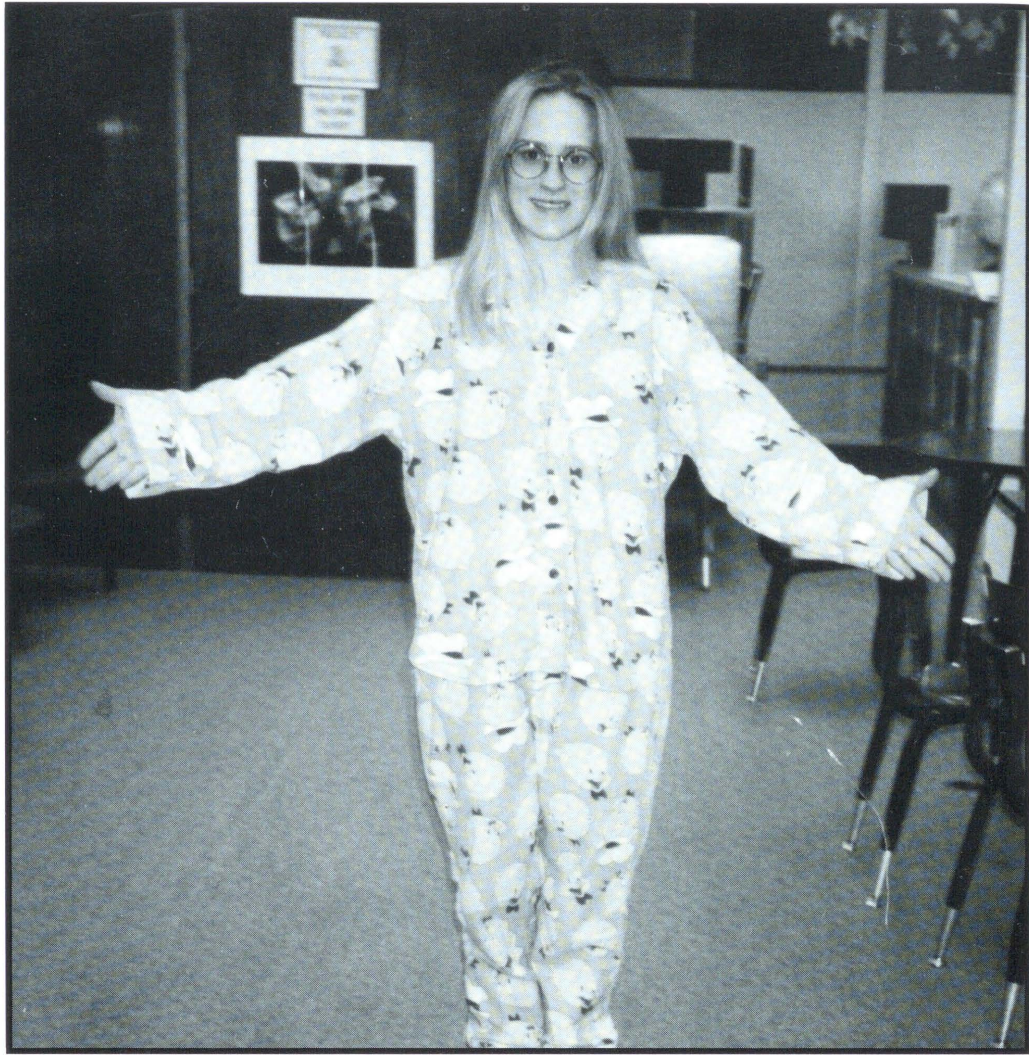

Caution: Spirit On The Rise

The East Newton Student Council has sponsored many different activities throughout the year. Several Spirit Days were set up; among these were Hat, Tie, and Shades Day, Bandana Day, Crazy Hair Day, and Come-as-you-are Day. Lunchtime activities which included Hug & Pop, Puzzle Pieces, Egg Relay, and Orange Pass were also held.

Students participated enthusiastically in these activities to show their East Newton spirit and pride.

Brent Cole

Ta-da! Junior Erika Rakes demonstrates her fashionable, porky pig pajamas on Come-as-you-are Day.

Here, have a bite of my apple...., Jamie Wolgamott and Katy Abeln show their school spirit during a lunchtime activity.

#@!%! It won't pop! Junior Yari Granda's spirit and determination comes through during the Sit & Pop activity during lunchtime.

Hat and Shades Day has the highest participation rate at EN as displayed by Melinda Jackson, Laura Carter, and Rhonda Divine.

Seniors Jaysa Harris and Shannon Reynolds pass their egg during a basketball homecoming lunch activity.

Student Council member Paula Whitehead dons her apparel for Hat & Tie day during Football Homecoming Spirit Days.

Ready for the dance, Chad Gallemore proudly displays his dress he had to wear for the basketball homecoming pep rally.

Participating in Hat and Shades day, Melanie Myers enthusiastically shows her spirit for E.N.

Showing Their Style

Even though Chad Gallemore seems to be moving in the wrong direction, he shows you can do it in style with a baseball cap.

Braided leather belts were seen through many beltloops around the school in 1995.

Fred Burge, Jared Jackson, and Shea Garren show mixed emotions about their faddish polo shirts.

Eastland boots and shoes proved to be a big fashion statement for East Newton this year.

Beth Carter, Jamie McCool, and Summer Roszell are doubled-up on fashion with their fitted shirts and pleated skirts.

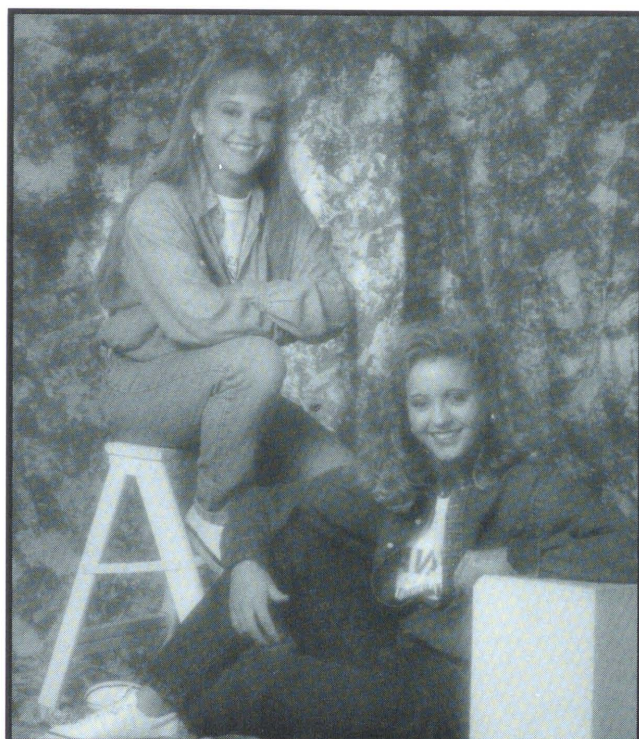

Juniors Matt VanWinkle and Sarah Yates show their enthusiasm about flannel which continues to be a fad year after year.

Melinda Jackson, Johnny Jacobs, Josh Jones, and Michael Gasche show that they have mastered the art of keeping their pants up.

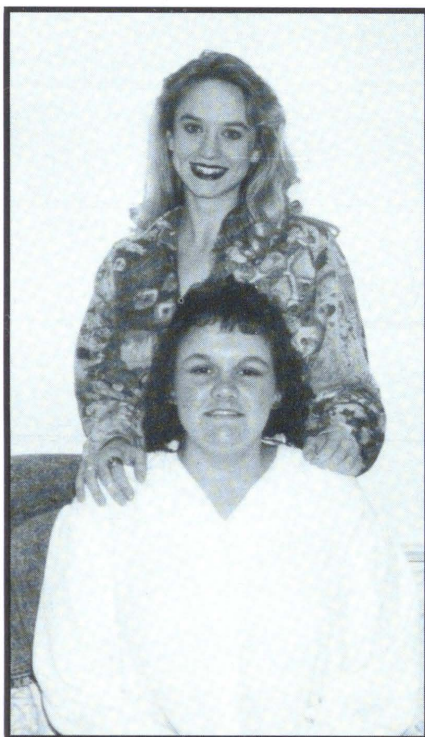

What is a Friend?

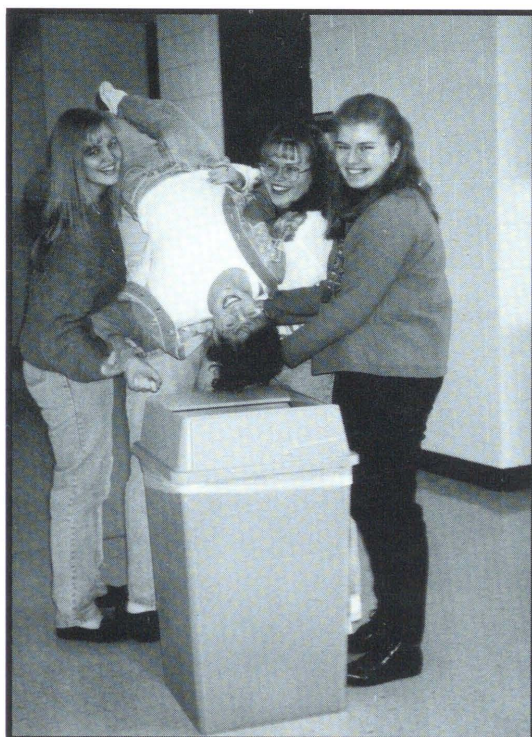

It's a jungle out there, but Sarah Yates, Mindy Mosley, and Sarah Johnson make the most of it together.

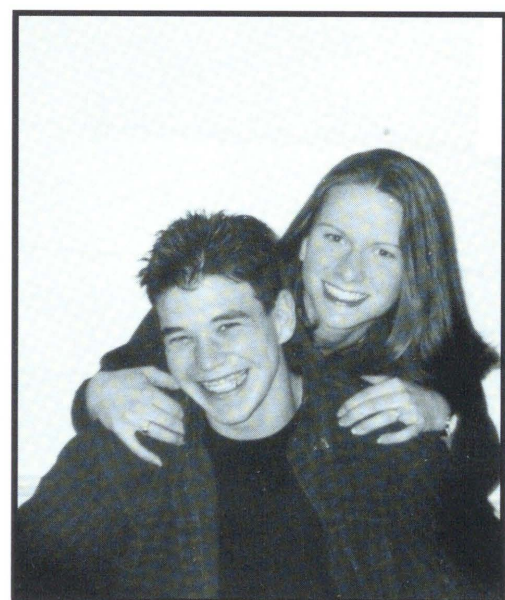

Best friends since the first grade, Jamie McCool and Summer Roszell are always at ease with each other.

Jenny Robbins says of Tanya Bogenrief, "She is always there when I need her."

Lori Letts, Carrie Martin, Sandra Kraft, and Amy Major keep each other out of the dumps.

Derrick Drake is glad to know his best bud Jennifer Hilliard is behind him all the way.

A single soul dwelling in two bodies.

-Aristotle

Michael Miller, Chesney Beck, Benjamin Abramovitz, Steve Dopp, Chad Gallemore, Chris Brown, and Shawn Van Winkle show that there is strength in numbers.

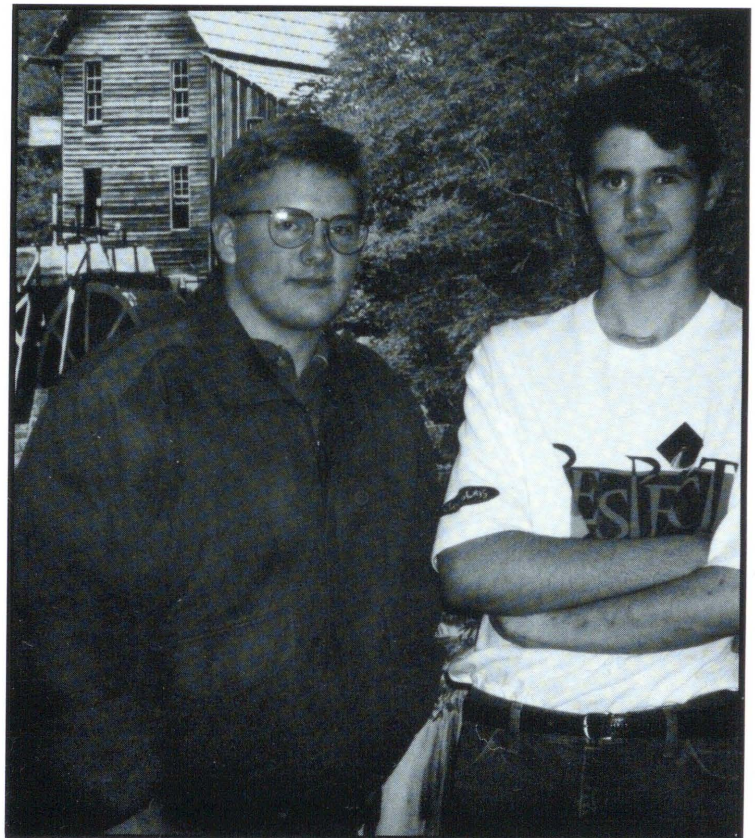

Jill Sandtorf, Rebecca Hansen, Gwen Ferguson, Ann Carter, and Delaina Hought are a bunch of best friends that share a supportive relationship.

Best friends Kim Riggs and Jamie Gripka like to let their hair down as well as the top of Kim's Camaro when they go out on the town.

"Even teachers have friends!!!"

Brent Cole and Anthony Clymer stand by each other as best friends through everything.

A Different World

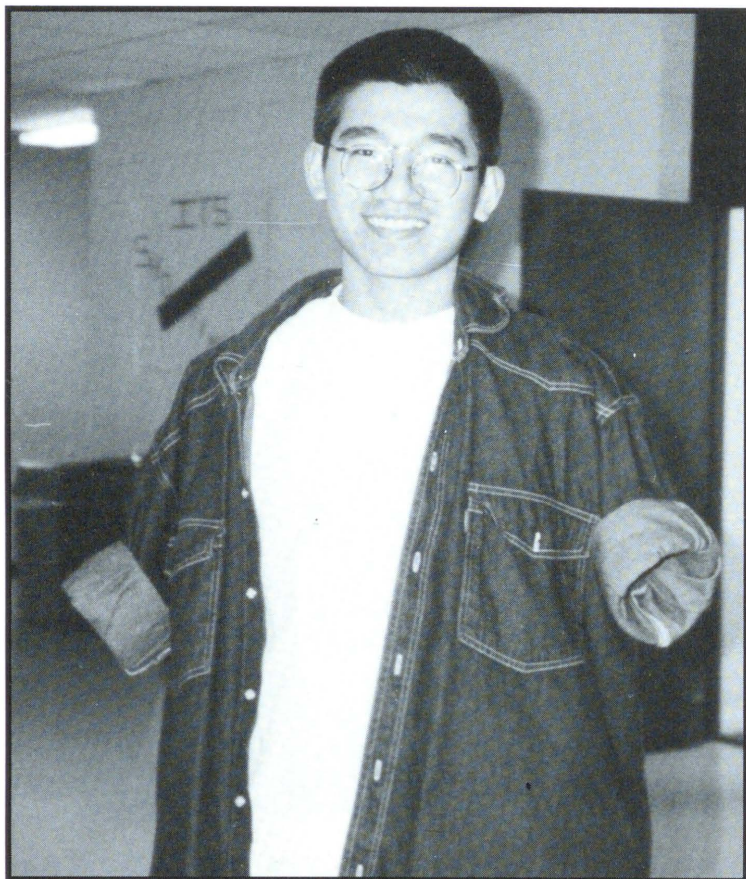

Five foreign exchange students attended East Newton this year: Magdalena Iglesias (Argentina), Rattanavijit Ojitruth (Thailand), Elisa Belchnerowski (Germany), Daniela Oe Oliveira (Brazil), and Annie Ouellet (Canada). They all eagerly participated in all aspects of life at the high school. Several of them joined Student Council, athletics, and many of the various clubs. They had an enormous amount of school spirit which they showed at the numerous games and activities held at the high school.

They made many friends who will miss them when they return to their homes. We hope they will take with them many great memories of their life at East Newton.

Rendi Thomlinson

1994-1995 Foreign Exchange Students: Magdalena Iglesias, Daniela Oe Oliveira, Go Ojitruth, Elisa Belchnerowski, and Annie Ouellet.

Uh Oh! Go Ojitruth shows how dangerous decorating for a homecoming dance can be.

What will these foreign exchange students remember most about their stay in the United States?

"I could never forget when I greeted members of the volleyball team with kisses on the first day of practice and my first wet willy. I'll always remember my friends and my wonderful host family."

Magdalena (Maggie) Iglesias

"My friends, all the fun we had, my host parents, and Coach Spurlin's teasing."

Elisa Belchnerowski

"American football games"

Daniela Oe Oliveira

"East Newton High School"

Rattanavijit (Go) Ojitruth

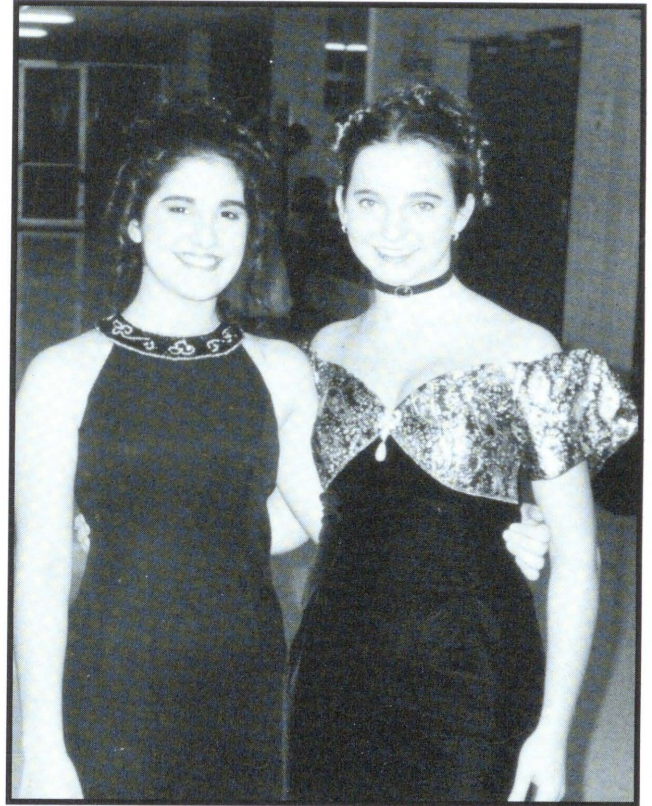

Hard at work, Go demonstrates his new-found talent of creating Student Council posters.

Dancing the night away, Daniela De Oliveira's expression shows how much fun she's having at the basketball homecoming dance.

Robyn Bowman, Elisa Belchnerowski, and Miranda Ford greatly appreciate an excuse to take a break from one of their many STUCO duties.

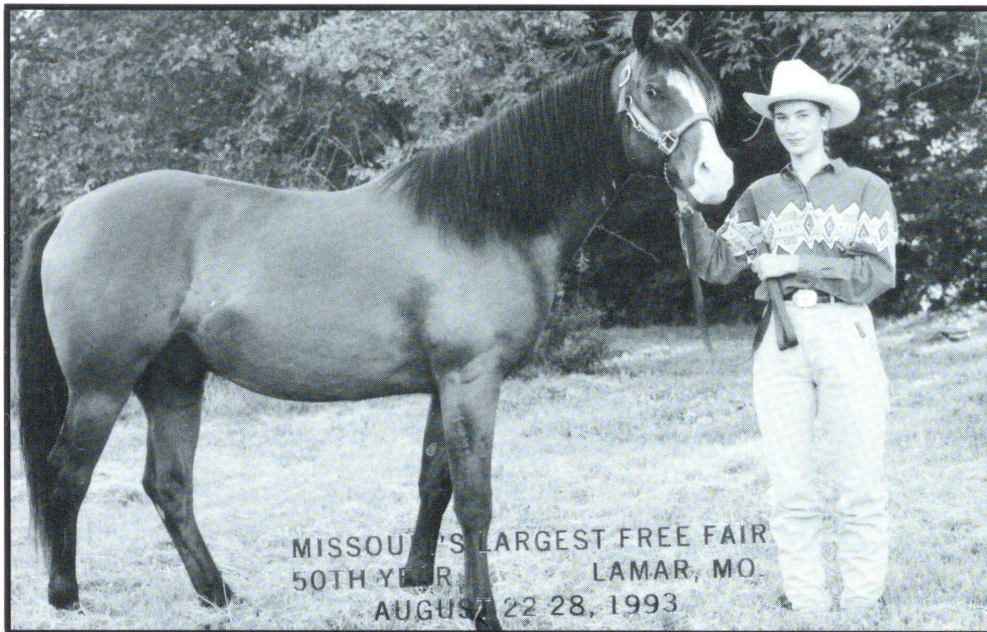

All dressed up, Magdalena Iglesias and Elisa Belchnerowski display not only their Christmas Ball dresses but also their close friendship.

