Time it was,
and what a time it was,
it was . . .
a time of innocence,
a time of confidence.
long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
they're all that's left you.
Paul Simon

HAPPINESS IS...

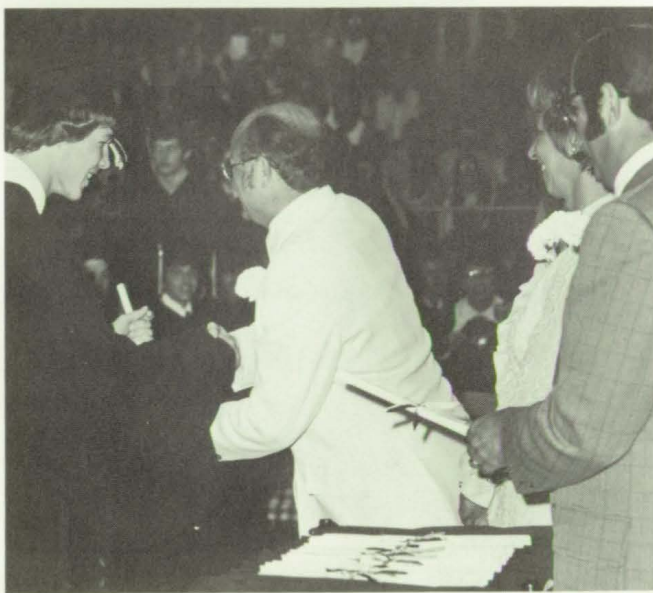

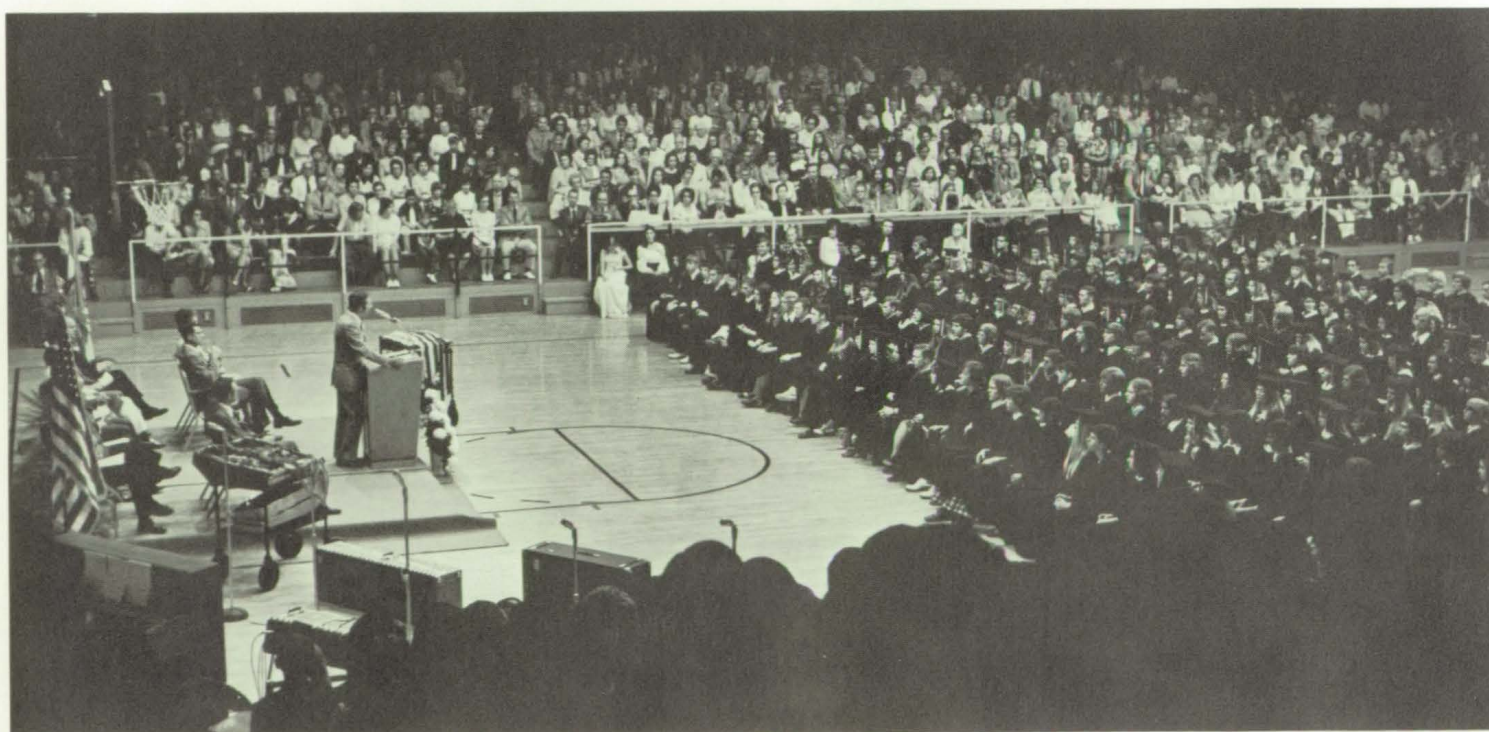

Baccalaureate speaker — Reverend James Schnackenberg.

With graduation comes mixed emotions from graduates, relatives, family, and friends. But with the sadness and the gladness there is worry. "Do I look okay? My cap won't stay on straight! Does anybody have a bobby pin?" Then, to add to every thing else, you see your father getting ready to snap your picture during procession. You don't look at the camera and later find out that the dummy behind you was smiling wide enough for both of you.

