Dedication

Mr. R. W. Anderson

For twenty-seven years the Neosho school system has had the leadership of a man who is recognized as a truly outstanding school administrator. Under his guidance and supervision, the schools of Neosho have progressed until today they are considered to be among the finest in the state. He has striven tirelessly and constantly to improve the quality of education in our schools from the kindergarten through the high school. These improvements and accomplishments speak for themselves: the well-planned buildings, the wide variety of curricular offerings, as well as the other aspects of the school system, are evidences of his wise and competent guidance.

For these attainments he will be long remembered after his retirement this year; but the hundreds of students who have been educated in our schools during his years in Neosho and the teachers who have been associated with him will remember him always for his understanding and inspiring leadership, for his words of encouragement and advice, and for his warm and genuine friendliness.

It is to Superintendent R. W. Anderson, then, that the students and faculty of Neosho High School respectfully dedicate the NEOHIMO of 1965.

James T. Payne

Neosho School Board

Mr. Roy Cochran, secretary; Mr. H. F. Evans, Mr. Tom McClintock, Mr. Hal McGinty, president; Mr. Robert Burrows, vice-president; Mr. Harry Herranen, Dr. James Castleberry, and Mr. R. W. Anderson.

The Neosho Public Schools are fortunate to have these men on the School Board. Much time and work is needed to fill this position, and these men do an excellent job. School regulations, rules, policies, bills and salaries are dependent upon them. These men approve the budget and form the foundation of our schools. As businessmen, they give much free time to make our schools the excellent ones that they are, and we must congratulate them for their outstanding work.

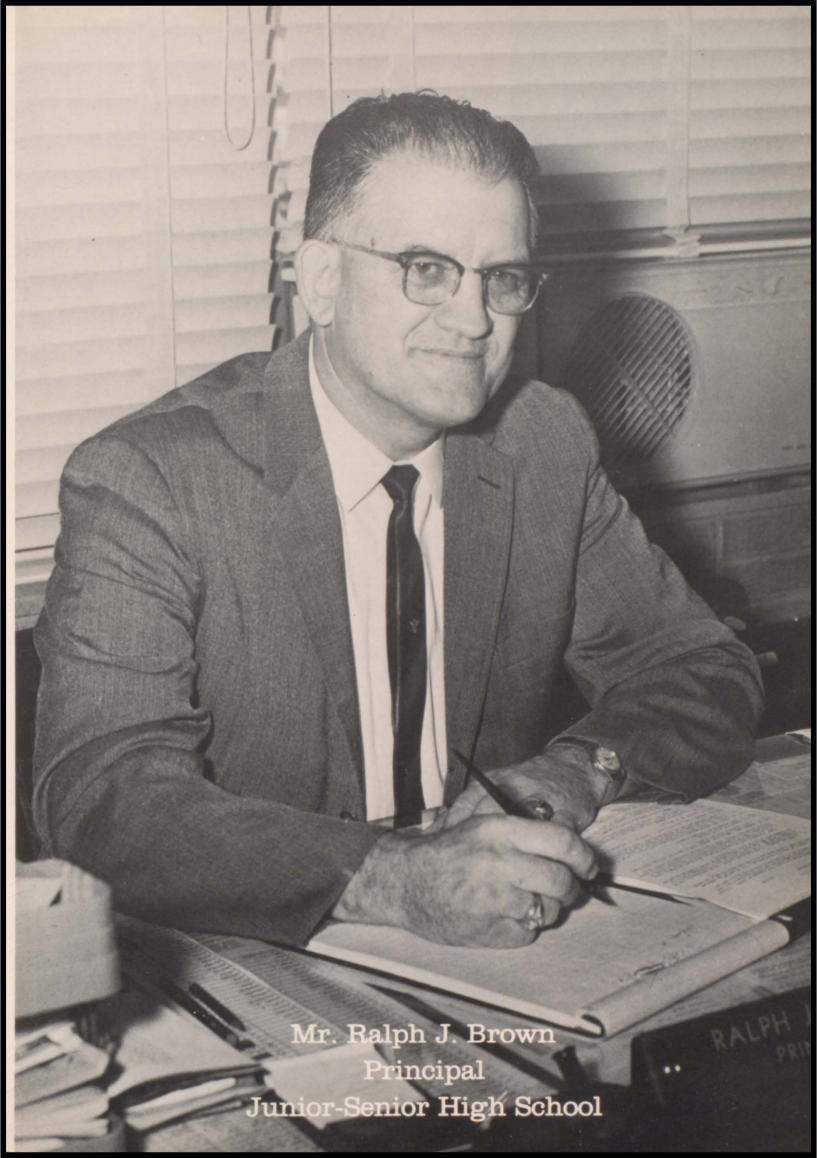

Dr. James Castleberry-Assistant Superintendent.

This year, a new position was created in the administrative section of our schools. Dr. James Castleberry was elected to the position of assistant superintendent in order to be more fully cognizant of the problems and policies of the Neosho Public Schools

Dr. Castleberry will step into the position of superintendent upon the retirement of our present superintendent, Mr. R. W. Anderson, who will retire at the end of the 1964-65 school year.

The Neosho Annual staff is composed of four sophomores, four juniors and four seniors. The four senior co-editors met last summer to decide the theme and plan the pages of the book. The staff then compiles the pages during the year, and sends them to the publisher. The staff not only prepares the yearbook, but also does most of the art work needed by the school, such as preparations for the basketball and speech tournaments.

Our thanks go to Mr. Murphy, because without him we couldn't do it!

Polly Mabrey - typist.

JUNIOR STAFF MEMBERS--Ron Wallace, Janice Fowler, Sharon Rockefeller, and Bob Gofourth.

The National Honor Society is an honorary organization which is an attempt to promote higher moral and ethical standards in high school students. The qualities of leadership, scholarship, service, and character are necessary to become a member. Anyone possessing these four qualities and ranking in the upper third of his class is eligible. The names of the top third in both Junior and Senior classes are sent to the faculty who vote on the five per cent of the Juniors and Ten per cent of the Seniors who best fill the requirements. These ballots are counted and those with the highest number of votes are again voted on, the selected five and ten per cent being accepted as members.

Mr. Anderson, retiring Superintendent, was the inspirational speaker.

Mr Payne was honored by members of the National Honor Society.

Faculty-Senior Game

Tim Easley gets an assist from Lavern Tuggle to gain 2 points.

At the conclusion of the 1964-65 basketball season, the graduating Wildcat seniors were challenged by the aged, but well-seasoned, high school faculty. The faculty led the seniors from the beginning and the game proved to be an hilarious, foul-filled spectacle. Although the seniors were trounced by the faculty, the game is sure to become an annual affair.