Foreign friends, Magdalena Iglesias and Yari Granda will agree that language and culture barriers can't keep friends apart.

After Hours...

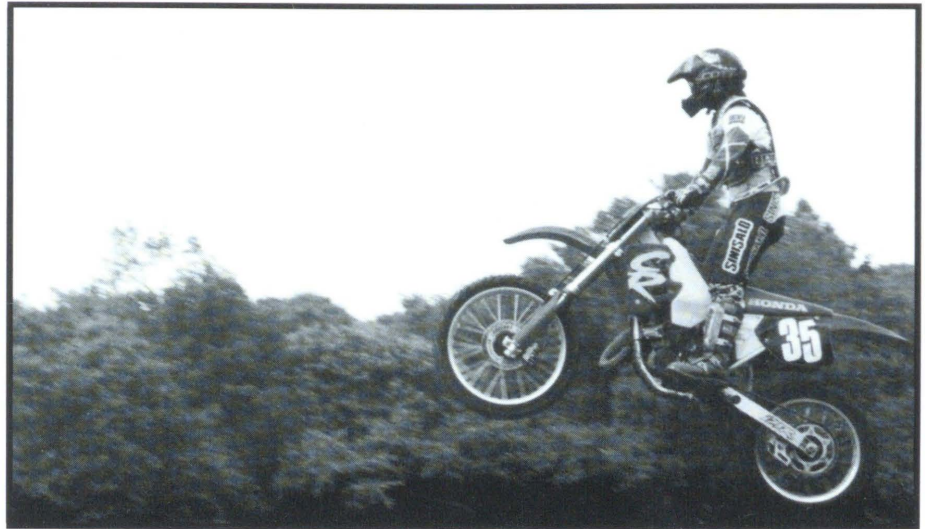

Just beautiful! Jamie Wolgamott has shown horses for about six years, and she's loved every minute of it! She has won several awards at local shows and fairs. Her most memorable was first place at the McDonald County Open Show in a class for horses that have been under saddle less than one year. Jamie won this horse through a contest in 4-H her eighth grade year, and she named him Bud. She also has a mustang which she adopted and broke with her Dad's help. Jamie hopes to someday raise and train horses on her own farm. In the meantime, she will continue showing and training horses.

What a rush! Junior Geoff Cook has been riding dirt bikes since he was thirteen years old. He hasn't been able to ride in many races other than the local ones because of an extended knee injury he received while riding in 1994. He has many trophies to tell you about, if you ever want to know. He set himself a goal to get to the Ponca City Grand National Finals sometime down the road. He wants to get to Ponca City and do well so he can pick up sponsors and get more recognition for future racing. Until then, all he can do is make the slow climb to the top.

Wow! What fine work she does! Jamie McCool was paid $1200 to paint this billboard for a club in Purdy. Out of all the art work Jamie has completed, she feels that this project will be the stepping stone for the art career which she plans to pursue. Other than this project, she has won many awards in several art shows, such as seven Big Eight first place medals and winning the State Soil Conservation Contest in her division four years ago. Jamie's future plans are to attend The Colorado Art Institute and pursue a career in Commercial Art and Advertising.

Gettin' some major hang time! Junior Daniel Cullers lives for every minute he can jump on that bike and just cut loose. Daniel has been riding dirt bikes since he was thirteen. Whenever they can, he and Geoff like to ride together and really go crazy. During the year, he rides mostly local races and has done very well. Last summer, Daniel ended up qualifying to ride at the Ponca City Grand National Championships. In the past few years, Daniel has done well enough that Don's Honda in Neosho has sponsored him for several races. Daniel is hoping to return to Ponca City next year and also qualify for the Lake Whitney Races.

Ouch! Brian Gray displays his astounding flexibility amongst all his treasures. Brian has been in Go Ju Ryu since he was ten years old. He is now a third degree black belt. He has competed in nine tournaments and has won ten trophies. He says his most prized award is the Grand Champion trophy from Ron Kennedy's First Interclubs Tournament.

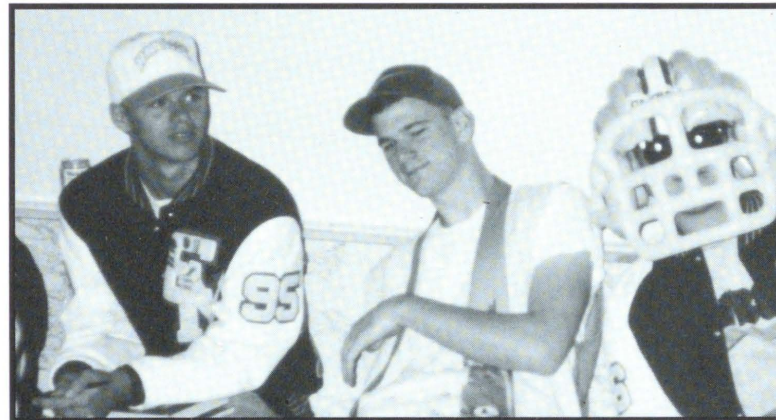

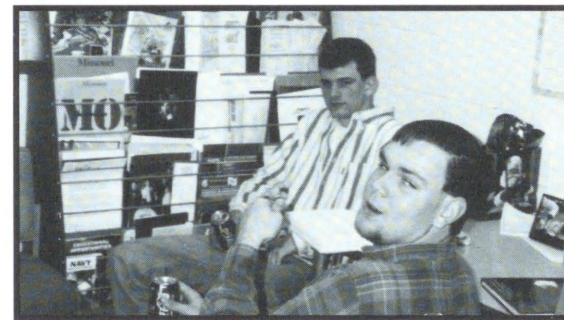

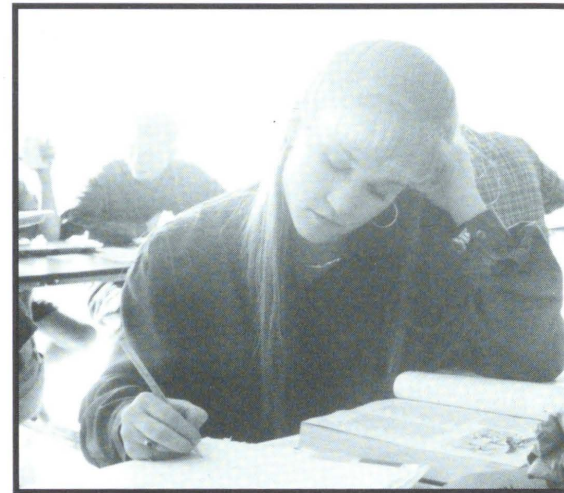

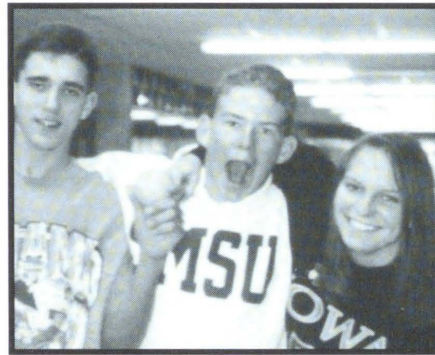

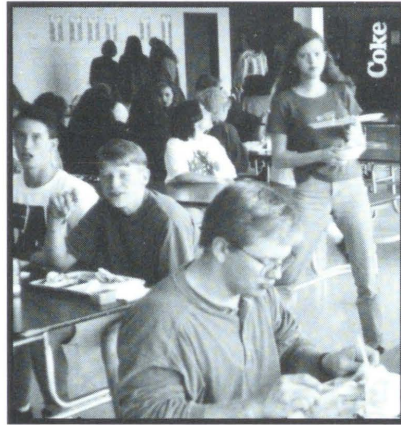

Gettin' the job done, Freshman Jesse James loves running the barrels in her spare time. She has been involved in showdeos for quite some time. She says showdeos are fun and exciting and the competition is great. Eventually, she would like to barrel race in rodeos. After high school, she plans to pursue veterinary medicine. She says that her horse is what really has made her interested in becoming a vet. Jesse says that riding her horse helps her forget about all her problems-it's just a real relaxer!

Do these guys look like a couple of fish-a-holics or what! Michael Miller and Steven Dopp are not only best buds, but they love to spend all their spare time together doing what they both love to do-FISH. They've yet to win any big bass tournaments, but there's still plenty of time! In the summer of 1993, they jointly purchased a flat bottom boat, which they are currently trying to recondition into a mean, bass catchin' machine.

Turning Back the Clock

Three's Company!!! Jamie, Michael, and Rusty McCool gather together in their father's arms for a loving family picture.

Seventh graders B. Livingston, L. Hanes, C. Owens, M. Fry, and K. Boyd happily inhale their pizza at the birthday/slumber party of their friend Lori Letts.

Well, this doesn't seem quite fair... Seventh grader Jennifer VanLue relaxes in the "pool," while supervising her friend Amanda Barker's mowing skills.

"Hey, check out the guy in the bear suit!" Michael Miller laughs hysterically, as he and Chesney Beck prepare to take the stage for the 2nd grade Christmas program.

Happy Days! Manny and Summer Roszell and Shawn VanWinkle really do turn back the hands of time as they come dressed in costume for Jessica Jump's 4th grade 50's party.

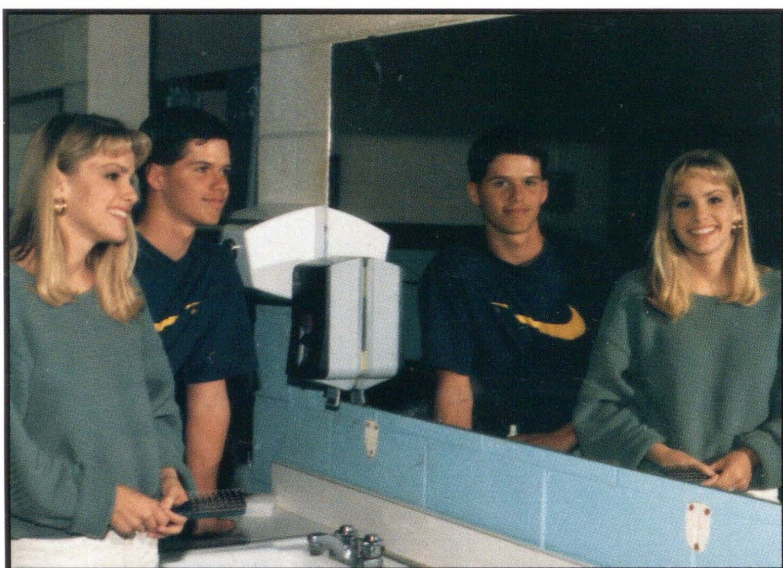

Fourth graders Shawn VanWinkle and Jessica Jump enthusiastically display their school spirit on hat and shades day.

We didn't do it! Fifth graders B. Marcales, M. Stockton, B. Cole, M. Skinner, T. Moore, M. Miller, G. Wade, S. Dopp, A. Allphin, and B. Abramovitz innocently pose for a picture while on a field trip to a nearby lake.

Remember When...

Clayton Bunch, Beau Blewer, and Brian Beard were suspended eight days for shooting at the football team with a potato cannon.

Amanda Barker stuck her tongue to Jennifer VanLue's door, and it froze there.

Mike Hawkins went into Famous Barr and kissed the mannequins.

Our Freshman year, LouAnna Hanes flooded the toilet at Pizza Hut.

Donna Snow and LouAnna Hanes were skipping school; Donna took a curve on wet pavement too fast and ended up in the ditch. They had to have a tractor pull them out.

Carrie Martin took her written test three times before actually getting her permit.

Kory Scheppert passed out in mixed chorus.

Steven Dopp snuck out to Neosho and locked his keys in his car. He had to call his parents to come get him.

Granby's long-awaited volleyball victory against Diamond our 8th grade year.

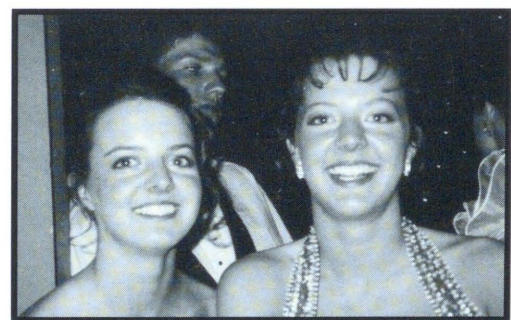

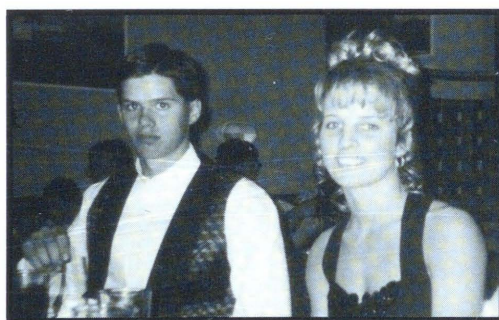

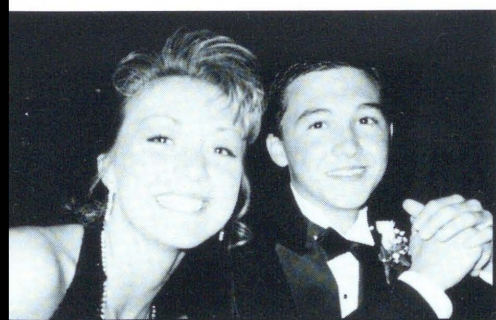

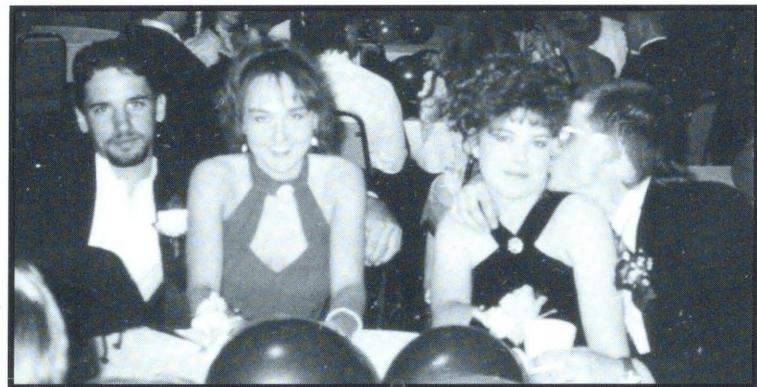

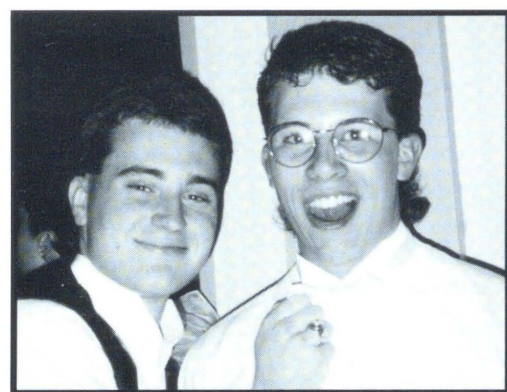

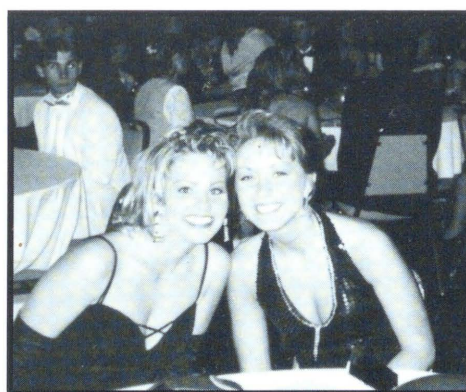

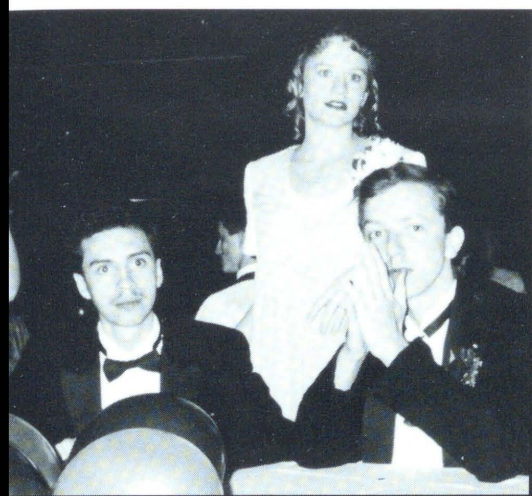

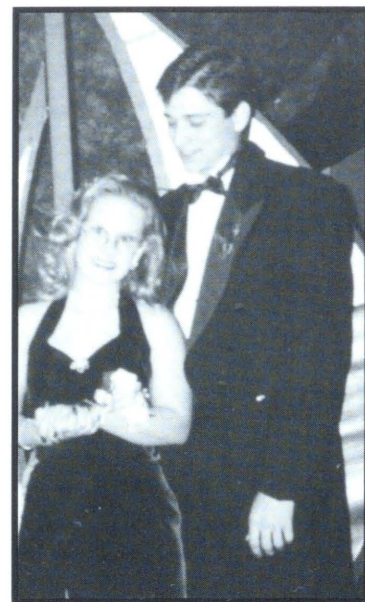

Jamie McCool hit a bus on the way home her junior year.

Craig Hutchens and Erika Rakes were caught skipping school and received ISS.

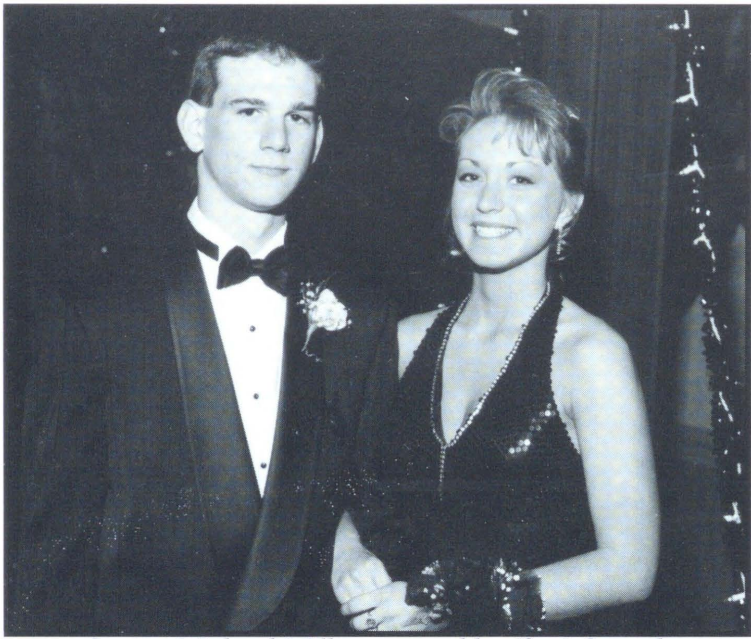

Nicole Perez, Rendi Thomlinson, and Katy Abeln mistakenly tried to sell a yearbook ad to a naked man.

Katy Abeln lost part of her swimsuit in front of a White Water lifeguard when coming out of a water tunnel.

While fishing, Michael Miller and Steven Dopp were caught on a trestle with a train coming.

....Always

King Steven Dopp

The members of this year's junior class began planning prom at the beginning of the school year. Through magazine sales, they were able to raise enough money to purchase elaborate decorations for the royalty procession and dance. Seniors Michael Miller, Alicia Nielsen, Roger Parker, and Kelli Sheehy composed King Steven Dopp and Queen LouAnna Hanes' court. The prom was held at the Ramada Inn in Joplin on April 1, 1995. Returning as the D.J., Sound Explosion provided music to dance the night away.

Thanks to the time and effort put into prom, the seniors had a night to remember . . . "Always."