H. F. Evans was the speaker at Commencement.

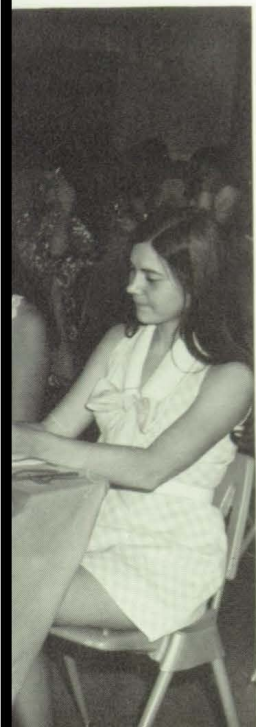

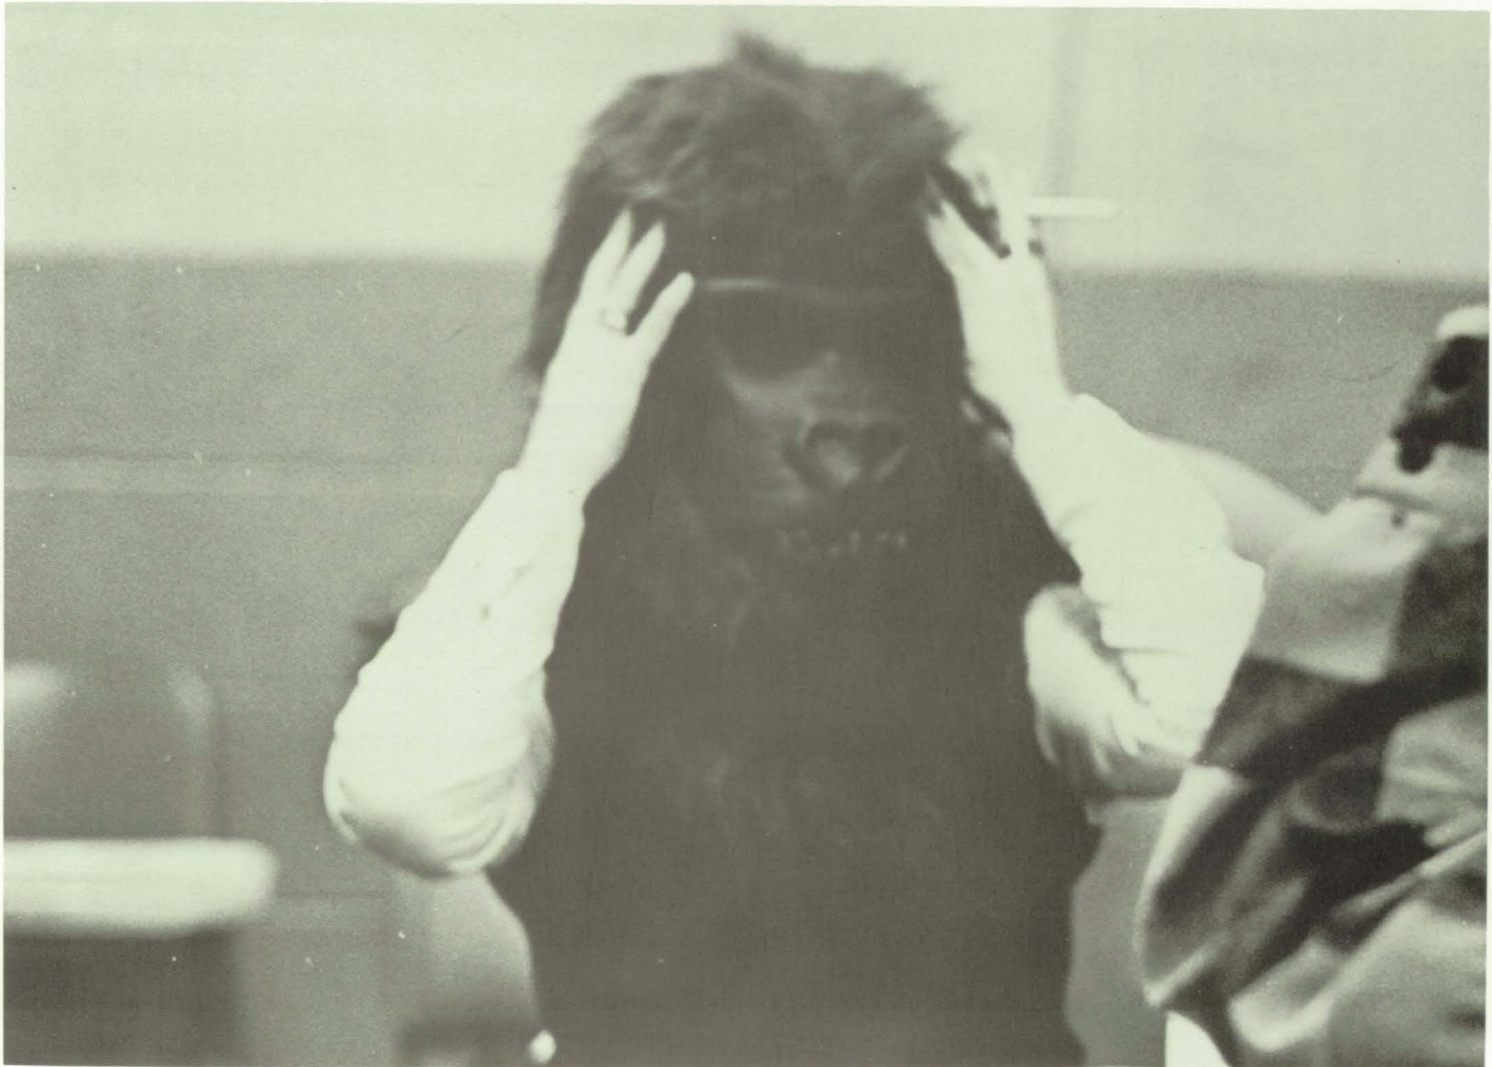

A senior dinner was held on May 18th for graduating seniors. The choraleers sang and Linda Tomlinson did a routine and the senior personalities were told. Mr. Tink was also named teacher of the year by the senior members and Jon Wallace gave a drum solo.