Persistence Pays Off

The students watch amazed as Bart Marcules is awarded perfect attendance throughout all four years of high school. It can be done!!

"Go" accepts a foreign exchange student certificate after a sincere attempt on Mr. Newell's part to pronounce his full name.

Brent Cole is presented the President's Award for Educational Excellence by Mrs. Hines along with eight other seniors.

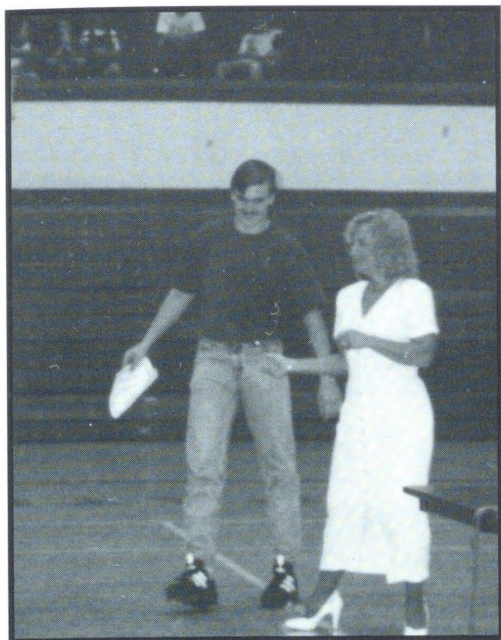

Sheriff Doerge presents C. Owen with a scholarship for her four years participation in S.O.D.A.

Andy Allphin appears stunned yet pleased at the title length and status of his award "Semper Fidelis Award for Musical Excellence."

Mrs. Betty Gorham gave certificates to J. Hilliard, C. Beck, D. Drake, B. Cole, M. Miller, B. Justice, K. Abeln, and A. Nielsen for their participation in Quiz Bowl.

Mr. Na'ayem proudly presents his TEAMS State Champions with their framed certificates.

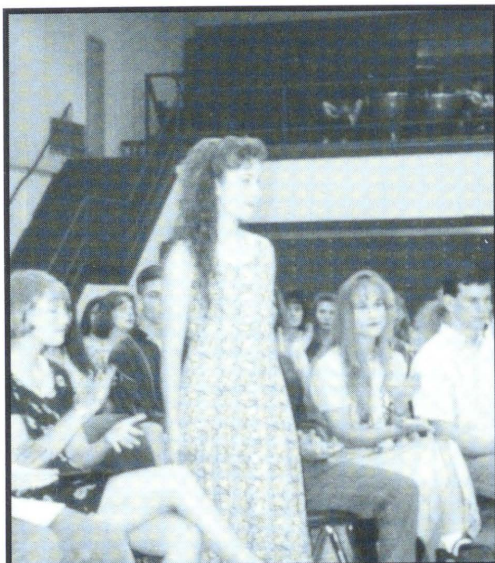

Mrs. Hines struggles even now to get the last word with David Moore.

Alicia Nielsen is recognized for being accepted by the Air Force Academy.

Steven Dopp accepts his Big 8 Academic Award for sports.

Kathryn Abeln-Valedictorian and Brent Justice-Salutatorian, are more than happy to accept their trophies for years of hard work in maintaining their high class rank.

Jamie Wolgamott stands to be recognized for her Union Pacific Railroad scholarship.

Mrs. Lafoon hands out STRIDE certificates.

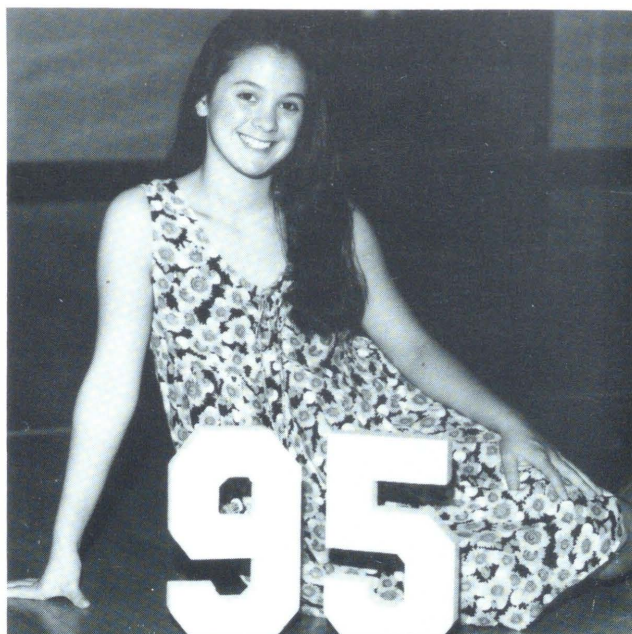

Seniors participating in Business Day also received recognition.

I got it, I got it! After years of frustration and hard work Sandra Kraft is proud of her diploma.

Cousins Chris Brown and Lori Brown take a family picture on their graduation night.

Not another one! T. Gorman, exhausted by picture taking, pauses for one more candid.

Together for the last time as seniors, S. Roszell and C. Beck anxiously await commencement.

Supporting her newly graduated friend, Yari Granda happily congratulates LouAnna Hanes.

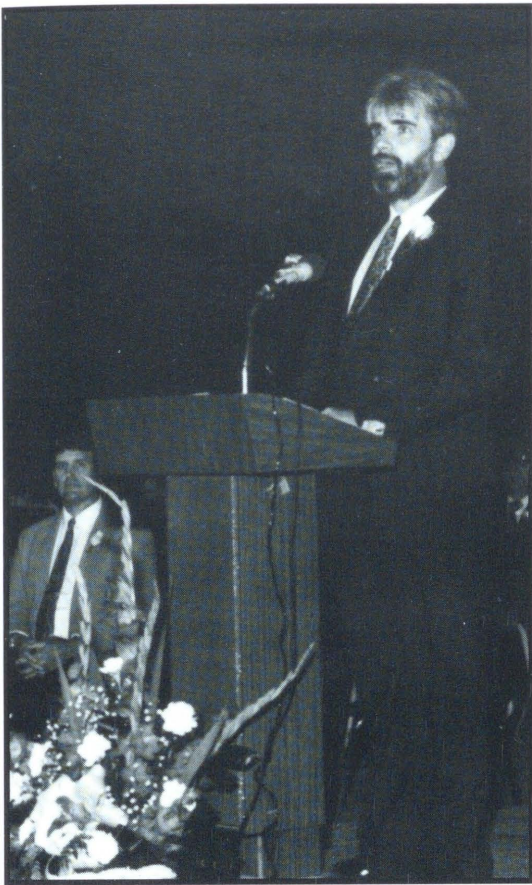

The seniors give their undivided attention to the guest speaker, Pastor Doug Gripka.

Valedictorian Katy Abeln and Salutatorian Brent Justice read the poem "The Race" for the senior class, challenging them to rise each time they fall.

You Only Live Once--but if you live right, once is enough.

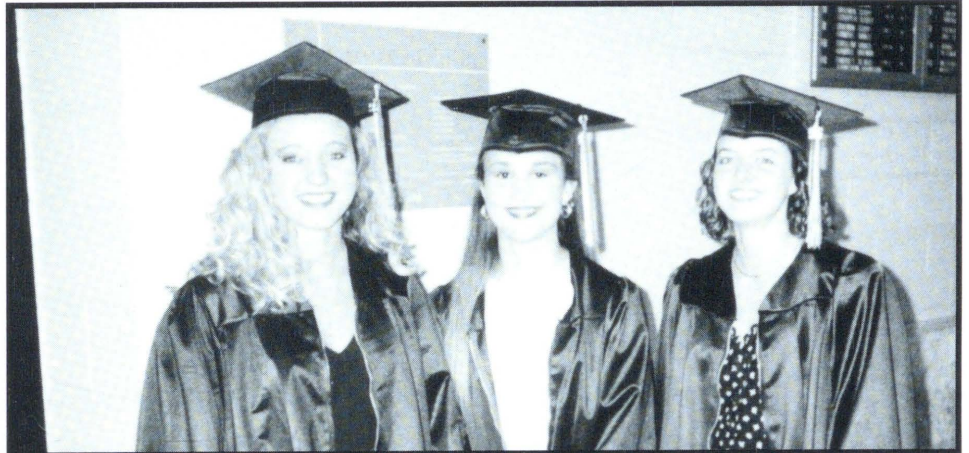

Reverend Doug Griпка of Newtonia Baptist Church addressed the seniors on graduation night.

Select senior class members sing "I'll Be Your Friend Until Forever," directed by Mr. Smith, during the graduation ceremony.

Jamie McCool, Summer Roszell and Amy Yates look anything but nervous before becoming graduates of East Newton High School.

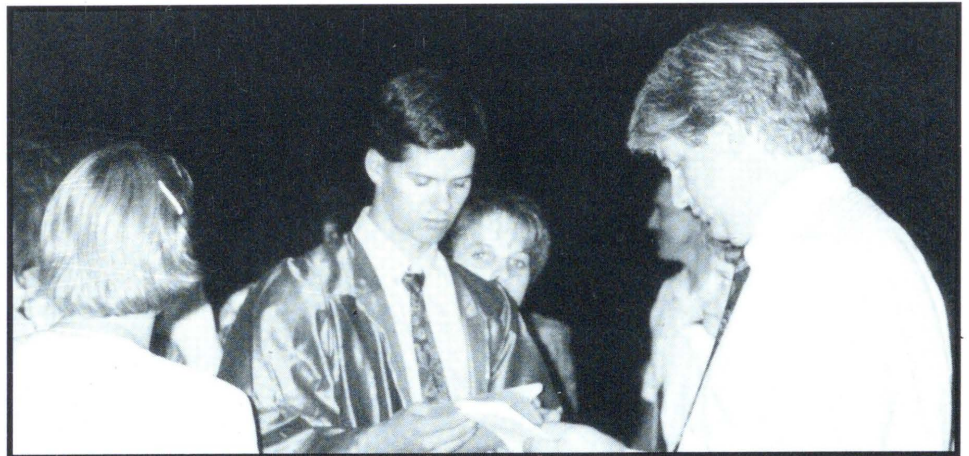

East Newton Baccalaureate services were held in the East Newton High School gymnasium on Sunday May 14, 1995 at 8:00p.m. The Processional was performed by the East Newton band and the invocation was given by S. Roszell. J. Griпка sang "I will be here." Dennis Burge of Berwick Church was the guest speaker, and C. Beck gave the benediction to close the service.

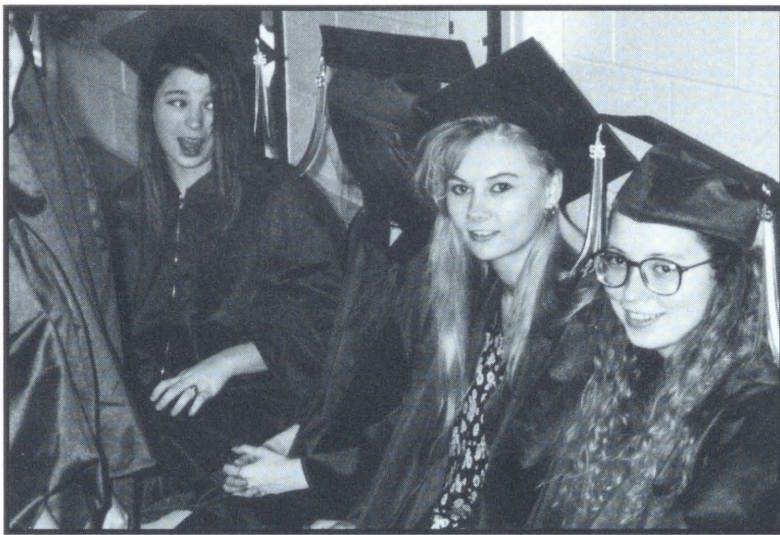

Commencement was held at the Don Johnson Stadium of East Newton High School on May 15 at 8:00p.m. Rev. Doug Griпка of Newtonia Baptist Church addressed the seniors at the ceremony. Katy Abeln-Valedictorian, and Brent Justice-Salutatorian, spoke to the class and closed the program with a poem. The ushers and usherettes were J. Guinn, M. VanWinkle, R. Thomlinson, and Y. Granda.

After they were pronounced graduates of East Newton, the new alumni threw their caps as a symbol of their new-found freedom.

Chad Gallemore is amazed at the staggering amount of money on the check in a graduation card he received.

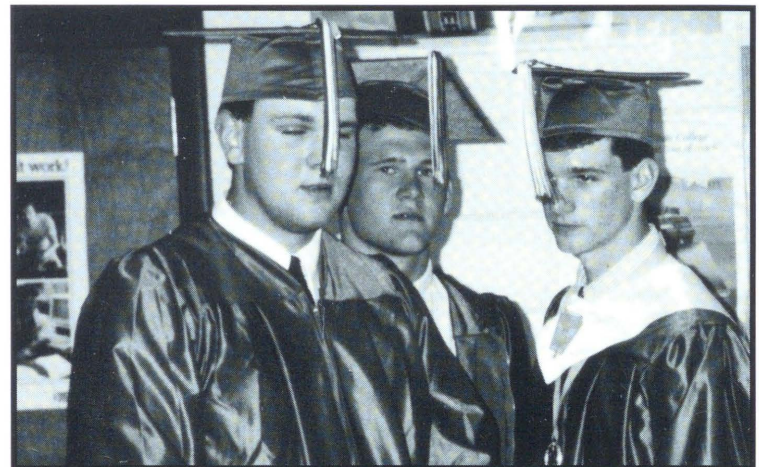

I can't believe this! Betsy Livingston, Cali Myers, Jennifer Van Lue, and Carla Loving anxiously await graduation.

Great accomplishments were achieved by foreign exchange students Maggie Iglesias, Annie Ouellet, and Elisa Belchnerowski.

Who said graduation was supposed to be fun? Michael is actually very delighted to finally be graduating.

It's all over, or is it? Brent Cole shows some of his true feelings on graduation night.

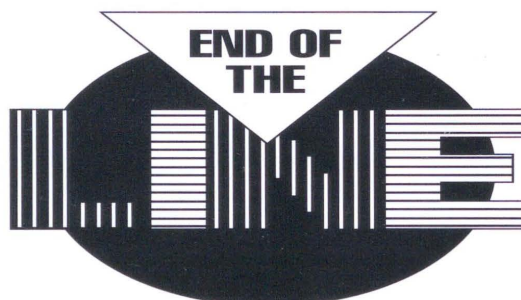

Awaiting their big moment, Steve Dopp, Shawn OanWinkle, and Michael Miller anticipate a successful graduation.

Jaysa Harris and Kory Scheppert definitely show off some happy feelings about their big night.

One last moment together. D. J. Boettler, Michelle Jordon, and Kelli Sheehy feel the nervousness that is often felt by graduates.

Hakuna Matata

This year was East Newton's second annual Project Graduation. This activity is an all-night lock-in for all Seniors who graduated, to keep them safe from drugs and alcohol on graduation night. This year's Project Graduation was a great success, and each Senior was able to take home $60 for participating. It was a last-time reunion for most of them.

The Seniors were able to enjoy the following activities at the Olympic Fitness Center: karaoke, scuba diving, racketball, swimming, and much more. This evening was fun-filled and action-packed... a night to be remembered.

Jamie McCool

Music Awards 1995! Chris Brown, Chad Gallemore and Shawn VanWinkle howl "All Apologies" by Nirvana.

For one last time, the 1995 Senior class gather on a bus to be taken to Project Graduation at Olympic Fitness Center in Joplin for an all night lock-in.

Seems like a lifetime ago these two girls met. Jamie and Summer spend their last few moments together as Seniors.

It's a Groupie! Chris Brown, Jennifer Hilliard and Jessica Jump squeeze together for a tight picture at 5:15 in the morning after Project Graduation.

Uhh! Ohhh! Shaun Belmont tosses Elisa Belchnerowski into the Olympic size pool at the Fitness Center.

This is the life! No more teachers, no more books . . . David Moore enjoys a relaxing moment in the pool.

Big Fish in a Little Pond

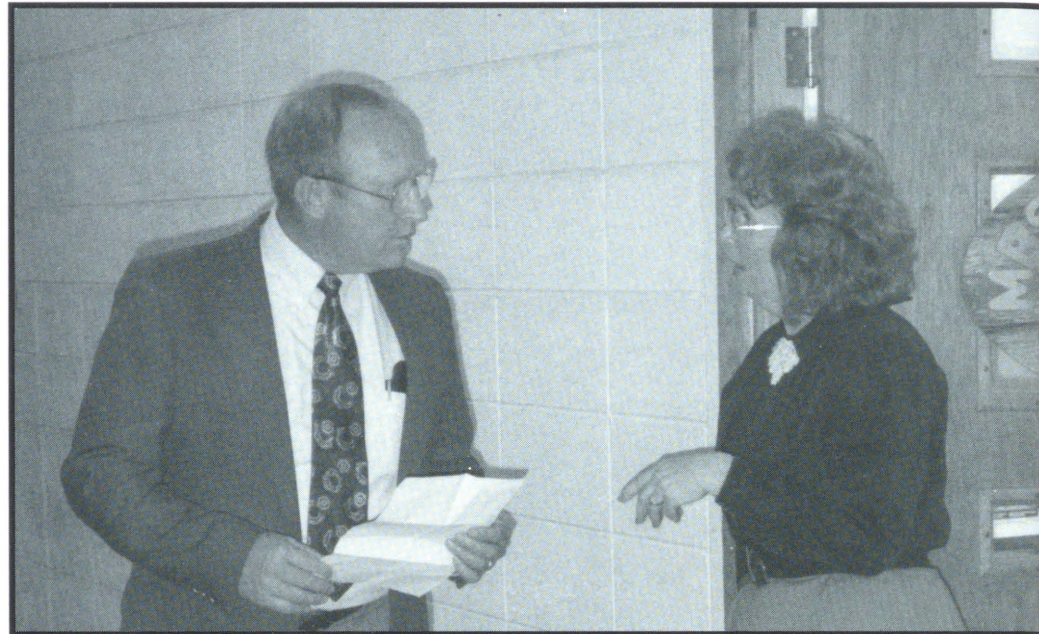

East Newton is very fortunate to have the kind of people that we do on our Board and in our Administration. Together, these people work to make the East Newton school system the best it can be.

The seven-member board of education meets monthly, and during that time, makes decisions regarding such issues as the approval of bills and the adoption of policies. The Board's work requires long hours and willingness of members to give of their time freely.

This year's administration consists of four very important individuals: the Superintendent Doyle Price; the High School Principal Max Newell; the Administrative Assistant Jack Andris; and Transportation and Athletic Director Dave Allphin.

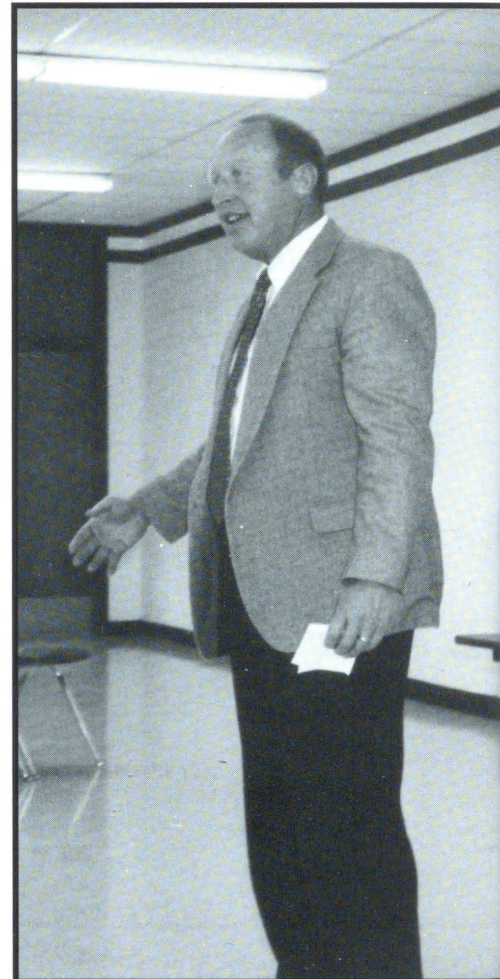

Summer Roszell

Always ready to help, Superintendent Doyle Price listens attentively in order to offer some expert advice to Mrs. Marbut.

Showing his support for the athletic programs, Mr. Price expresses the importance of good sportsmanship at the fall sports banquet.

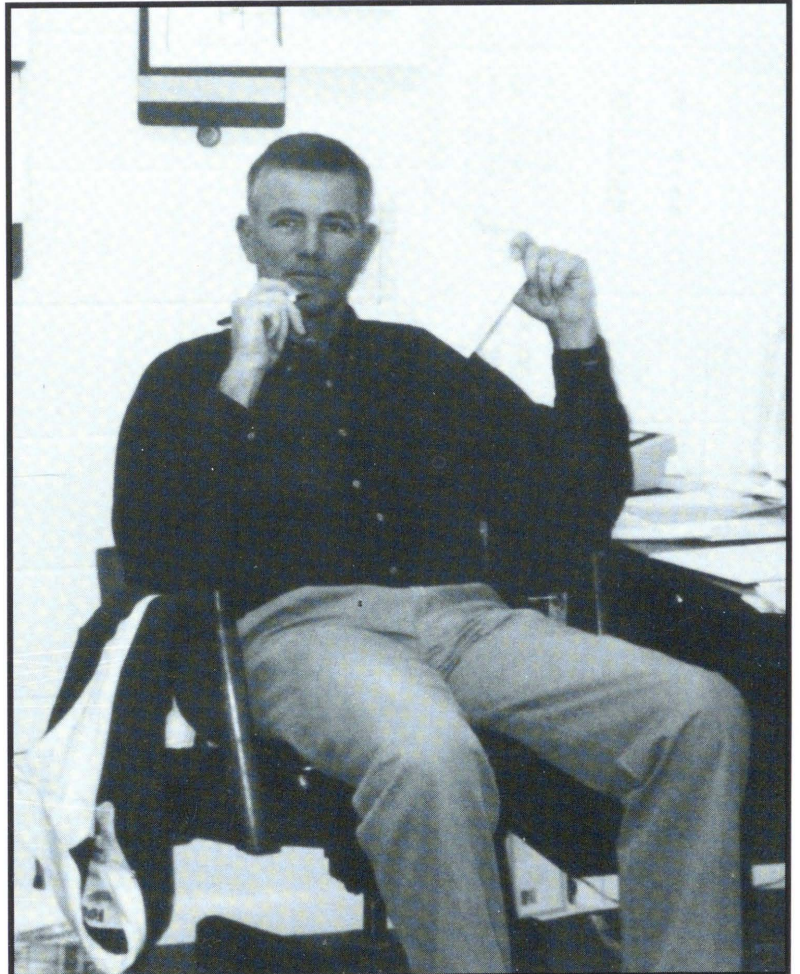

Mission accomplished! Principal Max Newell forces a smile after a long, hard day of running the school.

In a trance, Mr. Allphin tries to escape the pressures of his responsibilities of transportation and athletic director.

Dedication, Determination, and Pride!

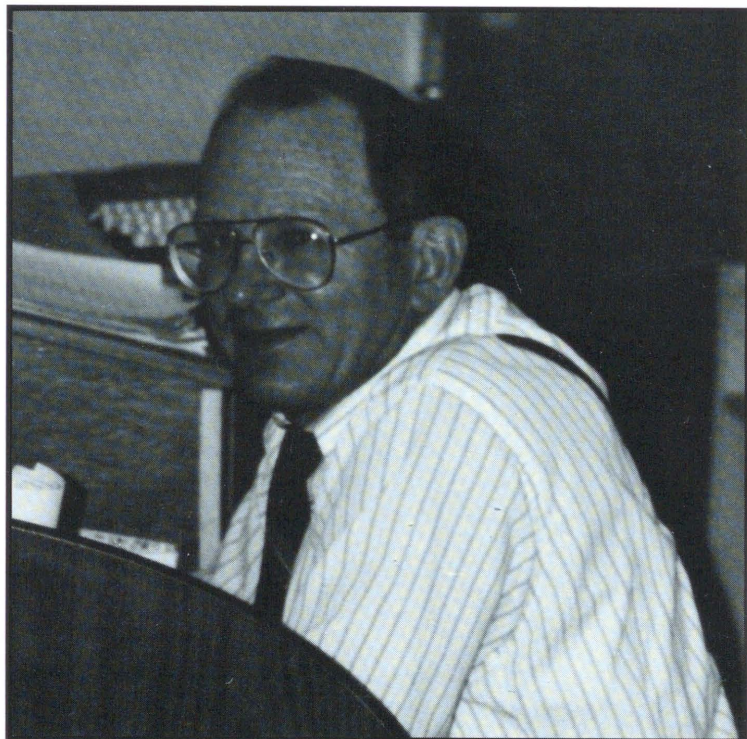

How do I open this? Mrs. Gorham tears into an uncooperative box of Tom-Wat merchandise.

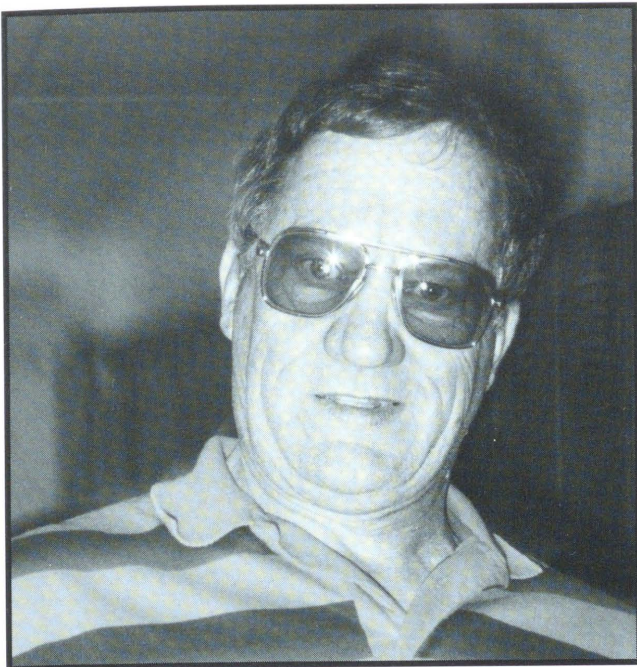

Being Mrs. Fix-it, Mrs. Berry tries to figure out what's wrong with the computer.

Giving the cameraman a great look of intelligence, Coach Bunn is caught roaming the halls during class.

Darn taxes! Coach Branscum is dumbfounded by the amount taxes decrease his monthly paycheck.

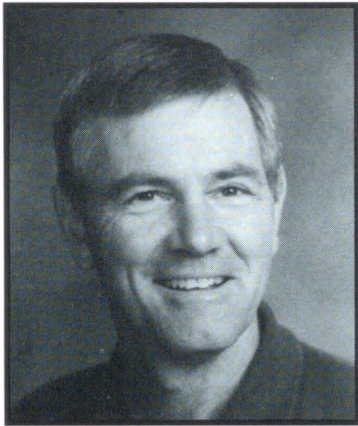

Mrs. Coburn gives us her best smile while trying to concentrate on grading tests.

Being his normal self, Mr. Na'ayem shows the new teacher, Mrs. Goss, how entertaining life can be at East Newton.

Always on Their Toes!!

Never a Dull Moment. . . .

Jackie Camerer sits surrounded by books and office machines she uses each day.

Showing her amazing ability to do two jobs at once, Secretary Patty McKinney pauses for a moment from her typing to take a telephone message.

Secretary Patty McKinney appears to be numb to monotony as she takes lunch money from the hundreds of students that pass through the lunch room each day.

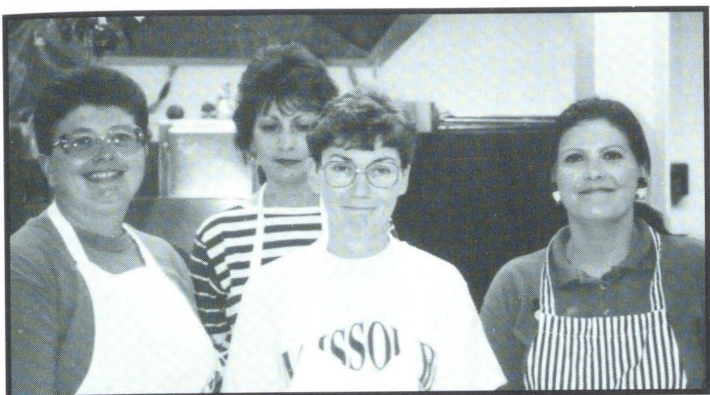

Carolyn Sanders shows an unfailing good attitude in spite of the pressures of parent/teacher conferences.

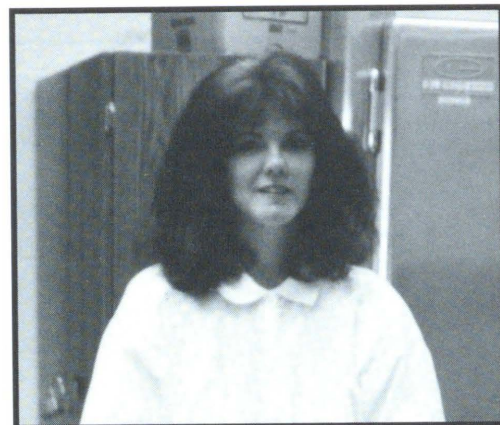

Don't look at your hands! Louise Faules continues to type with accuracy, speed and skill in spite of the camera's distraction.

Carolyn quickly finishes some last minute figuring before going on an afternoon walk with Mrs. McCreary, the Dietician.

1994-95 cooks Diana Hawkins, Sondra Lipe, Judy Woodworth, and Debbie Hobson show mixed emotions about the school lunches.

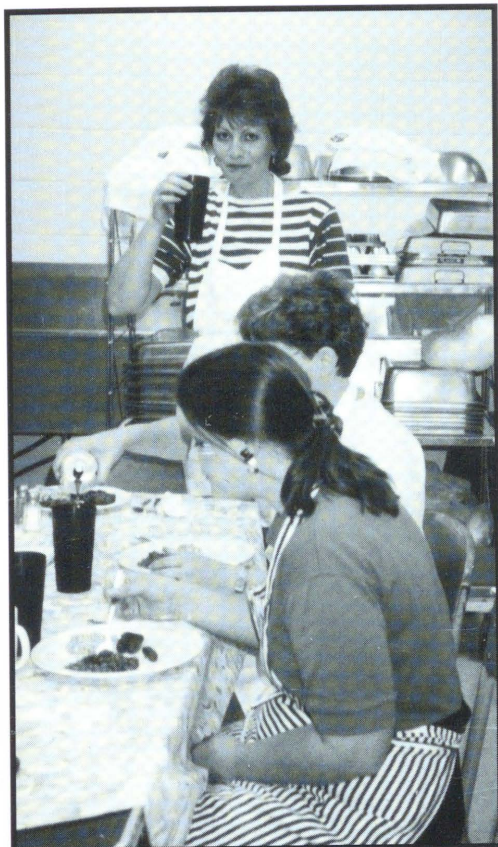

Of her five years of service for the students Mary McCreary says, "kids are fun people!"

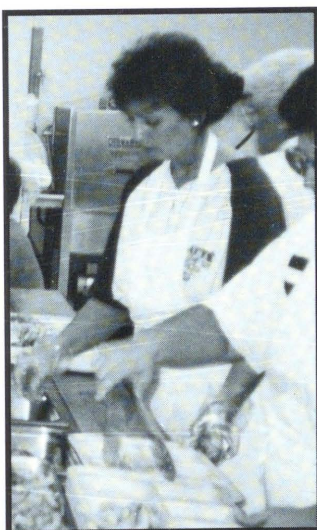

Someone's in the Kitchen. . .

Doing the dirty work, Carla Jones keeps up with the rush of lunch shifts.

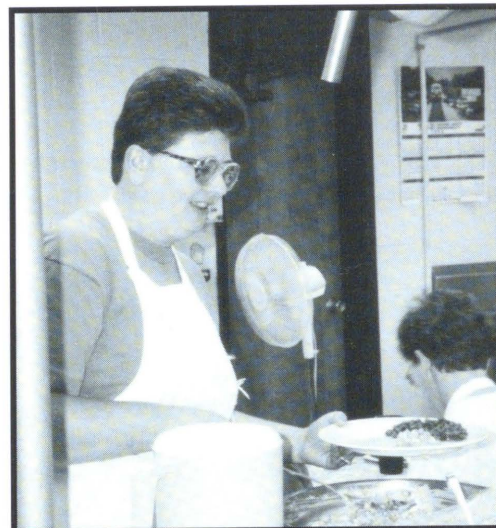

Taking a break, Sondra, Judy and Debbie enjoy their own creations before serving them to the students.

Dishing it out, Sondra and Diana practice professional assembly line skills.

Diana Hawkins looks grateful for a break at last, as she helps herself to some lunch.

Tossing it around, Sondra and Judy prepare chef salads with all the trimmings for the students.

Not a screw loose anywhere!

Our school's appearance has made several improvements over the past few years. It's all due to the continuing excellent work of our dedicated janitors.

This year Marj Stockton, David Wormington, and Frank Milne contributed to our school's upkeep. Their hard work is appreciated by all even though it is not always acknowledged.

Donnie Culp and Troy Coburn continue to do a fine job at keeping the maintenance work under control.

Hagedon and Kerry Stanberry are the bus mechanics that keep those big yellow bananas rolling down the highway.

Their dedication and hard work is greatly appreciated. Keep up the good work.

Art Club's First

This year the Art Club was a great addition to the East Newton organizations. Many participated to help make it a success.

The Big 8 Art Conference was held here at East Newton this year, making it an even more exciting event. With hard work and preparation, it was a great success.

This year East Newton wiped out the competition by winning 14 first place medals with a total of 87 points, the closest competitor was Carl Junction with 57.

Future Stars

This year's Drama Department put a lot of hard work and effort into creating some spectacular performances at various competitive speech tournaments in the area.

The all-school play was "Nonsense." Those appearing in the play were Gwen Ferguson, Jami Gripka, Mandy Oxendine, Kirsti Allphin, Jami Pickup, and Bill Aulick. The director was Mrs. Mary Ferguson, and music was provided by Mr. Smith and the Jazz Band.

The NFL officers for this year are President-Alicia Nielsen, Vice-President-Adrienne Nielsen, Recorder-Erika Rakes, Secretary-Gwen Ferguson, Treasurer-Shannon Gabriel, and Historian-Kelly Boyd. We all wish the Drama Club good luck and hope to see many more great performances.

Becky Wormington

Obviously enjoying the American classroom atmosphere, Annie Ouellet participates in the reading of a play in her fourth hour DramalSpeech class.

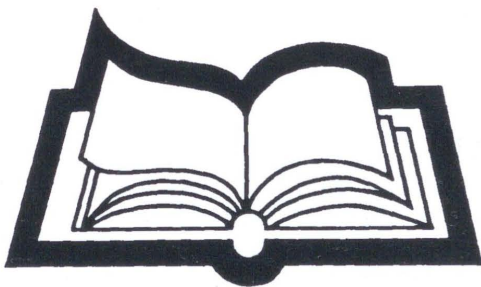

Yadira Antillon shows her enthusiasm as she awaits her turn in fourth hour DramalSpeech class.

Juniors Bo Blewer and Becka Pendergraft rehearse their parts while displaying their speech talents.

The cast of the all-school play "Nunsense" captivated the audience with their spectacular presentation.

The 1994-95 Band/Jazz Band under the direction of Mr. Smith has had an exciting and successful year.

Several musicians, especially seniors, have done quite well this year. Those chosen for district honor band were B. Marcules, A. Allphin, and L. McDonald. J. Baker, C. Owen, and S. Young made concert band. A. Allphin, L. McDonald, and B. Marcules were also selected for district jazz band, and performed at the North Park Mall. The following received ones on their instrumental solos at district: L. McDonald, A. Allphin, B. Marcules. D. Haught and R. Hansen received ones on piano. These students went on to perform at state, receiving outstanding ratings.

Although they will be losing three of their most talented musicians to graduation, the future success of our band is promising.

Performing at the basketball pep rally, the East Newton Jazz Band keeps the students entertained.

The Sound of Music

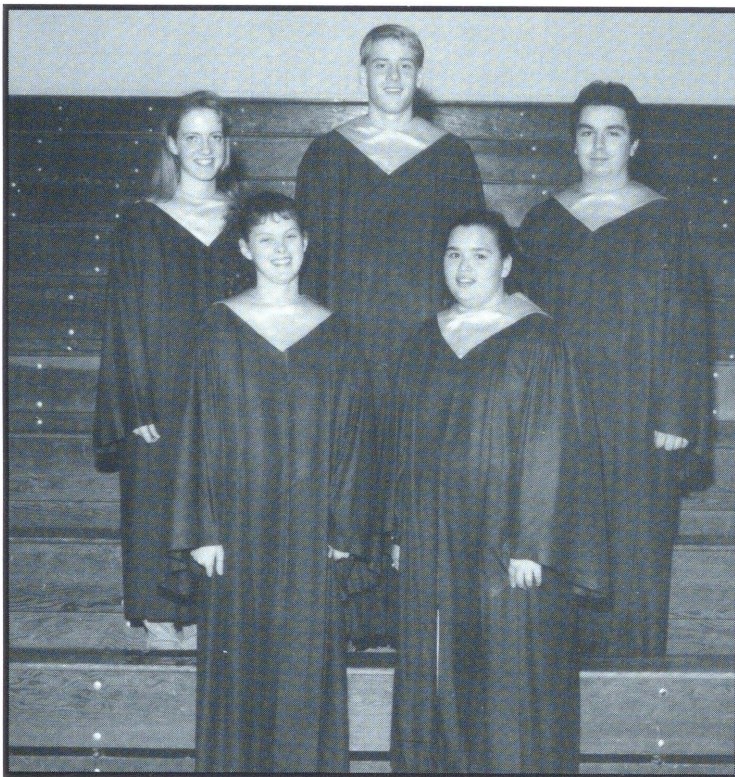

The 1994-95 music department, directed for the third year by Mr. Kevin Smith, is proud of the success of the vocal students this year. The participation in vocal competition consisted mainly of the Patriot Singer students. Not only were five of them selected for District Honor Choir, but also Andy Allphin-with a one on his solo, Jami Gripka, Ann Carter, and Beth Carter-with a one on their trio at District Festival went on to compete at State in Columbia. Here Andy Allphin received a one rating on his trumpet solo-a fantastic accomplishment. The Patriot Singers also performed as a group for several of the local churches.

The students involved in the music department-from band to vocal-would also like to express their deep appreciation for Mr. Smith. He is an extremely accomplished musician both vocally and instrumentally, with a talent for teaching students by creating a comfortable atmosphere in which all are accepted and invited to contribute their talents. We owe a great deal of our personal success to the "Leader of the Band."

Beth Carter

Patriot Singers (Standing): Mr. Smith-Director, Krystal Friend, Maggie Iglesias, Jami Gripka, Kim Riggs, Nicole Perez, Beth Carter, Andy Allphin. (Seated): Tonya Bogenrief, Ann Carter, Carmen Owen, Kelly Boyd, Gwen Ferguson. Other members included Adam Meadows, and Lynn McDonald.

Five students auditioned and were chosen for District Honor Choir this year. (Back): Beth Carter-alto, Andy Allphin-tenor, Tim Criscio-bass. (Front): Carrie Martin-soprano, and Jami Gripka-soprano.

Doing their best to disrupt the mixed chorus class, Craig H. and Chris C. enjoy the advantages of Seniority.

Math League

Math League once again proved themselves as winners this year. The highlight of the year was competition at Rolla. An eight member team consisting of Brent Justice, Brent Cole, Daniel Burge, Katy Abeln, Jamie Wolgamott, Laura Abeln, Bart Marcules, and Rendi Thomlinson received first place in their division and second overall. Math League members also competed in a monthly contest at MSSC and at the annual SMSU Math Relays. At SMSU, several of our teams and individuals won awards. Amanda Hansen, Kirsti Allphin, Jimmy Peters, and Paula Whitehead took second in the Algebra II Team event. Bill Aulick, Rebecca Hansen, and Nathan Stafford placed first in Geometry Team. In individual events, Nathan Clymer received a gold medal, and Brent Justice and Bill Aulick received honorable mentions.

There are high expectations for next year's Math League and their continued success.