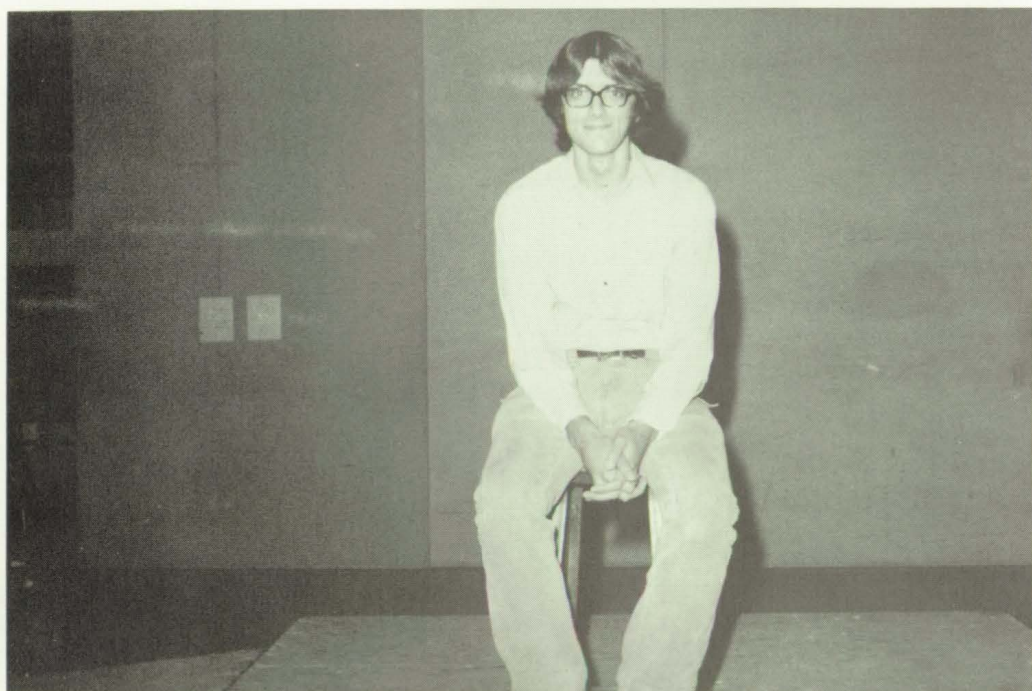

Ooh! I feel funny, what'd they put in my drink?

Who turned out the lights?!

I wonder how long I'm suppose to sit here?

Now this is what I call relaxation!

I wish he'd hurry up and take my picture.

CHEESE!

The Annual Staff took this time and space to say "hi" to the student body of Neosho High School, from Steve, Jerry, Sandi, Greg, Pat, Carol, Ann, Mark, Tony, Krista, Mark, Tim, and Debbie.

Let me tweeck your cheek.

All right class

I wonder if he talks??

All's I ever do is
TYPE, TYPE,
TYPE, TYPE,
TYPE, ERASE,
type, type, type, type,
type, erase, erase,
type, type, all hour
long.

Mom, can I cut the rest of the day?

You paint the paper this way Mike . . .

Sometimes I can't figure humans out.

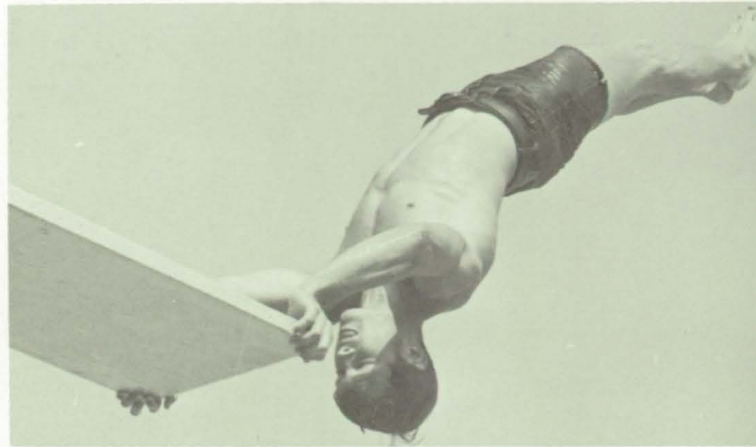

That was a big rabbit!

If you wanted the ball why didn't you just tell me???

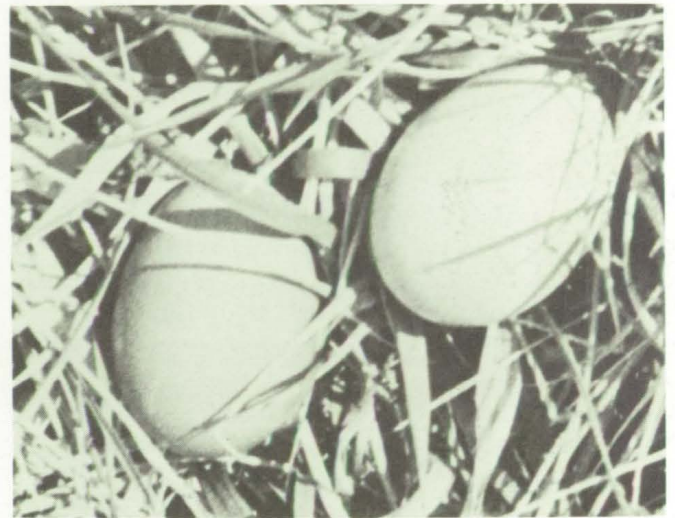

Surprise, Surprise!!!