Putting Their Heads Together

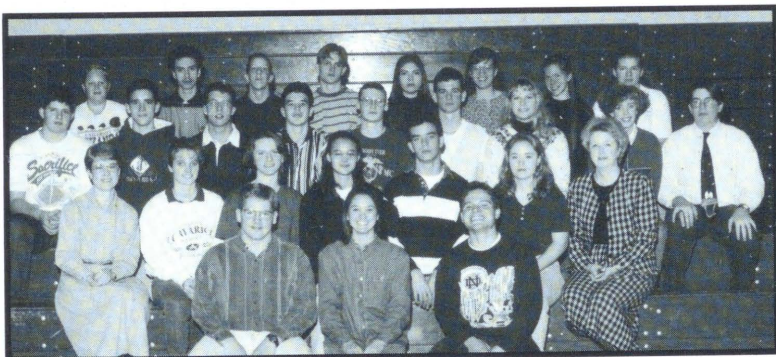

The 1994-95 Quiz Bowl team held up East Newton's tradition of excellence and went a little further. The club members practiced bright and early once a week to earn a place on the Quiz Bowl team. After a lot of doughnuts and orange juice, a six-member team consisting of Billy Davison, Brent Justice, Nathan Clymer, Alicia Nielsen, Rebecca Hansen, and Katy Abeln brought back the first Big 8 Conference Championship trophy in eight years. Quiz Bowl's achievements this year reflect the outstanding job sponsors Betty Gorham and Judy Berry do in coaching some of East Newton's finest students.

Mixing Fun and Learning

This year's Science Club has had a very busy year participating in many activities. Many of the Science Club members went to Springfield to visit the nature center. They got to walk the nature trails and learn about the outdoors.

A field trip was taken by members to Lamar, Missouri to visit the Stilabower Public Observatory. There they received information from a guide about the stars, planets, and constellations.

Several members helped plant trees on the high school grounds to help improve the school's decor.

This year's officers are president - Katy Abeln, Vice-President - D.J. Boettler, Sec/Tres.- Laura Abeln, Historian - Brent Cole., Sophomore Rep.-Nathan Clymer, and Freshman Rep.-Paula Whitehead.

Scholarship, Leadership, Community Service . . .

Membership in the National Honor Society is one of the highest honors a student can achieve. The selection process is very stringent and competitive. Eligibility for consideration is determined by grade point average. Those students who are academically eligible are screened by a committee of faculty members. In addition to scholastic ability, students must exhibit the qualities of leadership, character, and service to be chosen.

Throughout the year NHS sponsors activities which promote both teacher and student recognition and community service. This year these activities included a teacher luncheon, and caroling at the Granby House.

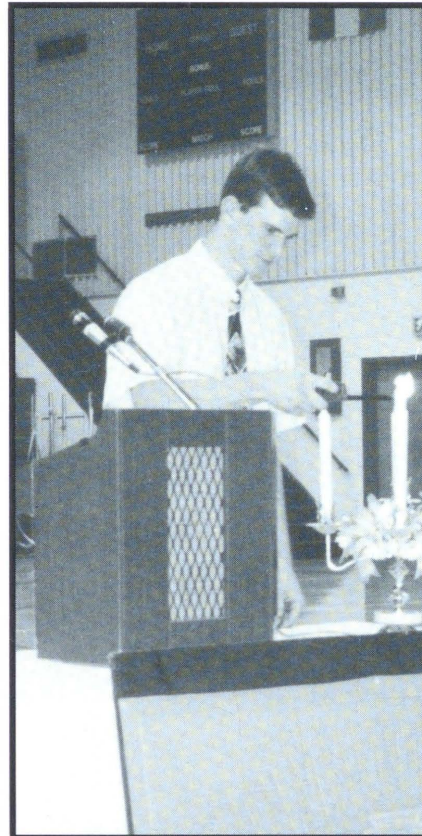

In the Spring, the NHS members are treated to a luncheon at the restaurant of their choice. This year they chose the Olive Garden. On their special day, the group has a professional photograph taken, which is placed on a plaque and put in the academic trophy case.

The Heart of the Student Body

This year's Student Council has worked very hard to provide both the school and community with services and activities.

The students of E.N. are entertained with the spirit days, dances, and other fun activities that the Council sponsors. The school also benefits from the tasks that Stu-Co performs, such as recycling aluminum cans, keeping the outside board up-to-date, and informing students of upcoming events through the bulletin board.

The Student Council also sponsors many projects aimed at the enjoyment and benefit of the community. These activities include sponsoring the Senior Citizens' Banquet, holding a Blood Drive, and raising money for the MDA.

As well as giving much time and effort, being a member of the Council requires a student to maintain a high level both of academic standing and exemplary behavior.

East Newton really appreciates the work and dedication of the Student Council and wishes them continued success.

Trying to appear as though they know what they're doing, Summer R., Jessica J., Kassy S., and Matt O. organize the door prizes to be distributed to the Seniors at the Banquet.

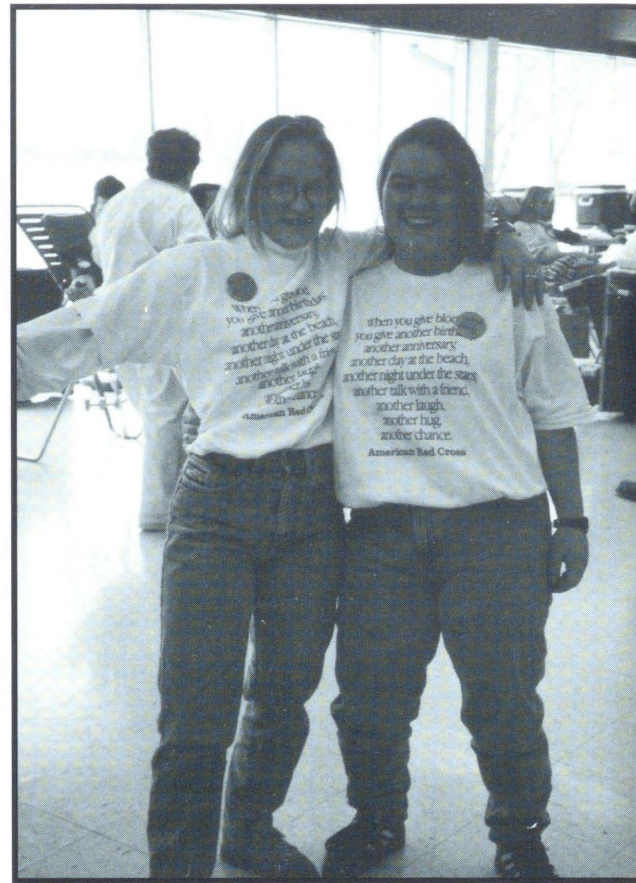

Should have been cowboys? Stu-Co Vice-President Steve D. and his best friend Michael M. present their first place performance at the Talent Show.

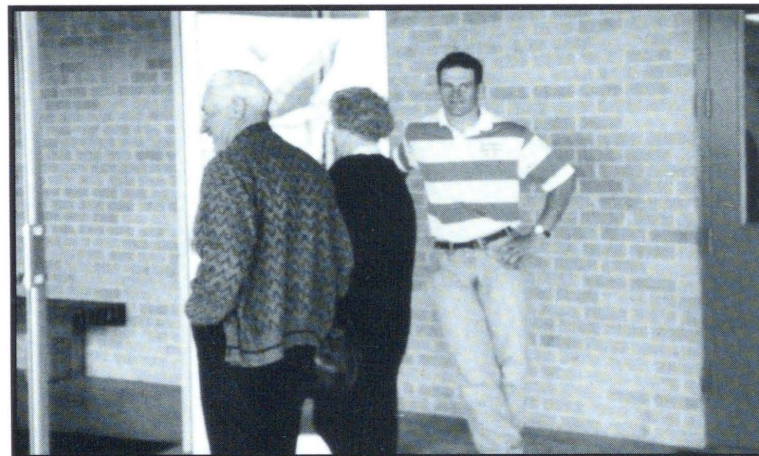

Mr. Miller, are you sprouting a second set of ears? Matt O., Kerri R., Erica R., Mr. Miller, Steve D., and Summer R. show what a great time they are having at the State Student Council Meeting in St. Louis.

"We promise, it doesn't hurt a bit!" Erica R. and Kassidy S. try to calm the nerves of the donors at the Blood Drive.

Hiding their disgust behind transparent smiles, Matt O. and Kassidy S. sort the aluminum cans for recycling.

With her stomach growling and her mouth watering, Stephanie B. carries the trays full of delicious food to serve at the Senior Citizens' Banquet.

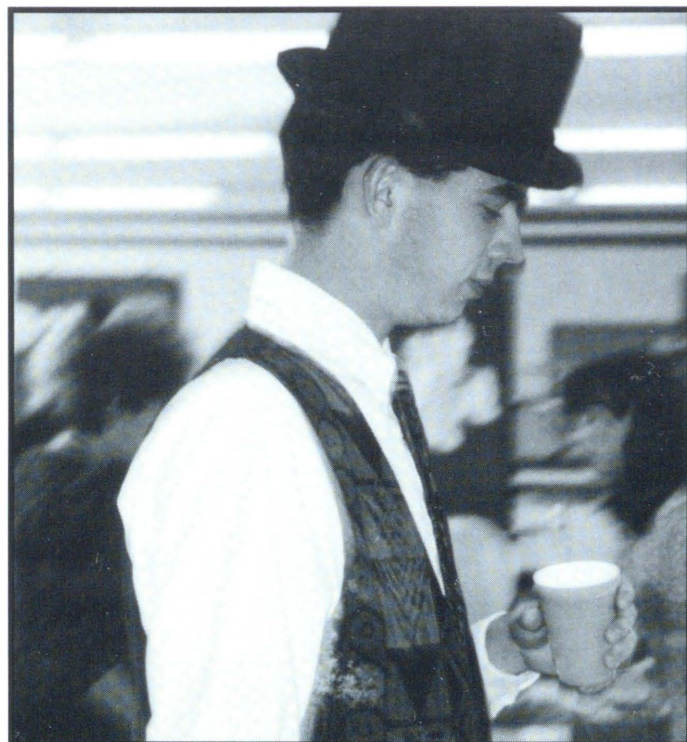

At your service! Guests at the Banquet were welcomed by the warm smile and greeting of the doorman Shawn O.

What are you staring at? Erika Rakes and Craig Hutchens look goo goo eyed over something other than each other.

Future Teachers of America

The FTA Chapter, under the direction of Mrs. Ada Clymer-the science teacher, and Mrs. Jean Lafoon-the librarian, was very active this year. They began a storytelling project at the elementary schools in grades Kindergarten through third. Through Crowder College, 25 students were able to complete an eight hour workshop to become Academic Coaches. This volunteer tutoring service was of great help to both the high school and elementary students in the district. In addition to these activities, FTA also held the annual Teacher's Tea for the high school teachers and faculty, FTA/FHA Picnic at Monett Park, sponsored Student of the Quarter, and attended the District Meeting at SMSU.

Next year, they intend to continue with these successful programs and activities.

Just Havin' Fun!!

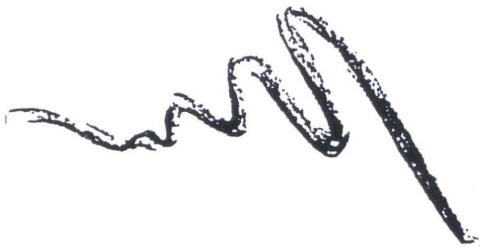

This year's F.H.A. group was sponsored by the new Home Economics teacher, Mrs. Karen Mason. The members this year participated in the planning and preparation of many activities.

During the Christmas holiday, the Granby House was decorated for the residents. For national F.H.A. week, the members were served juice and doughnuts before school as an appreciation breakfast. Other activities included red and white day, and a special meeting was held during activity period. Officers and members also attended regional meetings at Crowder College in Neosho and M.S.S.C. in Joplin. In November thirteen members were taken to Dallas for an area cluster meeting. These girls learned a lot and had a great time.

To finish off the year, F.H.A. and F.T.A had their annual picnic at the park in Monett, and held a banquet at the high school honoring the officers.

Andy Allphin sings "Bridge Over Troubled Waters" by Simon and Garfunkel for Triway Junior High when his standup comedy routine fails.

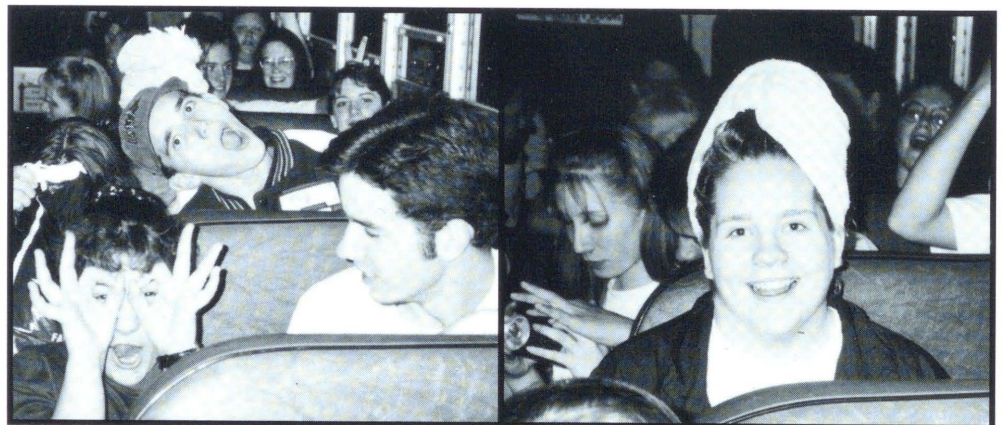

SODA had a considerable increase in its membership this year from years past. With so many people, SODA was able to successfully spread its drug-free message.

The club was very busy this year. Hanging posters and red ribbons for Red Ribbon Week was one of the club's first activities. The club also arranged for its sponsor Linda Allphin to ride in a hot air balloon which displayed a sign with a drug-free logo over Granby during Drug Awareness Week.

The organization also sponsored a successful Christmas Ball. Members sold SODA floats during lunch shifts twice this year as fundraisers. Volunteering at the Preschool Fair was another SODA activity. The club ended the year with its annual lock-in at the high school and its Drug Awareness Week presentation. SODA had a productive year and is sure to have many more.

For What It's Worth

Being in Yearbook takes a lot of hard work and dedication. The 1994-1995 Yearbook staff included seven returning members, five new members, and Mrs. Getha Wilkie our advisor. Each individual contributes an important part to the yearbook and the staff. At the beginning of the year, we are given the responsibility of taking pictures of various things as assignments. We have these assignments for the duration of the year. Meeting the deadlines on our assigned pages is an important part of the activities.

This year we began a new program called Yearthech. It allows us to design our layouts on the computer and print them out enabling us to see how they will look. Mrs. Wilkie meticulously checks our work before sending it off to ensure that it looks picture perfect. This year's staff executives were Editor--Brent Cole, Co-Editor--Beth Carter, Copy Editor--Katy Abeln, Captions Editor--Summer Roszell, Business Manager--Nicole Perez, Assistant Business Manager--Yari Granda, and Graphics Editor--Jamie McCool.

1995 Yearbook Royalty Ceremony in...

The 1995 Yearbook Ceremony, coordinated by the yearbook staff and their advisor Mrs. Getha Wilkie, was successfully presented to the students and faculty at 2:30 p.m. on April 21.

The royalty candidates were chosen on the basis of personality, appearance, academics, and good character. They were Seniors Maggie Iglesias and Craig Hutchens, Juniors Leesa Cook and Josh Hanes, Sophomores Kathy Ford and Tim Gripka, and Freshmen Alissa Jones and Aaron White. Mike Zane from KSYN 92.5 FM crowned Queen Maggie Iglesias. King Tim Gripka was presented the scepter by staff member Miranda Ford.

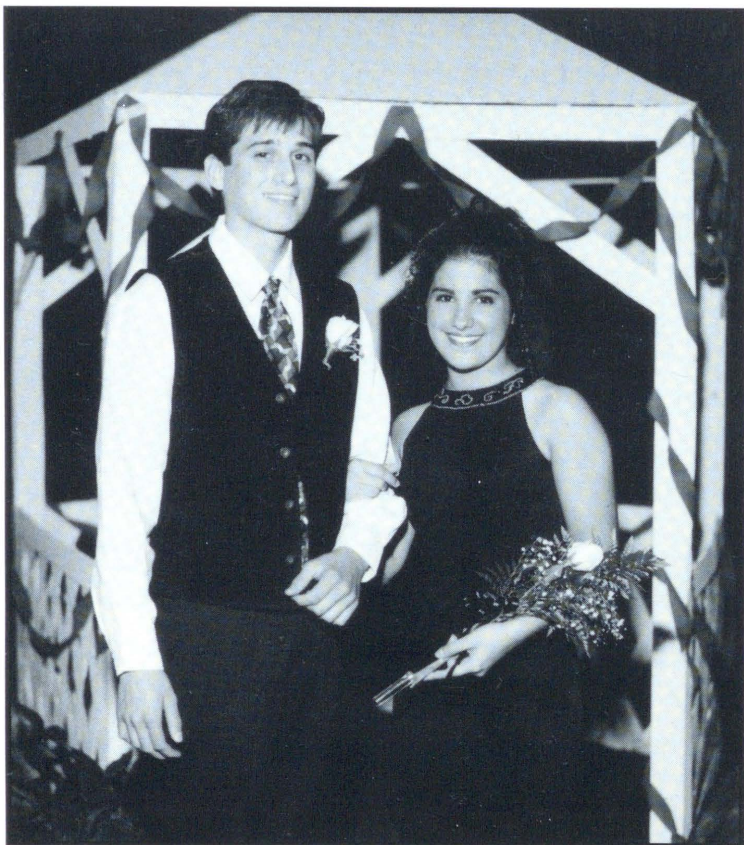

Music was provided by the E.N. Jazz Band performing "Still," featuring soloist Lynn McDonald. Mrs. Kristi Berner's local floral shop provided the ferns and flowers.

Pleased with yet another successful yearbook ceremony, the school looks forward to the ideas and performance of future staffs.

Promoting Excellence Through Agriculture!

The 1994-95 FFA chapter had a busy and successful year. Many activities were held. The chapter sold fruit, held the annual barnwarming dance, and attended the National and State conventions.

The Area 7 Banquet recognized several East Newton students. A. Nielsen, E. Hagedon, C. Bunch, D. Johnson, and T. Gorman were awarded the Area Farmer Degree. Proficiency awards were presented to B. Mohn, E. Hagedon, C. Bunch, B. Harris, and L. Arnall. The students winning State Farmers were C. Bunch, E. Hagedon, T. Gorman, and A. Nielsen.

In April the Ag department held the yearly slave sale. This fundraiser helped raise money for the summer trip. It was also very successful.

Several students participated in judging teams. Among the teams qualifying for state were Livestock, Dairy Cattle, Poultry, Farm Management, and Extemporaneous Speaking.

1994-95 Barnwarming King and Queen
Senior Tracy Gorman and Junior Matt Ward

The 1994 FFA Barnwarming dance was held on November 18th in the new Agricultural building.

Senior Candidate Tracy Gorman was crowned Barnwarming Queen by junior Dawn Brady. Junior Matt Ward was crowned Barnwarming King by senior Chris Brown. Tracy has been in Ag four years. She raises and milks cattle and judges dairy cattle in the Spring. Matt has been in Ag three years and raises cattle for his class project.

After the ceremony, guests and Ag members enjoyed the music provided by Jeremy Coker and Harold Cramer as they drank apple cider and ate the food provided by the Agriculture department.

This year's Lady Pats Varsity Volleyball team experienced a season full of changes and challenges. Under the instruction of new coach Beverly Goff, the team was led to a winning record and a third place finish in Districts.

The team members were honored with several awards for their hard work during the season. Amber Swartz was named 1st Team All-Conference, Rendi Thomlinson 2nd Team, and Jamie McCool Honorable Mention. Amber Swartz and D.J. Boettler were both chosen 1st Team All-District. Amber was also recognized as All-Regional.

Awards voted on by fellow team members were distributed at the fall sports banquet. Rendi T. was named Outstanding Server and Setter. Jamie M. was named Outstanding Blocker. D. J. Boettler received the award for best passer. Both Jamie and D.J. were chosen as the team's best defensive players. Michal Mathis was voted Most Improved Player. Amber S. received the Outstanding Offense award and was voted the team's MOP.

Climbing to the Top

The 1994 Junior Varsity and Freshmen volleyball teams were one of our volleyball program's highlights this year. A talented and dedicated group of freshmen girls worked hard for a second place trophy in the Joplin Freshmen Tournament and an outstanding record of 7-3-2.

The Junior Varsity also turned a lot of heads. With the outstanding leadership of five juniors, the JV became one of the area's best teams. They finished with an amazing record of 14-3 and brought home the second place trophy in the McAuley JV Tournament. Good job girls!

Patriots Claim a 3-Peat!

The East Newton Patriots started the 1994 season ranked 5th in the Big-Eight Conference. They held up to the expectations of all of their fans and faithful supporters. They ended the regular season with a 5 and 5 record and were undefeated in District play-offs to clench their third consecutive District Championship title.

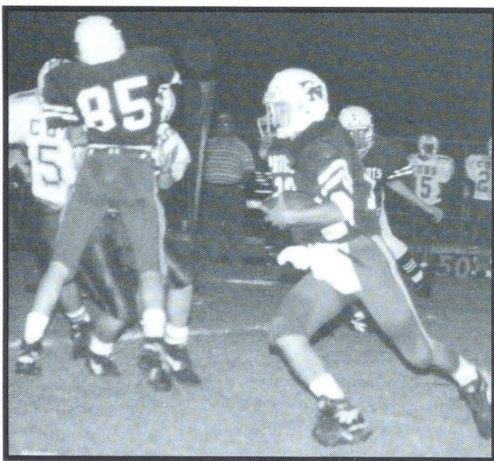

Some of the Patriots received state, local, and other honors for their outstanding performances. Shawn VanWinkle was awarded state and conference recognition as linebacker. Chad Gallemore, Jeremy King, and Dan Cullers were presented with Conference honors.

Shootin' for the Future

The 1994-95 East Newton Lady Patriots Varsity Basketball Team had an exciting season, full of hard work and dedication. The schedule required early practices and late games, but the girls persevered, showing much enthusiasm and heart.

Although basketball is a team sport, several of the girls were individually outstanding in certain areas. Kelli Sheehy had the best overall free throw percentage, Amber Swartz obtained the most assists, and Alicia Nielsen pulled down the most rebounds. The following awards were voted on by the team members: D.J. Boettler was voted the best defensive player, and Amber Swartz was named Most Improved Player, and Amber Swartz was voted Most Valuable. Amber also received conference recognition, being named to the Big 8 All-Conference 2nd Team.

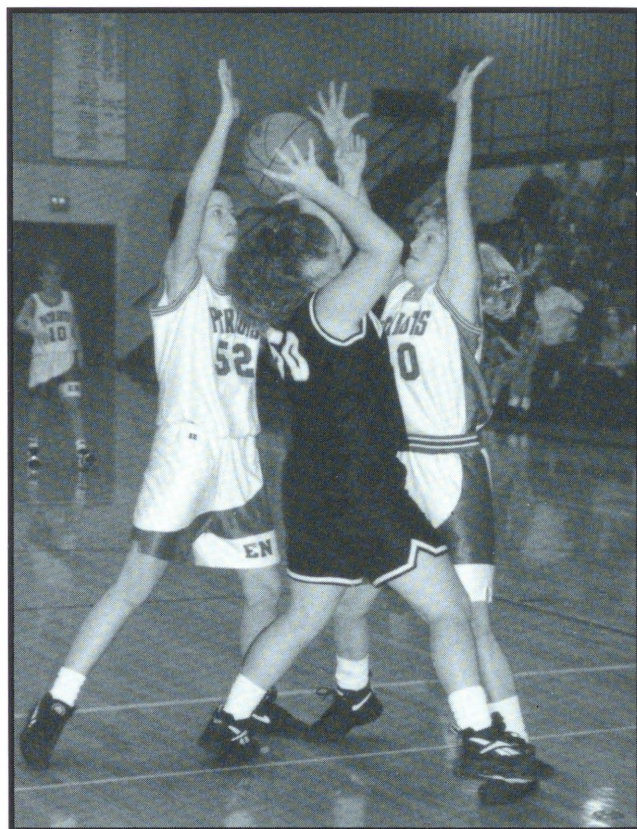

With several key players returning next year, the Lady Pats hope to have another successful season.

As anyone can see, the Senior 'Quad Squad' is proud to sport new warm-ups, the latest in basketball fashion.

A Step Above The Rest

This year's JV girls basketball team displayed their determination and dedication on the court. Being all freshmen, they had much less experience than the sophomores and juniors they were competing against. They worked hard though and gave many of their opponents a very tough game. Very few teams were able to defeat this outstanding group of freshmen easily. They finished the season with a record of 6-13. Playing against older girls has greatly improved their game and put them a step ahead of any other freshman team. With this experience and hard work they are expected to make an exceptional future Varsity team.

Girls Junior Varsity Basketball: Kirsti Allphin, Alissa Jones, April Brown, Jerra Pyles, Heidi Thomlinson, Jesse James, Shasta McCamish, Jera Gallemore, and Coach Goff.

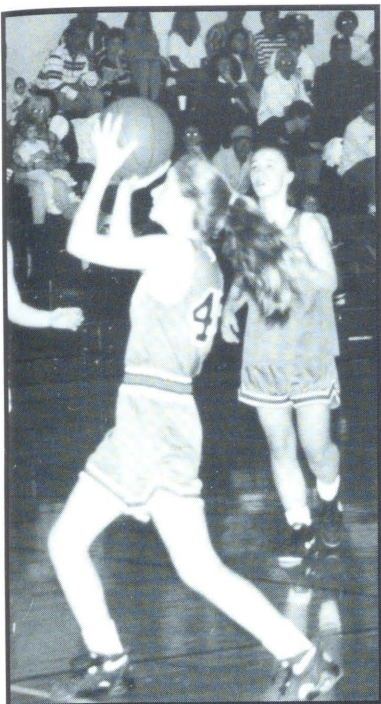

Don't take my ball! Jesse James fights with all her might to keep the ball out of an opponent's possession.

Shasta McCamish concentrates on sinking a free throw under the intense watch of Neosho fans.

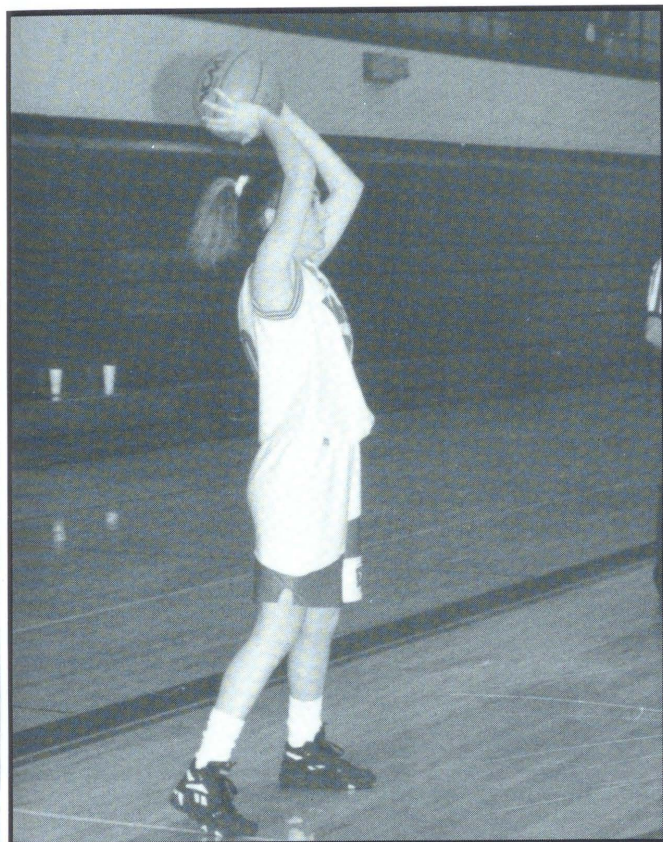

Coach Cambers explains a play to the JV girls during time out of a tied game against Neosho.

Please go in! April Brown takes the open shot while Heidi Thomlinson anxiously waits to see if it will go in.

The perfect lay-up! Jera Pyles demonstrates how much easier it is to do a lay-up without defense.

Jerra Gallemore orders her opponent to stand back. It's my ball, not yours!

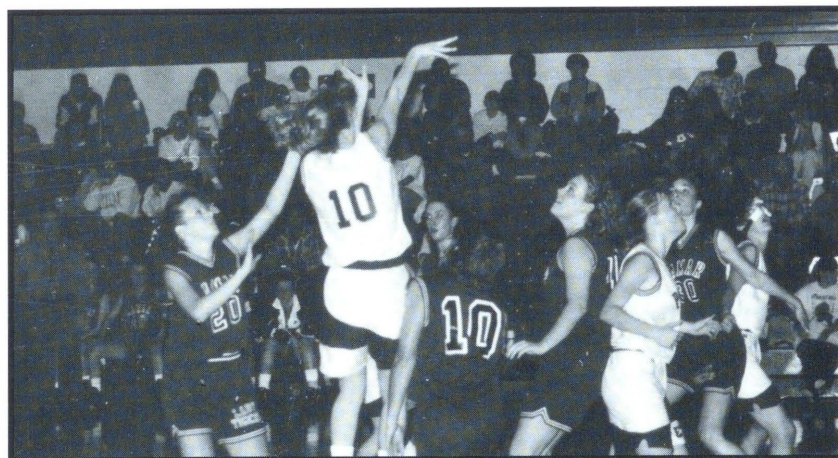

Oarsity Girls D.J. Boettler, Alicia Nielsen, and Mindy Mosley get pumped up to play a tough opponent with the routine lap around the gym.

Lady Patriot Mindy Mosley looks for an open teammate while wondering where the defense is.

Showing that height doesn't matter, Amber Swartz easily jumps over Lamar players to score another two points.

Teamwork: The Key to Victory

Although the six and nineteen record doesn't display an excellent season, the East Newton Patriot varsity team did win the respect of opposing teams. The Patriots never gave up and made their opponents work to win.

Shawn OanWinkle, the ATP leader or MOP, and Chad Gallemore both received Honorable Mention for the Big Eight Conference. Chad Gallemore scored a high for the team at 204 points for the season. Freshman Beau Rickman was a valuable addition to the team with 140 rebounds. The Patriots also relied on Andy Allphin's 78% shooting from the charity stripe. The team voted the most improved player to be Marcus Thogmartin.

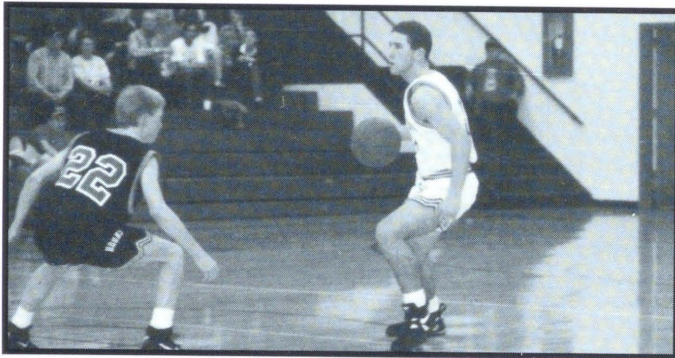

The loss of four valuable Seniors will not be a help, but next year's team should be well able to fill the shoes with the return of six Juniors.

The Boys on the Hardwood

The Junior Varsity was managed by an enthusiastic new coach this year. Coach Kottman led his team to a 4-14 season. Whether or not the record really shows it, the guys felt that they improved game by game. Several guys on this team have a lot to contribute to the Varsity team next year. Coach Kottman was really proud of all the boys as they were his first team to coach.

The New Guys in Town

Coach Spurlin always has his work cut out for him with each new group of Freshmen. The team almost broke even with a 6-13 season. These guys worked hard and put their time in with heart and soul. They still have lots of time to improve and a good coaching staff ahead of them. As long as they stick together as a team, their potential can be put to use in the next few years.

It's Showtime!

This year's homecoming royalty flashed their celebrity smiles for the cameraman to start off an intense game against Seneca. Seniors D.J. Boettler and Chad Gallemore were crowned queen and king amid cheers from their "fans". Their court included Juniors Daniel Cullers and Becky Wormington, Sophomores Jacob Hobson and Shelley Patterson, and Freshmen Matt Breedlove and Jera Gallemore. The Indians managed to defeat our Patriots in a close 53-61 game.

As Good As It Gets

1994-95 Cheerleading Squad - Back row - S. Patterson, M. Ford, K. Richardson, A. Rawlins. Middle row - R. Bowman, L. Hanes, G. Ferguson, Y. Granda, W. Wagner. Stunt Helpers - K. Shoemaker, S. Chupp, J. Hobson, B. Aulick.

"There is always room to do better," is one of the mottos that this cheerleading squad lived by. Once again, this group of girls practiced very hard to get a routine together to take to regionals. Along with these girls went some guys who were willing to give their time to help them in their performance. They did exceptionally well by trying for first place. This paved their way to Columbia, MO, where they competed at the Hearn Center for the annual state competition. Considering that they were up against schools twice their size, they did a great job by bringing home the third place plaque. This was definitely a turning point for these girls and guys.

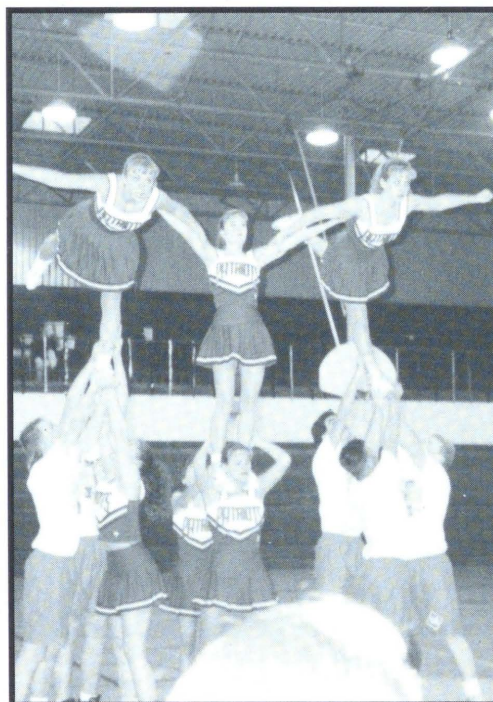

They also did a great job of performing at pep-rallies for the homecomings. They supported their teams at many ft-ball and b-ball games.

These girls and guys worked very hard in all they did, and it surely paid off. They hope that next year will be as great as this year.

Dance Team

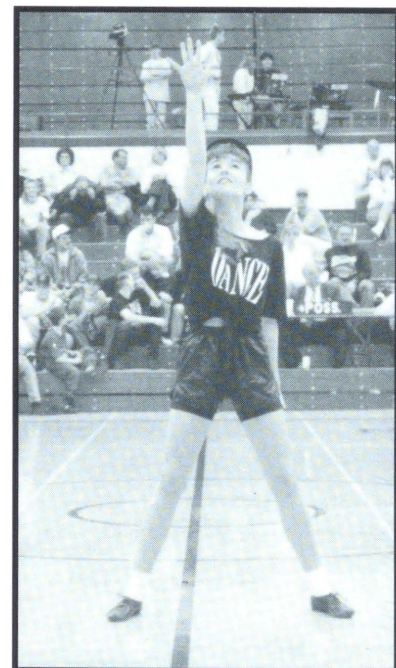

The Dance Team was a new addition to the sports program this year. Sponsored by Mrs. Hines, the 1994-1995 dance team helped entertain many different crowds at various football and basketball games. The team members are Seniors Elisa Belchnerowski and Jessica Jump, Juniors Leesa Cook and Betsy Courtney, Sophomore Deidera Pate, and Freshmen Autumn Brown and Misty McNee.

The team has worked hard preparing performances for the student body. We hope they enjoyed being the first dance team East Newton has had in years.

Seven ducks in a row, dance drill girls demonstrate a popular line-up used in many performances.

Performing a successful halftime show, Jessica Jump looks pleased with the reaction of the crowd.

Catching their breath, the 1994-1995 cheerleaders pause after winning districts to take a group picture.

Ready to begin, the dancers anxiously wait to start their routine.

Preparing for the Diamond football game, the cheerleaders make a run through the banner to help the Patriot football team "Tame the Wildcats" for the final game of the season.

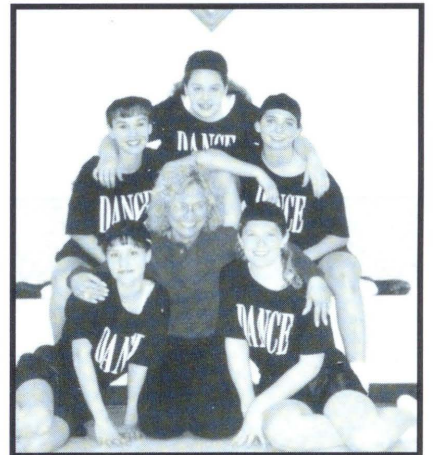

Senior captain Lou Anna Hanes is caught getting ready to perform the district routine.

Just a big group hug, the team is captured in a "Kodak moment" after performing their last routine.

Entertaining the crowd, Elisa, Jessica, and Betsy show off their dancing talent.

I am woman--hear me roar! Shannon, Yari, and Robyn take the district title with an amazing new attitude.

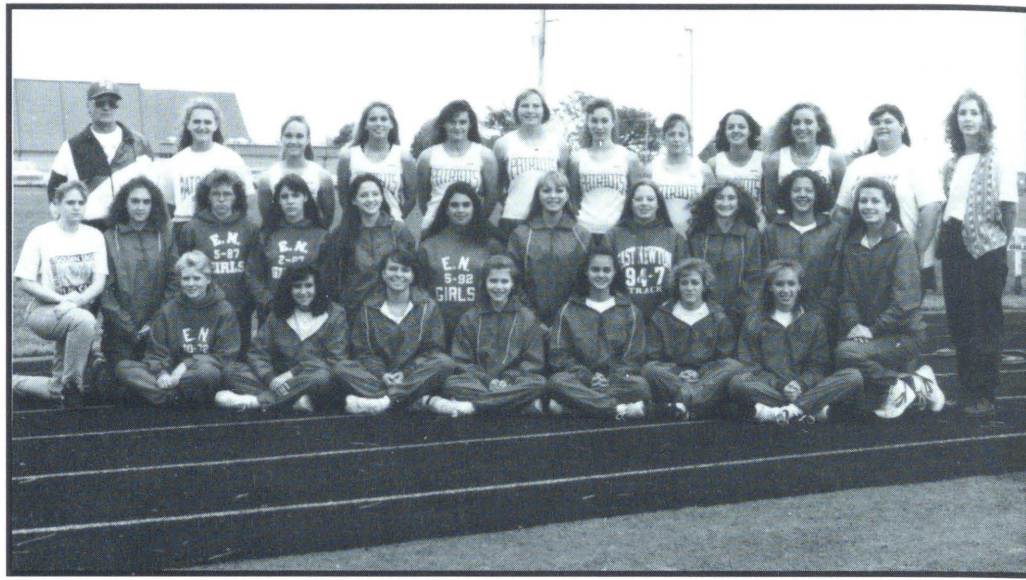

Together Everyone Achieves More

The 1995 Lady Pats Track Team had high hopes for success at the start of the season. With a strong Senior nucleus and much commitment and support from the new coach Mr. Larry Bunn, the team's expectations were fulfilled. The team took first place in the Wyandotte, East Newton, and Springfield Catholic Invitational Meets, and finished third in the Big 8 Conference.