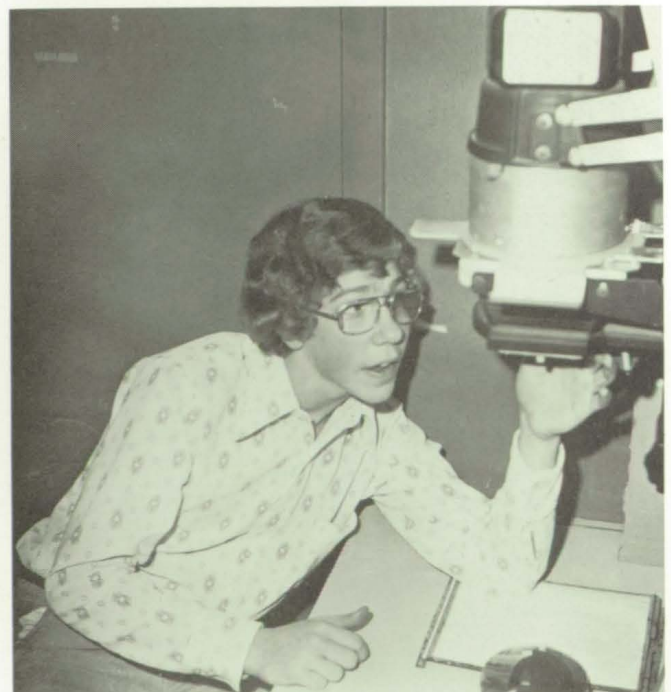

Geronimo!

One, two, three, four, one, two, three, four!

Eggs anyone?

Hey, Greg! I think I've got it!!

The varsity cheerleaders look happy after just being selected for the 72-73 year.

Tackle, end, center, guard!!! Brrrr . . . it's cold!!

I protest!! Well, you know . . .

Ann Bone and Kathy Lentz work diligently on the junior basketball homecoming tags, with the jr. theme — Wildcat Bandstand.

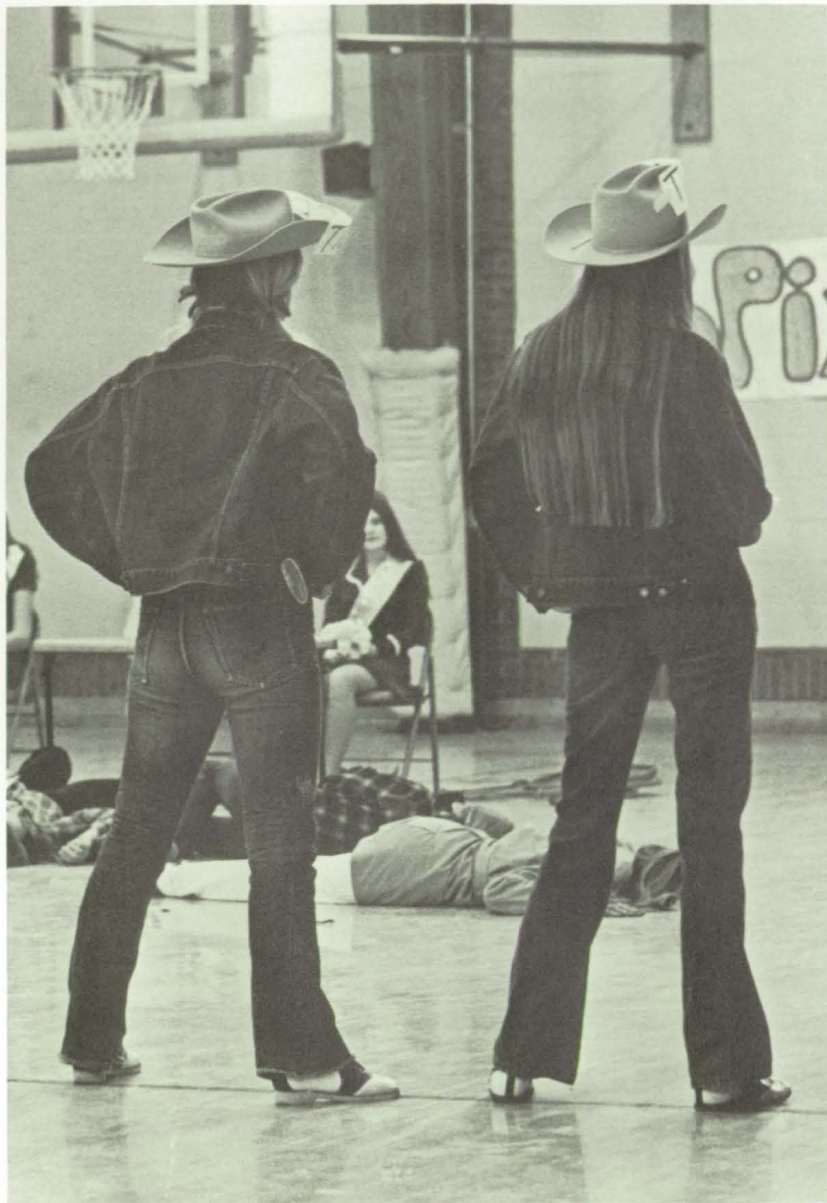

From the Class of '73 there were three senior candidates for basketball queen.

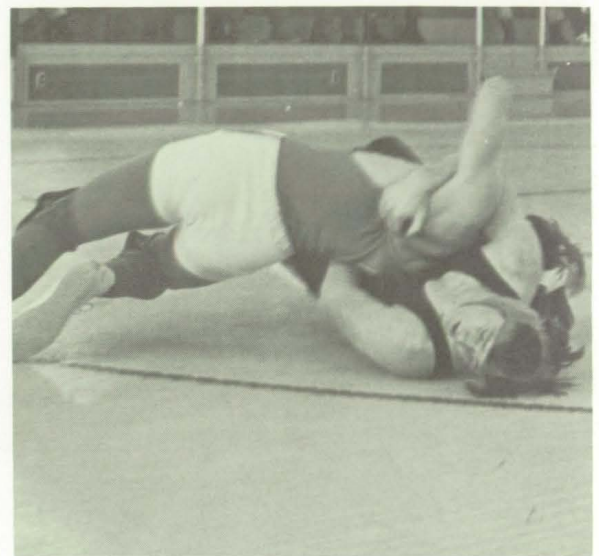

Pam Holloway and Judy Martin are seated in the convertibles that took them around in the square during the football homecoming parade. These two seniors were candidates for homecoming queen.