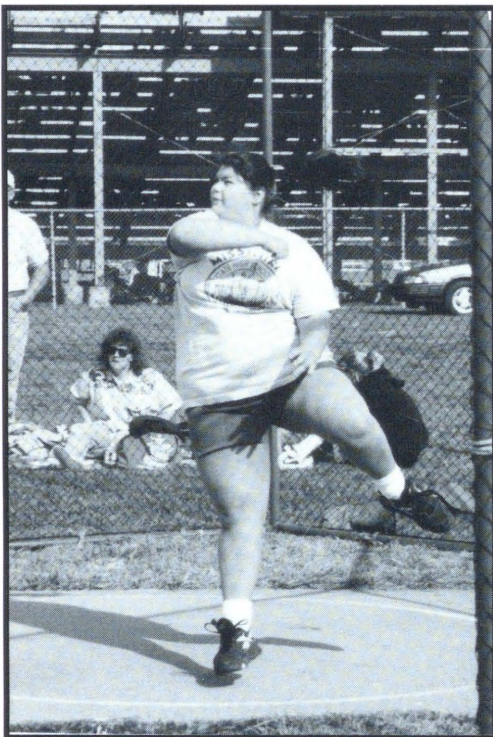

A special banquet was sponsored by the Booster Club this year, solely for honoring tracksters. Several awards were distributed by Coach Bunn at that time. The following awards were voted on by the team members: The Most Improved award was given to L. Cook; the award for the most dedicated trackster went to J. Wolgamott; and S. Roszell received the 100% Effort award. Two awards were based on individual point statistics. These were High Point Field, which went to S. Johnson, and High Point Runner, which was given to S. Roszell.

Although the girl's track program will be losing several Seniors, next year's season looks very promising!

Turning up the Heat

The 1994-95 Boys track team continued to add more wood to the fire of the Big 8 Conference. This year the countless hours of practice and training helped the team to place third in the Big 8 Conference and improve on many of the team members' individual records.

This year's team was coached for the third year by Coach Joe Spurlin, and with his excellent leadership it continued to improve throughout the whole season.

The boys' track team will suffer from the loss of six valuable seniors, but a number of returning Juniors and Sophomores should be able to fill the gaps.

Ready for the gun and eyeing the finish line, Brent Justice prepares to sprint the hundred.

Hanging on to his lead, Mike Hawkins (Hawk) puts out a final burst of energy during the Big 8 Conference track meet.

C. J. Rose easily clears the 6 ft. 4 in. mark to win the gold in the boy's high jump.

Nothing but taillights. Chris Brown runs the last stretch of the 400 meter dash to place an easy first.

Stick! Manny Roszell receives the baton from Brent Justice during the 800-meter relay.

At the front of the pack, Adrienne Nielsen prepares to show the other runners how it's done.

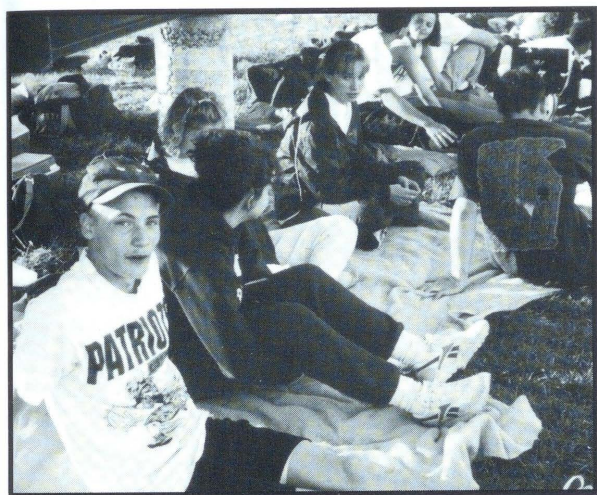

With precise artistic form Shelly Goade drifts over the bar to give her team some extra points.

Come fly with me! While making it all look easy, Mike takes time out of his busy schedule to visit the birds.

Uhhhg! Shawn VanWinkle sends another flying saucer into orbit.

C. J. Rose and other Patriots take a short break before their next events.

Jamie Wolgamott strides out to overcome a leading opponent in the two-mile relay.

Amy Yates and April Brown make a flawless handoff during the 400-meter relay.

Oh man! Summer wonders why the last hurdle is a foot taller than the first ones.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

1994-95 was the first year for The Fellowship of Christian Athletes organization. The East Newton FCA chapter was organized by a group of students, and at the request of those students, Mr. Anderson agreed to be the sponsor. Some of the highlights of the FCA's year included a lock-in at the high school, and an all-school assembly starring Robyn Douglas, who stayed after school to speak to the FCA group.

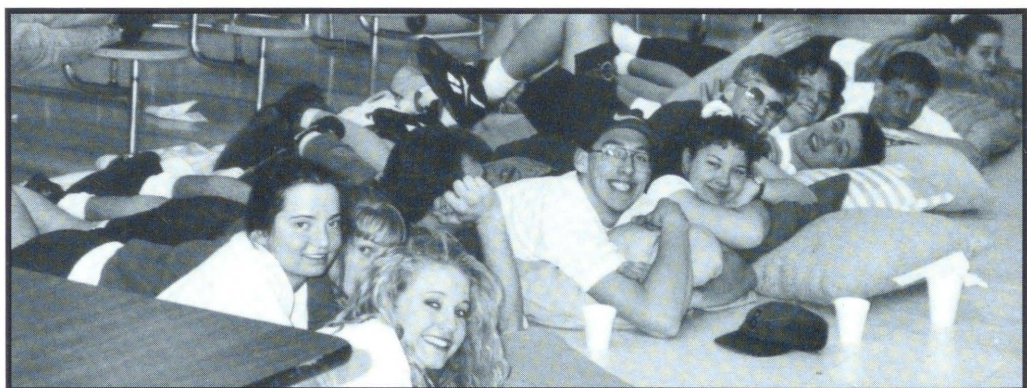

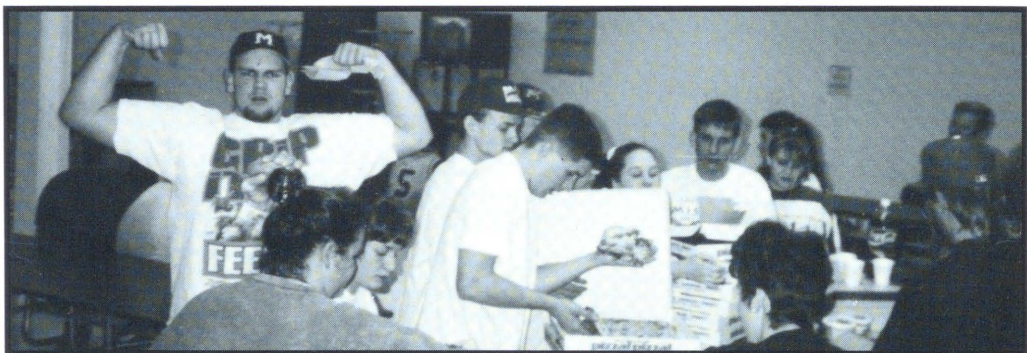

The FCA organization hopes to continue to grow in the future, providing support and increased spiritual growth for all East Newton students.

Hey, look! It's Arnold! (Steve Dopp impersonating) All the FCA'ers are ripping into the pizza during the FCA lock-in.

It is now 3:00 A.M., and no fair propping eyelids with toothpicks. Wake up guys, the party's just getting started!

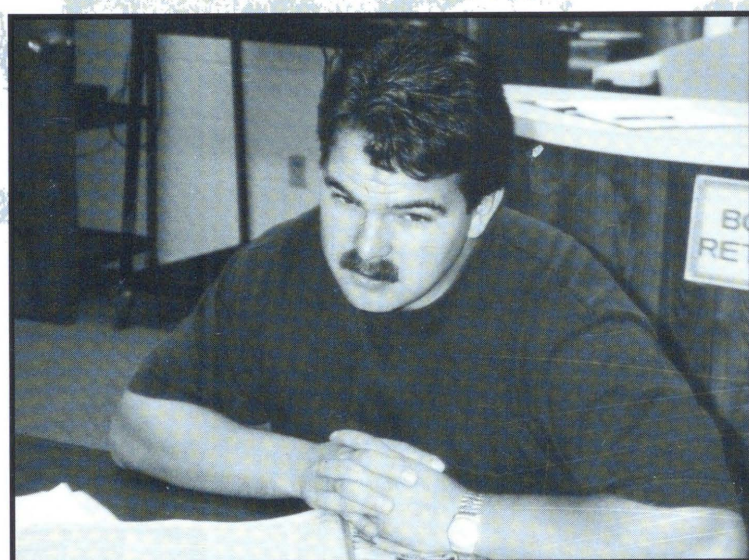

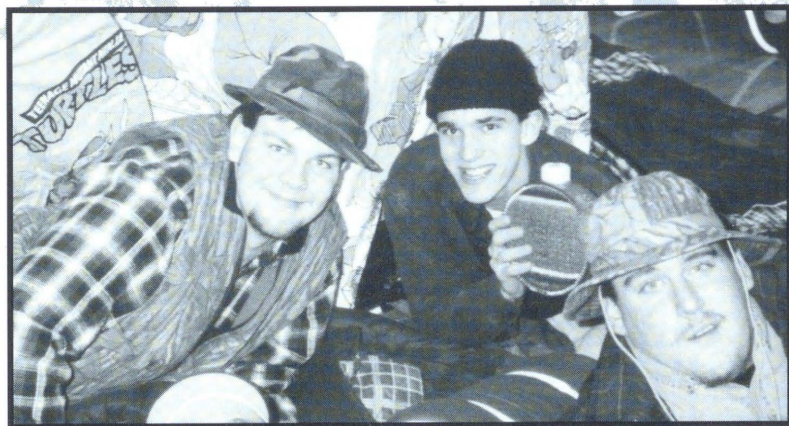

Foreign exchange student, Annie Ouelett, gives us a great big cheesy, Canadian smile. "Is this really where they put me?"

I see a little malefemale mingling going on. Wait, maybe they're just personal coaches. Straighten 'em out guys!

Go ahead LouAnna, pucker real hard maybe nothing frozen will fall off. All you other gals gather 'round and keep your keeper warm!

"Go ahead, I dare ya, take my picture and just see how many limbs you've still got attached to that little body of yours," mumbles Coach Spurlin. That was the last we saw of that mysterious cameraman!

Hey, any of you guys seen the three bank robbers supposedly running loose in these here woods? Don't we have concrete rooms with bars on the doors for guys like this?!

Ohh yeah, let's all do the hokey-pokey, and oh yes, those bubbles add so much feeling.

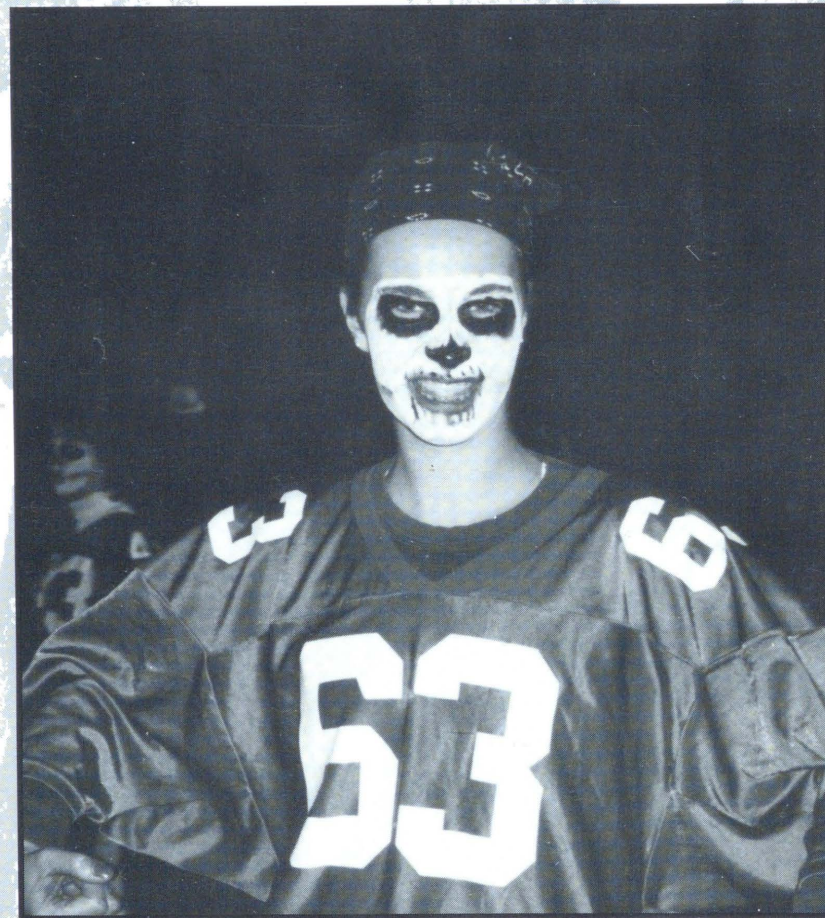

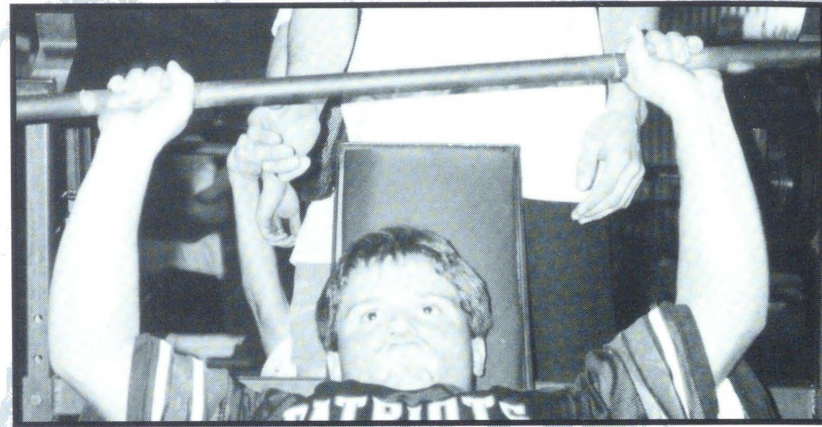

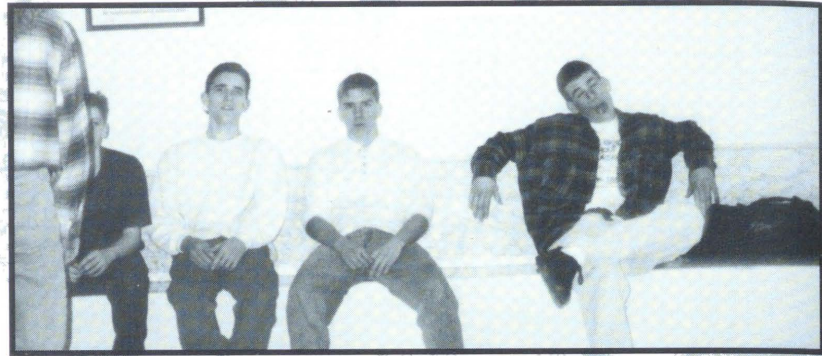

Three guys at a half-way house--Tim Gripka, Josh Hanes, and Michael Miller. One has already been admitted and the other two are waiting to make their debut.

Come on Billy, pucker man pucker! Too bad we can't see the two guys on both ends makin' him look good!

We now return to our regularly scheduled program. This episode is entitled Gomer and Goober go to the library, starring Matt Ward and Brent Harris.

Once upon a time there were four little heathens that loved to look falsely accused. You need to work on that smile girls!

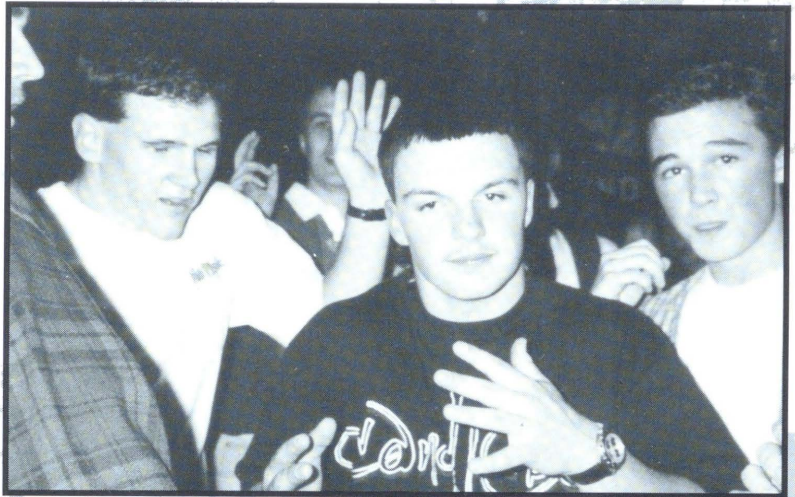

This is the point in the party when the three stooges showed up--Leroy, Leonard, and Larry (Yari Granda, Jamie McCool, and Lou Anna Hanes).

Jamie Wolgamott reenacts the "Program" during the powder puff football game--pure intimidation!

You can just feel all the hot air and gossip flowing out of this picture!

What in the heck is their problem? They must either be stoned or just feelin' real good!

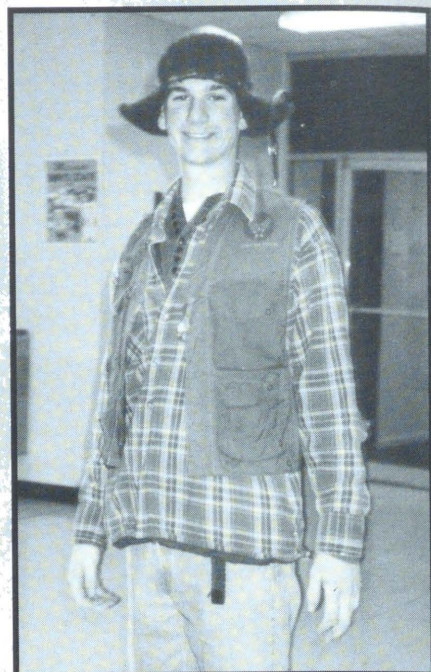

Let's try and decide whether Heidi or Michael was paid to dance with the other one!

You go girls! These guys look better in skirts than in shorts. Derrick, Chris, Michael, and Manny helped out with the cheering for the powder puff football game.

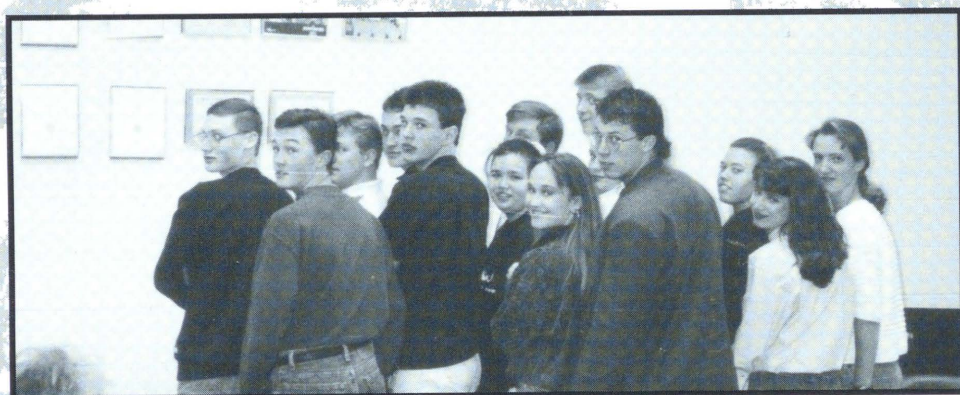

Look out Emmitt, here comes Amy. Amy Yates grittin' the teeth to get those extra few yards. Give it up Amber--TOAST!

The magnificent seniors, Steven, Michelle, Ben, Chesney, Manny, Jamie, and Dan show off what they have been working on in athletics.

Preparing to get a big fish, Michael Miller dresses up for "camp night" at a basketball game.

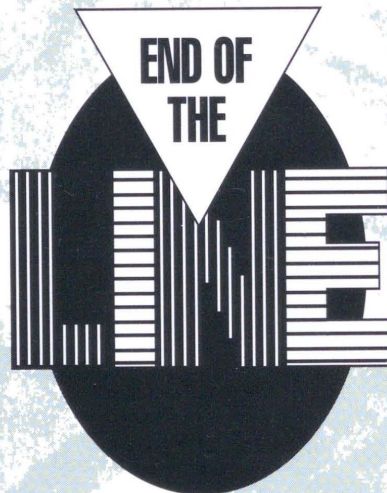

Looking back one more time, these seniors take one last look at their high school years a few weeks before their graduation.

Sleepy sisters, Katy and Laura take a quick nap on the way back from Rolla Math competition.

The 28th volume of the East Newton High School Yearbook was published for the second time by Jostens Publishing Company in Topeka, Kansas. Jostens' sales representative Tom Shields coordinated the planning and preparation of the yearbook.