You'll get over it!!!!!!!!!!!!

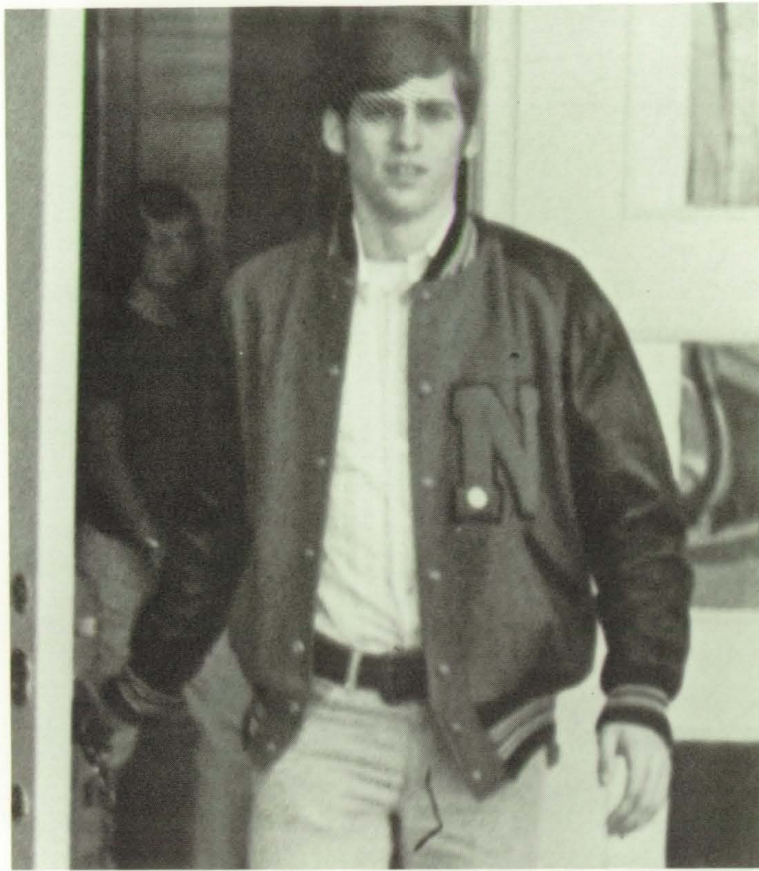

The END is near!!!!!!

You're a squirmly little rascal!!

I wonder

Let's Go to Big Rock

I wonder what this will lead up to?!

Let's dance . . .

Now stop peeking!

They say that a way to a man's heart is through his stomach.
Coach Brown may not think so.

I SPY!!

"This little light of mine, I'm going to make it shine".

"Ha, ha, caught cha, thought ya could fool me didn't ya!"

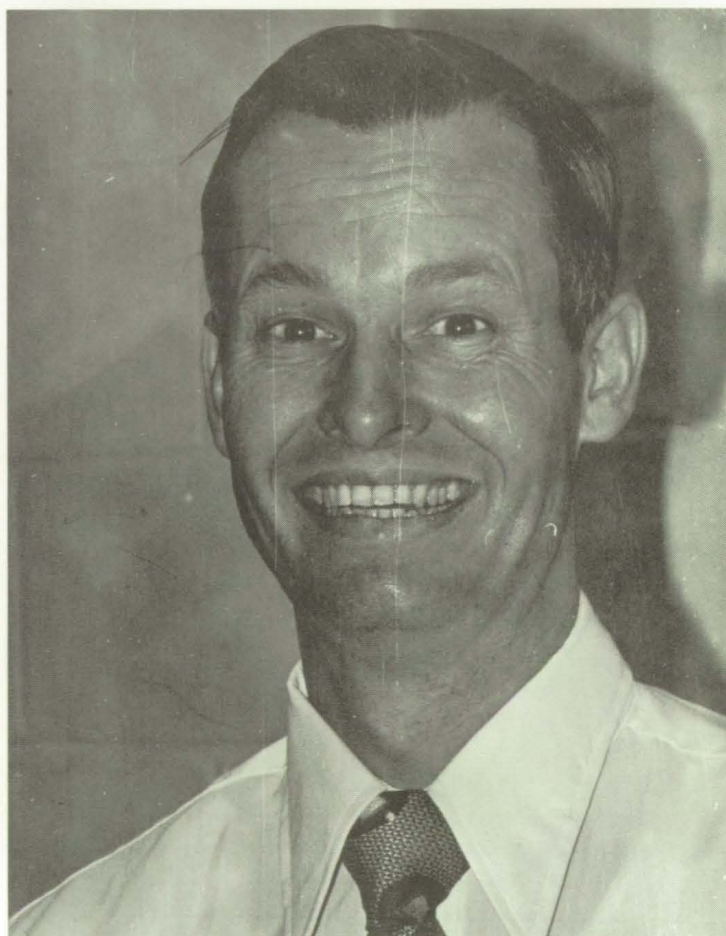

All white spaces are provided by us (Pat and Sandi) for your convenience for your autographs.

Hands are given unto you to use for many purposes . . . try and use them wisely

You don't say . . .

Tee Hee! . . .

Look Mom, no cavities!!!

Why don't you come up and see me sometime??

Now today we'll be talking about everything I wanted to know about you, but you were afraid to tell . . .

"And on the Seventh Day"

In the end,
There was Earth, and it was with form and beauty.
And Man dwelt upon the lands of the Earth, the meadows and trees,
and he said,
"Let us build our dwellings in this place of beauty."
And he built cities and covered the Earth with concrete and steel.
And the meadows were gone.
And Man said, "It is good."

On the second day Man looked upon the waters of the Earth.
And Man said, "Let us put our wastes in the waters that the dirt will be washed away."
And Man did.
And the waters became polluted and foul in smell.
And Man said, "It is good."

On the third day Man looked upon the forests of the Earth and saw they were beautiful.
And Man said, "Let us cut the timber for our homes and grind the wood for our use."
And Man did.
And the lands became barren and the trees were gone.
And Man said, "It is good."

On the fourth day, Man saw that animals were in abundance and ran in the fields and played in the sun.
And Man said, "Let us cage these animals for our amusement and kill them for sport."
And Man did.
And there were no more animals on the face of the Earth.
And Man said, "It is good."

On the fifth day, Man breathed the air of the Earth.
And Man said, "Let us dispose of our wastes into the air for the winds shall blow them away."
And Man did.
And the air became heavy with dust and all living things choked and burned.
And Man said, "It is good."

On the sixth day, Man saw himself and seeing the many Languages and tongues, he feared and hated.
And Man said, "Let us build great machines and destroy these lest they destroy us."
And Man built great machines and the Earth was fired with rage of great wars.
And Man said, "It is good."

On the seventh day, Man rested from his labors and the Earth was still, for Man no longer dwelt upon the Earth.
And it was good.

Hey you Turkey!

Greg!

Does she or doesn't she?

Guess who?

"Alright Sandi and Pat if the yearbook is not completed by May 24 you don't graduate!"

A new addition to the Neosho High School this year was the Student Lounge. Everyone has enjoyed lounging on it during the warmer days. Some teachers took their classes out on it which was nice; too bad it wasn't big enough for all of us to use on those exceptionally hot days. H. F. Evans dedicated the lounge to us.

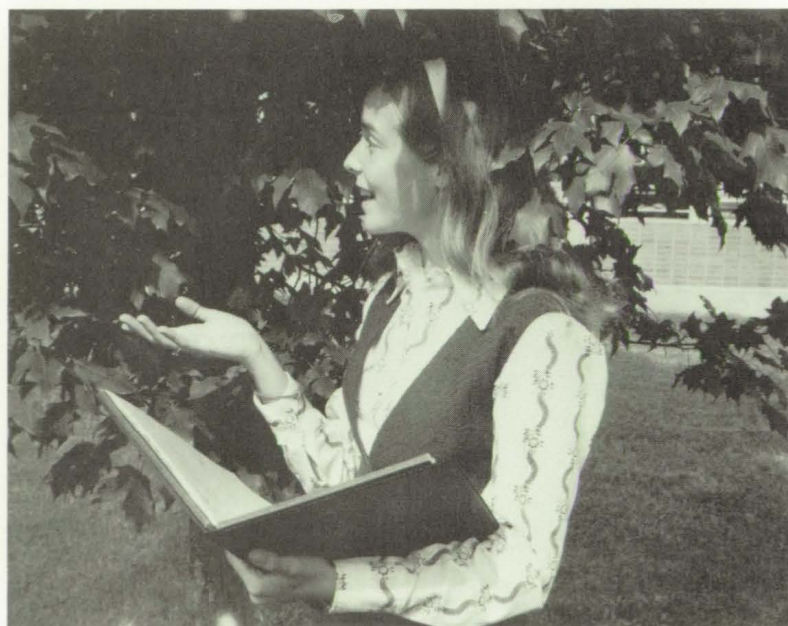

"Maybe, maybe not"

"Yes"

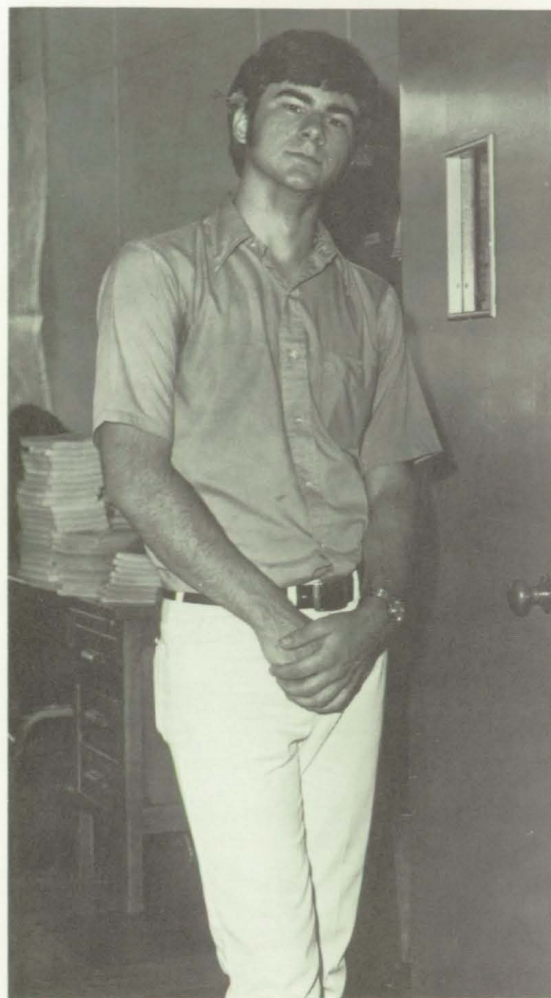

I'm underneath the apple tree, . . . but where's the apple?! . . .