Two fonts were used throughout the yearbook. The captions and copy were in 9-10 pt. Biffo. All folios are in 10 pt. Bellevue. Headlines vary in size and font according to the subject of the page. The base ink color is black.

This book is composed of 168 pages, 8 of which are color with a glossy finish. The rest are black and white or tempo 194 maroon spot color with a matte finish.

The artworks and graphics were taken from clip art books provided by our past and present yearbook publishing companies. The divider pages were designed by senior yearbook staff member and Graphics Editor Jamie McCool.

The cover is textured white with a brush stroke overtone, and a cover art done by the company. It is finished with a gloss lamination. The name stamping is done in copper foil, and both front and back endsheets are maroon.

205 copies of the 1995 Patriot yearbook were sold for $20.00 each. Name stamping was an extra $2.00, and an extra $1.00 for a plastic dust cover. The twelve member staff sold business and senior advertisements to reduce the cost of the yearbook. Also, pictures from previous years were sold. The total amount raised from business advertisements was $5190.00.

Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein orders his troops to the border of oil-rich Kuwait. The U.S. sends 350 warplanes to the area to support the Kuwaiti forces. By October 11, Hussein orders the withdrawal of most of his forces.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin calls out his poorly trained military to subdue a rebellion in Chechnya, a southern republic the size of Connecticut. Critics accuse Yeltsin of resorting to totalitarian methods of the old communist Soviet regime to keep the shaky Russian Federation unified.

Europe's worst flood in this century kills at least 30 people across Europe. Inland floods caused by melting Alpine snow and relentless rains hit Belgium, France, Germany, and the Netherlands, whose famous dike system begins to crumble late in January 1995 in the face of rampaging rivers. Dutch authorities evacuate 250,000 people from the lowlands.

Camilla Parker Bowles, allegedly Prince Charles' mistress, announces her divorce from her husband, Andrew Parker Bowles. Princess Diana is said to be negotiating a divorce from Charles, who will be free to remarry without giving up the throne—unless unhappy subjects force a referendum on the monarchy.

More than 900 passengers die, 140 are rescued when the Estonia, a 15,500-ton Baltic ferry sinks off the coast of Finland in a violent nighttime storm. The storm's 30-foot waves swamp the ship which lists and sinks in a matter of minutes.

After a peasant uprising in Chiapas and two major political murders, Mexico gets a new president. Ernesto Zedillo, an economist, assumes office only to face a stockmarket crash, a ruined economy, and a loss of international confidence in the wake of the North American Free Trade Agreement.

Conservative religious groups and those who believe in individual rights clash over issues of education for women and family planning at the U.N. International Conference on Population and Development in Cairo, Egypt, September 5.

Bussquet-Sorido from Gamma/Liaison

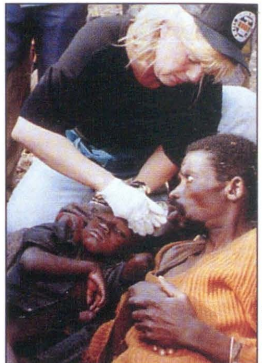

On July 25, U.S. President Bill Clinton welcomes King Hussein of Jordan, right, and Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin to the White House, where the two sign a historic nonaggression pact that ends a 46-year state of belligerency between Israel and Jordan.

Tipper Gore, wife of U.S. Vice President Al Gore, visits Rwandan refugee camps in Zaire in July. Thousands of refugees, fleeing ethnic conflict in Rwanda, die of cholera, dysentery, and other infectious diseases. Fresh water supplied by the United States military greatly reduces the number of cholera deaths.

Palestine Liberation Organization chairman Yasir Arafat returns to Palestine in July 1994 after 27 years of exile in Tunisia. Arafat kisses the ground in the Gaza Strip, now a Palestinian autonomous zone under the terms of a 1993 peace accord with Israel.

In Japan, an earthquake with a magnitude of 7.2 collapses buildings, derails trains, buckles elevated expressways, and causes fires throughout the city of Kobe. Over 5,000 people are killed and 26,000 injured. The Japan quake occurs January 17, 1995, one year to the day after a quake devastated Los Angeles.

Larry Downing, Sigma

U.S. President Bill Clinton, right, and British Prime Minister John Major take part in ceremonies in June 1994 at a military cemetery during the 50th anniversary commemoration of the Allied D-Day invasion of Europe, the event that sealed the fate of Nazi Germany during World War II.

India suffers an outbreak of pneumonic plague, carried by flea-infested vermin. Workers in Bombay earn five rupees for each exterminated rat; one thousand rat-tails earns a color TV.

Catherine Henriette, ICOMÉ

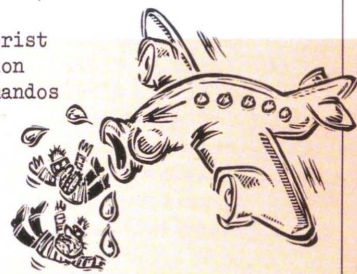

Chinese school children, dressed to look like Colonel Sanders, welcome the president of Kentucky Fried Chicken to Shanghai in May 1994. Few of the country's many foreign business ventures thrive, but KFC becomes a Chinese favorite. The finger-lickin' enterprise makes plans to expand its outlets from 28 to 200.

A triumphant Jean-Bertrand Aristide reclaims his position as president and restores democracy to Haiti with the help of U.S. troops. Haiti had suffered under the rule of a military junta led by General Raoul Cedras, who goes into exile after reaching an agreement with U.S. mediators.

Thousands of Cubans flee their economically depressed homeland, hoping for a better life in America. Many set off on homemade rafts and other small vessels only to be intercepted by the U.S. Coast Guard. The United States and Cuba reach an agreement in September that allows 20,000 Cuban immigrants to enter the United States each year.

In the wake of the 1994 Los Angeles earthquake and the southern California wildfires of 1993, California experiences more natural disasters in January 1995 when rainstorms cause flooding that kills 11 people and leaves 3,000 others homeless. Flooding is so high in Santa Barbara, fun-seeking teenagers dive off a freeway overpass into 15 feet of water. President Clinton declares 34 counties federal disaster areas.

In 1994, the U.S. registers a one-year population growth of 2.7 million. One-third of the increase is due to immigration, the largest such influx since 1914.

Author and humanities professor, Ralph Ellison, dies at age 80. His 1952 novel, Invisible Man, has been called the most powerful novel written about alienation, identity, and racism in America.

A huge increase in killings by 14- to 24-year-olds raises the nation's homicide rate, while violence blamed on preteens rocks communities nationwide. A boy, 13, is sentenced to life for strangling a four-year-old. In Chicago, an 11-year-old boy kills a 14-year-old girl and is then executed by his own gang. In Washington state a pair of 12-year-olds shoot a migrant worker.

National News

The death of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis in May 1994 marks the end of an era, a time when America was prosperous, fighting for civil rights, and heading for the moon. The former first lady is buried next to her husband, President John F. Kennedy, in Arlington National Cemetery, Washington, D.C.

Sygnia

Called the Republican revolution, November mid-term elections put the Republican party and its anti-big government platform in control of Congress for the first time in 40 years. Georgia's Newt Gingrich, author of the GOP's "Contract with America," is the new Speaker of the House.

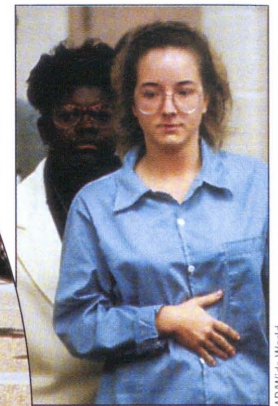

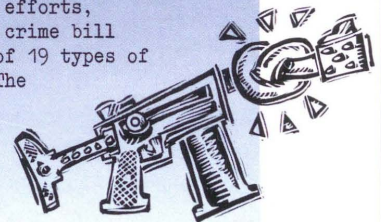

Heat, drought, and lightning combine to set Western states ablaze in late June and July. Fires consume 2,000 acres in Colorado's South Canyon when 50 mile-an-hour winds whip the flames into a firestorm, killing 14 specially trained firefighters; 10 men and four women.

Jeffrey Markowitz, Sygnia

The volunteers for Silent March bring shoes from every state for one of the quietest demonstrations to ever take place in Washington, D.C. Each empty pair of shoes represents one of the more than 40,000 Americans who have been killed by handguns.

Despite powerful National Rifle Association lobby efforts, Congress passes a crime bill banning the sale of 19 types of assault weapons. The Brady Law goes into effect; in one month 23,610 people with criminal records are denied the purchase of a handgun.

AP/Wide World

The prosecution seeks the death penalty in the case of Susan Smith, who dupes the nation with a frightening tale of the abduction of her two little boys. The community's early support grows quickly to hatred when Smith confesses to murder—she sent her children to their deaths at the bottom of a lake.

AP/Wide World

The 37th U.S. President, Richard Nixon, dies in April 1994. Nixon was responsible for restoring normal ties with the People's Republic of China following the signing of the Shanghai Communique in 1972.

Rick Phillips, The Jamesville Gazette

A rare white buffalo named Miracle draws crowds to the humble Wisconsin farm where it was born August 20. Native Americans believe the calf is the fulfillment of a Lakota Sioux prophecy. Five hundred years ago, White Buffalo Woman told her people that she would return as a white calf to usher in a new age of harmony between all races of mankind.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration blasts the tobacco company executives at a congressional hearing in March 1994 for denying that nicotine, a drug found in cigarette smoke, is addictive. Tobacco industry workers fear losing their jobs if the FDA succeeds in classifying and restricting cigarettes as a drug.

The Flint River overflows, washing coffins out of a Georgia cemetery after torrential rains from tropical storm Alberto flood Georgia and the Florida-Alabama panhandle. Thirty-two people die, 40,000 are temporarily homeless, and 10,000 square miles are underwater, causing $100 million in crop damage.

Former football star O.J. Simpson is charged with the June 12th stabbing death of his ex-wife Nicole and her friend Ronald Goldman, causing a non-stop media avalanche. The sensational case familiarized watchers with spouse abuse, a televised ride in a white Ford Bronco, "Kato" Kaelin, and DNA testing. Simpson faces the jury in January.

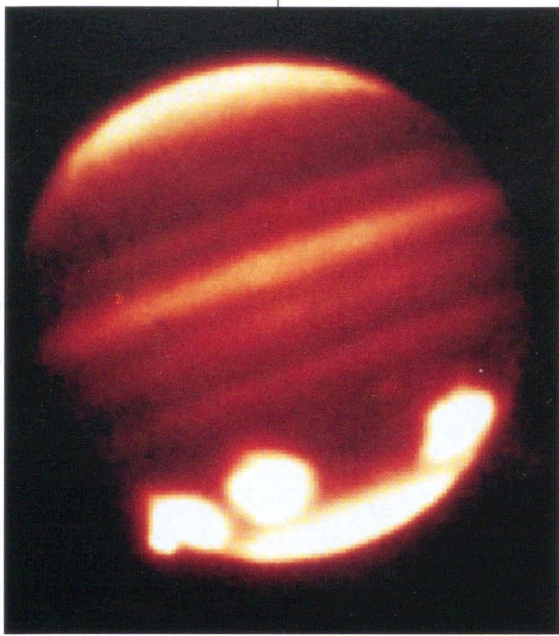

Reuters/Bettmann

President Clinton, with Republican leader Bob Dole, signs legislation implementing the U.S. role in an expanded General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), one of the most sweeping trade liberalization pacts in history. The legislation makes the U.S. a member of a new 125-member World Trade Organization. Protectionists worry that GATT may promote world trade but won't sufficiently protect American jobs.

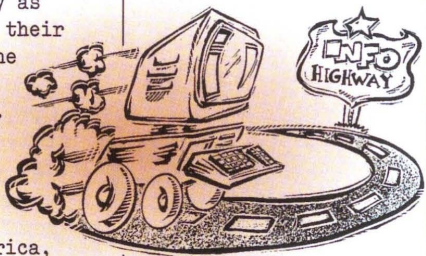

The Secret Service considers restricting public access to the White House after a gunman fires 27 rounds at the building's facade in October. In September, a small Cessna airplane crashes on the South Lawn and comes to rest at the base of the White House below President Clinton's bedroom, killing the pilot.

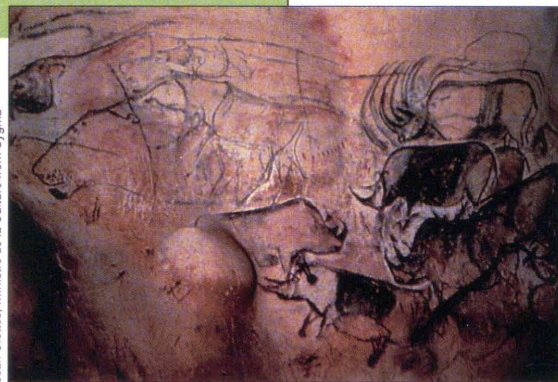

Astronomers wait at every major telescope in the world to see the historic cosmic crack-up of the 21 big fragments of Comet Shoemaker-Levy 9 as it smacks into the atmosphere of Jupiter at 134,000 miles an hour. Plumes of fire shoot up hundreds of miles, high enough to become visible to telescopes on Earth.

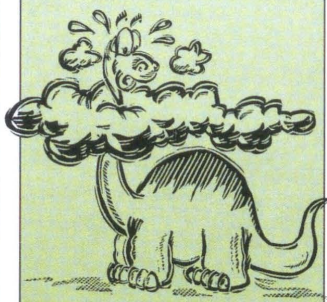

Internet activity rises sharply as surfers find their way around the information superhighway. Advertisers, rock music reviewers, the worldly Voice of America, and others decide it's time to jump on.

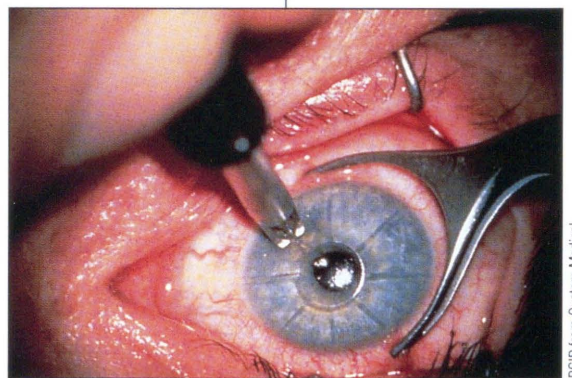

Jean Clottes, Ministre de la Culture from Sygma

Acave is found in southern France, full of 300 vivid paintings of woolly-haired rhinos, bears, mammoths, panthers, and owls made about 20,000 years ago. The Stone Age artists also left behind bear skulls, flint knives, footprints, and fireplaces. Experts call it the archaeological find of the century.

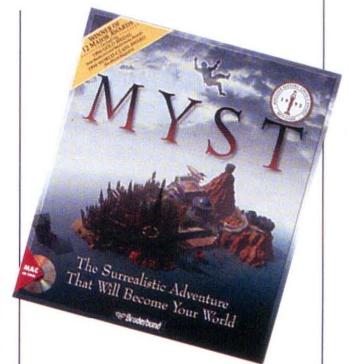

NASA publishes a new report supporting the theory that a giant comet hit Earth 65 million years ago and vaporized 100 billion tons of sulphur to create the cloud barrier that froze Earth's atmosphere and killed the dinosaurs.

A long-term study of radial keratotomy finds it generally safe and effective. For the nearsighted, tiny spokelike incisions into the eye improve focusing ability and eliminate the need for eyeglasses. The patient is awake for the procedure.

The non-violent CD-ROM game Myst by Cyan, Inc. becomes a best-selling phenomenon, winning legions of devoted fans and spawning imitators. The fantasy-adventure's graphic visuals are hyper-real; the written word is the key to the mystery.

One of Lake Superior's enduring mysteries is solved by scientists and marine historians who explore the wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald, an ore carrier that sank with its crew in a 1975 storm. The ship, overused and in poor condition, was ripped apart by 90-mph winds and 30-foot waves. Most of the 29 crewmen are entombed inside the wreckage, well preserved in the 39° waters.

Gerard Lasz, Animals/Animals

Cutbacks in military spending force the U.S. Navy to reduce its elite 100-dolphin fleet trained for use in sonar research, mine sweeping, and underwater recovery. Too tame to be released in the open sea, the veterans of conflicts from Vietnam to the Persian Gulf retire to aquariums and water parks.

The most popular names for newborns this year are Ashley and Michael.

Young people serve their country by volunteering under a new program called AmeriCorps, where 20,000 people aged 17 and up work with community-based organizations in exchange for $7,500 plus money toward college tuition or loans.

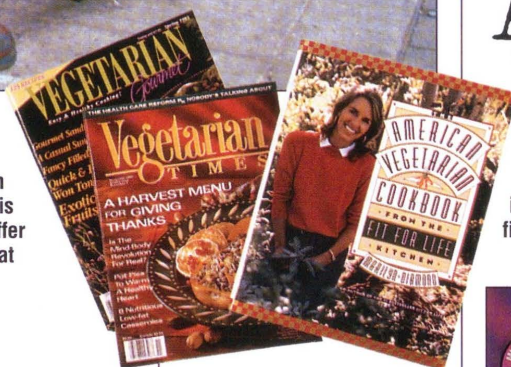

One percent of the nation's 50 million school-age children learn at home as families seek alternatives to public schools. In a handful of high-tech experiments, kids submit homework by modem, download books and artwork from the Internet, and collaborate on academic projects with other children around the world.

A survey of college kids reveals their favorite sources of sugar and caffeine during all-night studying to be: powdered iced tea, peanut butter mixed with marshmallow cream, baby food, ramen noodles, raw cookie dough, and trail mix made from chocolate chips, graham cracker bits, and mini-marshmallows.

A lively new cafe society centers around the 5,000 gourmet coffeeshops which spring up around the country. To the often young and trendy patrons, the social interaction is just as important as the espresso. Some cafes offer full-time Internet links so patrons can sip and chat with other Internet latte-drinkers.

Yoga, a Hindu system of stretching exercises for well-being, surges in popularity, mostly because the older generation seeks a technique for alleviating stress and finds yoga better than aerobics.

Colta, Gamma/Liaison

Aerobic boxing, with boxing-style leg and arm work, turns out to be one of the year's hot exercise trends, showing up in workout studios and attracting those who want to work off their aggression by throwing a right and a few jabs.

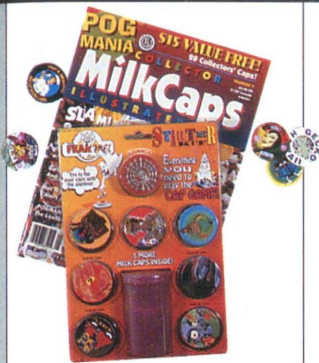

Besides recycled clothing like license-plate bustiers, bottle-cap jewelry, trash-bag and duct-tape dresses, fashion trends include the schoolgirl look with thigh-highs, and the grunge-turned-beatnik look of long, straight hair and a goatee.

A new survey shows that over 12 million Americans are vegetarians, choosing the no-meat lifestyle because of concern about animal cruelty, cost-efficiency, eco-friendliness and/or improved health and fitness.

The hottest merchandise around is Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, so hot Cabbage Patch dolls pale in comparison. Parents criticize Fox's super-violent TV show, but their kids crave Dragon Daggers, Megazords, and the 4-foot, $230 battery powered car. "Go, go, Power Rangers!"

Lifestyle News

A hot new collectible derives from an old household item. Milk caps, known in some regions as pogs, originally capped the bottles left by the milkman but have now gone funky with colorful printed designs and variations that are traded and used in games.

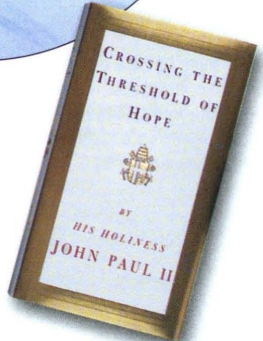

Although most are forced to settle for Oakley wrap-arounds, stylin' kids, like in-line skaters and urban youth, clamor for Arnet's $80 Ravens with the silver-chrome frames.

Led by brash young skate and surf types, two million snowboarders nationwide discover the joy of swooping down slopes on one board instead of two. No hard boots, no poles, no crossed tips, make it easier than skiing. Since their giant frozen wave is a ski hill, snowboarders annoy old-style skiers who want their slopes left undisturbed by shredders.