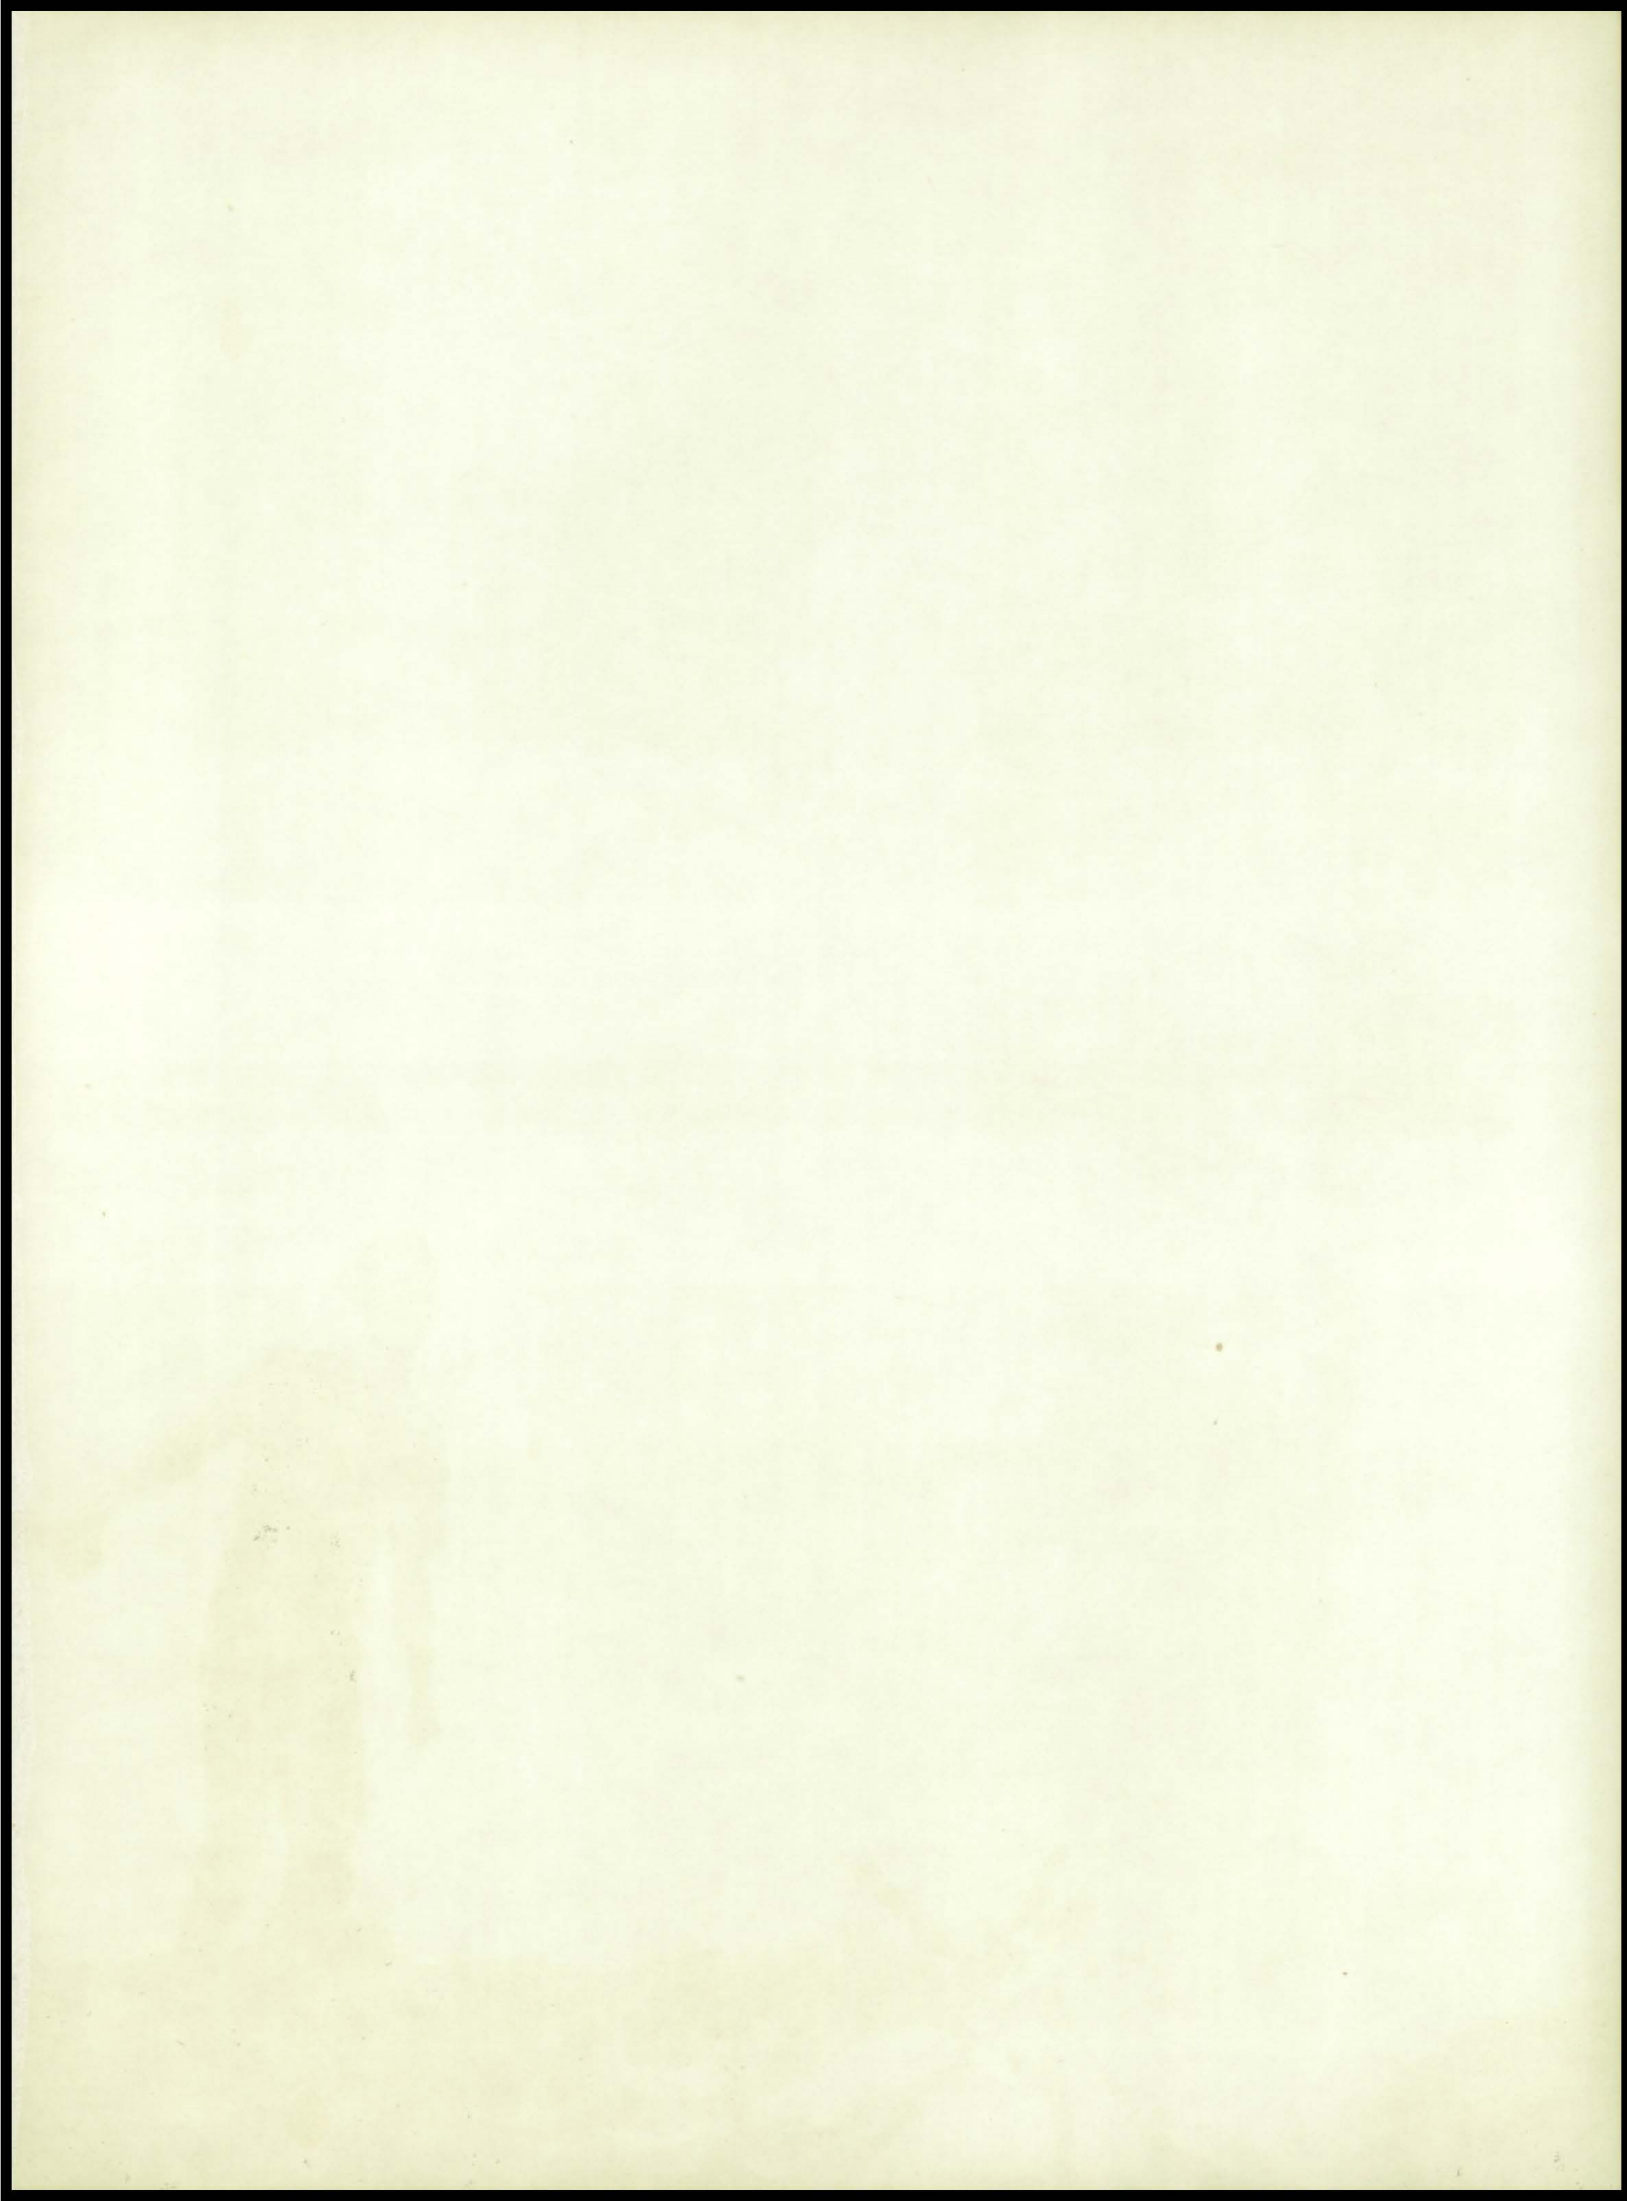

Oh, no! 100 pages to go and 3 days to do them in.
